Theatrical Encounter To Be Held At St. Matthews

"Theatrical Encounter" is the name of the week's workshop in which 18 young people are participating this week in a program sponsored by Pioneer Girl Scout Council Service Center at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Nan Jean Grant, who is directing the workshop, said that the program will culminate on Friday with presentation by the young women of the play, "The Potted Prince", free and open to the public, at 3 p.m. at the church.

In addition to learning their lines this week, the group will make their own costumes and stage settings for the play and will also take charge of makeup for the production. Each young lady, many of whom are Girl Scouts, will have a role in the grand finale performance on the last day of the workshop.

Mrs. Grant said that the workshop began on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m. and continues daily until 3:30 p.m. "These young people are learning about the fascinating world of drama and enjoying it", she said.

Members of the cast of "Potted Prince", are Angle Smith as the Prince; Deanna Warren as the King; Liza Blanton as the Queen;

Becky Bolt as the first wise woman; Jennifer Bradley as the second wise woman; Robin Warlick as the third wise woman; Teresa Smith as the fourth wise woman; Paige Mauney as the first princess; Beth Eskridge as the second princess; Robyn Ramsey as the third princess; Victoria Shaw, as the daughter of the potter; Daune Brazzell as the mother; Laura Duncan as the father; Crystal Bolin as the fairy queen; Shelly Robbs as the first gnome; Tammy Peterson as the second gnome; Lisa White as the first old witch; and Jill Plonk as the second old witch.

Car Wash

The Kings Mountain Jaycees will sponsor a car wash Sat., July 21 from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the parking lot of Kings Mountain Savings and Loan Association. Dave Dilling, chairman, said the cost is $3 for one car, but a two or more car family can have the rest of their vehicles washed for half price. All proceeds will go into Jaycee community projects.

Adkins Charged

Kings Mountain Police charged Linda Ann Adkins of Kings Mountain with shoplifting after an incident Sunday afternoon at TG&Y.

According to investigating officers Sgt. John Belk and Ptl. Billy Benton, 37 bottles of Oil of Olay skin cream were removed from the premises. Ms. Adkins posted $200 bond and trial is slated in district court in Shelby Aug. 2.

Status Of Women Council To Meet

The Cleveland Council on the Status of Women will sponsor a lunch-hour seminar on Thursday, July 26, from 12 - 1 p.m. at Shelby Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall. The audio-visual program, "Passages: Critical Stages of Human Development", will be followed by discussion led by Dottie McIntyre of Cleveland Technical Institute. The seminar is the third in a series sponsored by the Council. Previous programs focused on self-awareness and time management. Participants may bring a bag lunch, and soft drinks will be available for purchase. The seminar is free and open to the public.
