

Miss Patricia Flake Becomes Bride Of Mr. Philip Weathers

The Chapel of First United Methodist Church of Gastonia was the setting Saturday for a 1 p.m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Patricia Ann Flake and Philip Alan Weathers.

Rev. John McWhorter heard the couple pledge vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Edith Kerah was organist and Ronnie Whisnant was guitarist for the program of nuptial music.

The altar of the church was arranged with yellow and white flowers.

Victor L. Flake, Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white Chantilly lace designed along empire lines with off-shoulder-draped bodice.

She wore a white pillbox hat of lace and carried an antique lace handkerchief and wore a pendant that are traditional at weddings in her mother's family.

Mrs. Cathy Barrows of Cary was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a blue formal-length dress and carried a bouquet of daisies, white carnations and baby's breath.

Samuel A. Weathers of Shelby was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Gerald Weathers of Shelby, brother of the bridegroom; and Mike Somers of Shelby.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception which carried out the yellow and white theme of the wedding. A three-tiered yellow and white wedding cake was topped with roses and served with punch and party refreshments.

presiding at the guest registers were Jill Sistare of Kings Mountain, Cheryl Gilmore of Gastonia, Linda Nicholson of Asheboro and Mrs. Kandi Flake of Charlotte, sister-in-law of the bride.

Shelby will be home for the newlyweds after they return from a trip to Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Flake, Jr. of Bessemer City are parents of the bride who is a graduate of Ashbrook High School and a 1978 graduate of Appalachian State University with B.S. in Elementary Education, K-9, Math and Science. She is employed by the Kings Mountain District Schools as a teacher at Central School.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Weathers of Shelby. He is a graduate of Shelby High School and a 1976 graduate of Gardner-Webb College with a B.S. degree. He is employed by Kings Mountain District Schools as a teacher and coach at Kings Mountain Junior High School.

Caune-Spicer Invitations

Mr. and Mrs. J.Z. Caune of Charlotte have issued wedding invitations to area friends to attend the wedding of their daughter, Janis Jean, and Ronald E. Spicer, on Sat., Aug. 25, at 4 p.m. in Charlotte's Sugar Creek Presbyterian Church.

The bride-to-be is granddaughter of Mrs. Orangrel B. Jolly of Kings Mountain and the late Clarence L. Jolly, Sr. The invitation reads: "A life of sharing, caring, a love of endless giving together, Mr. and Mrs. J.Z. Caune request the honour of your presence on Saturday, the 25th of August, 1979, at four o'clock when their daughter, Janis Jean, and Ronald E. Spicer become united through marriage at Sugar Creek Presbyterian Church, 101 Sugar Creek Road West, Charlotte, North Carolina."

The bride-to-be's parents will entertain at a reception immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Harmon Honored At Dinner Party

Mrs. Dessie Harmon was honored on her birthday at a dinner party on Saturday, Aug. 4 at Harry O's near Gastonia. Given by her daughter, Mrs. Bill Babb and her husband, the event was attended by all of her brothers and sisters.

Attending in addition to the hosts were her grandchildren, Gary Babb of Asheboro, Susan and Kevin Babb of Kannapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Odell Lovelace of Kings Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Cooper of Lattimore; Mr. and Mrs. Mac Fite of Kannapolis; Mr. and Mrs. George Lovelace of Pineville; and Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Lovelace of Wendell.

After the dinner, the group returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bridges for the remainder of the evening.
