Miss Rowell, Mr. Page Exchange Marital Vows

Resurrection Lutheran Church was the setting Aug. 12th for the wedding of Miss Nancy Eve Rowell and Mr. Jeffrey Lane Page.

Rev. Eugene Weeks, minister of the church, officiated at the 4 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Evelyn Bridges was organist for the program of nuptial music. Mrs. Teresa Lefevers sang "You Light Up My Life" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The church was decorated with apricot mums and white carnations on each side of the altar. Two candelabras were set with white tapers and adorned with apricot and white flowers. White bows marked the mother's pews.

Jeffrey Dan Rowell escorted his sister to the altar.

The bride's wedding gown was a design of white acetate nylon chantilace styled with scalloped Queen Ann neckline, full lace sleeves and waistline fit. The gown was complimented with a ruffled skirt that swept to a cathedral train. The bride's veil was a two-tiered fingertip chantilace attached to a lace covered Juliet headpiece accented with pearls. The bride wore a white gold diamond necklace with matching ear-rings. The bridal bouquet was made of miniature apricot roses, white carnations and baby's breath accented with white satin streamers.

Miss Peggy Ann Rowell of Asheville attended her sister as maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lora Beth Hawkins, Miss Janet Faith Rushing of Kings Mtn. and Miss Cathy Ann Shull of Cherryville.

Miss Susan Bridges, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Mr. Kevin Parker, also a cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The maid of honor wore a peach magic knit gown styled with spaghetti straps and sunburst pleated skirt complimented with a detachable cape.

The bridesmaids dresses were of the same design in apricot. The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried a nosegay of a large apricot mum with baby's breath accented with satin apricot streamers.

MRS. JEFFREY LANE PAGE
(Nancy Eve Rowell)

The flower girl wore an apricot chiffon gown styled with empire waistline, stand-up collar, and cap sleeves. The gown was accented with baby ribbon. She carried a white lace basket filled with rose petals.

Kim Annette Gladden attended the register. She wore a light green-white brocade gown and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Mr. Ronnie Lefevers of Charlotte, Mr. Ronald Rowell, the bride's brother, and Mr. Todd Page, brother of the bridegroom, both of Kings Mtn.

The bride's mother chose a floor-length mauve gown with a fitted waistline and pleated skirt. She wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a floor length gown of green knit. She wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Velma Bolin grandmother of the bridegroom attended the wedding and also wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

pick-ups were served from silver appointments.

A portrait of the bride which stood on an easel surrounded by ferns and a large candelabra decorated with apricot mums and white carnations highlighted the beauty of the fellowship hall.

Following their honeymoon in the mountains the couple will be at home on Dixon School Road in Kings Mtn.

RECEPTION

Wedding colors of apricot and white were featured in the fellowship hall at the reception following the wedding.

The bride's mother and brother were hosts. Assisting with the serving were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Mildred Gladden, Mrs. Margaret Davis and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Maybell Strange. Mrs. Betty McDaniel, cousin of the bride, from Rock Hill, S.C. also assisted.

Mrs. Joann Rushing and Mrs. Becky Brooks decorated and prepared for the reception.

Overlaid with linen over lace the bride's table held a three-tiered wedding cake with a water fall underneath the bottom layer. Punch and party

Miss Eve Rowell Honored At Parties

Miss Eve Rowell, whose wedding to Jeff Page took place Sunday afternoon Aug. 12th, was honored at a bridal luncheon Aug. 11th at the home of Mrs. Joann Rushing.

Miss Rowell was presented a corsage of daisies and a plaque for her new home by the hostess.

An assortment of fruit in a scalloped watermelon cut in the form of a basket and punch were served prior to the luncheon.

A beautiful bride doll was used as the centerpiece with white candles and lace tablecloth. The luncheon tables were set with pink checked cloths and napkins. The menu consisted of ham biscuits, BBQ meatballs, corn, green beans, potato salad, slaw and ice tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Page hosted a cook-out at their home honoring their son, Mr. Jeff Page and his bride-to-be, Miss Eve

Rowell on Sat. Aug. 11th.

Members of the two families and the wedding party enjoyed swimming and fellowship along with the hot dogs, hamburgers and cokes.

Eve and Jeff chose this occasion to present their gifts to the wedding attendants.

MRS. ROGER CARL McFARLAND
(Tammy Rene Staub)

Miss Staub, Mr. McFarland United In Home Wedding

The home of the bride on Rt. 7 in Shelby was setting for the Friday wedding of Miss Tammy Rene Staub of Shelby and Roger Carl McFarland of Kings Mountain.

Rev. John Edwards, pastor of Victory Baptist Church of Asheville, officiated at the 1 p.m. double-ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Mixed flowers, greenery and candles enhanced the setting.

Georgeanna Wright of Lawndale was soloist for the program of nuptial music and sang "Color My World" and "We've Only Just Begun" before the exchange of vows and

"Wedding Song."

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Venise lace fashioned with high neckline outlined with lace and pearls and full skirt which tapered into a Chapel-length train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a tiered crown of tulle petals sparkled with pearls and crystals and she carried a white Bible topped with blue and white carnations, baby's breath and blue satin streamers.

Mrs. Linda Ray of Shelby, matron of honor, wore a yellow formal and
