

Miss Howell, Mr. Sanders Pledge Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony

Resurrection Lutheran Church provided the setting Sat., July 14th, for a 3 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Sherri Ann Howell and David Lee Sanders.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. James Sanders, uncle of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Larry Wood was organist for the program of wedding music and vocal selections were by Miss Cindy Brackett who sang "The Shadow of Your Smile" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Organ prelude included "You Light Up My Life", "We've Only Just Begun", "More", "Feelings", "April Love", "Because", "I Love You Truly", "I'll Never Stop Loving You", "Oh Promise Me", and "Wonderful One". The processional was "Wedding March" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner and the recessional was Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

The altar of the church was banked with greenery and arranged with spiral candelabra. Baskets of summer flowers were at either side of the altar and a Unity candle centered the setting which the couple lighted together after exchanging pledges and rings.

Ray Howell, Sr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white Chantilly lace styled with square neckline, straight, lace sleeves and empire waistline. The gown was elegantly fashioned with a full, lace Chapel train. Matching Chantilly lace trimmed her fingertip veil which was attached to a lace-covered Juliet headpiece, and she carried a nosegay of yellow Sweetheart roses, white pompon chrysanthemums and silk coral forgerel fern and gypsophilla.

Miss Cynthia Johnson attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Kim Howell of Kings Mountain, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Becky Sanders of Kings Mountain, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Miss Cathy Barnette, Miss Sharon Buchanan, and Mrs. Sandy Jackson Etters of Kings Mountain. Miss Joni Wright of Kings Mountain presided at the register.

All the attendants wore long formal dresses of apricot print silesta styled with empire waistlines and ruffled draped backs. The dresses had full skirts. They carried nosegays of yellow sweetheart roses, bronze pompons, silk coral forgerel fern, and gypsophilla.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father, Dathia Lee Sanders.

Groomsmen were Mike Howell of Charlotte, Ray Howell Jr. of Kings Mountain, brothers of the bride, Steve Sanders, brother of the bridegroom, Keith Goforth, Danny Goforth and Glenn Roberts, all of Kings Mountain.

The bride's mother chose a long gown of seagreen print Silesta featuring a blouson bodice and sunburst-pleated skirt. She wore a corsage of Royal Bouquet orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a long gown of yellow chiffon featuring a floral cape. She wore a corsage of Royal Bouquet orchids.

After the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom greeted guests in the church vestibule and left for a wedding trip to White Lake.

Route 4, Kings Mountain, is home for the newlyweds.
