

KMRC Faces Eviction

high inflation rate and cost of living has prohibited citizens from rebuilding businesses in the downtown area.

Mayor Moss praised the committee for "courage in the early stages of redevelopment."

McGinnis also said he was "disappointed by the snagle-tooth look in the business district" and Mayor Moss said he felt the new UDAG program will fill the void and will make cash available to rebuilders in the business district in the 80's. He also projected that a new program of private housing will give a boost to the economy and provide much-needed housing and local means of financing it to area citizens.

Leroy Blanton praised the Cansler St. urban renewal project and said that he knew of no one in his area who "now lives in sub-standard housing." "This is a compliment to us," he said.

In other actions, the board: +accepted the resignation of Mrs. Milde W. Baily, Administrative Assistant, effective Aug. 31, who has joined the staff of Barry Jenkins, CPA, but who will continue in a part-time capacity with the KMRC until the city and HUD complete total financial settlement with the KMRC. Mrs. Baily has been a staffer with the KMRC for 11 years.

+approved, upon motion of Leroy Blanton, the repair of all "unsightly, raw walls" at existing structures in the downtown area and to identify all existing raw walls with the CD department when the Redevelopment office is closed.

+approved, upon motion of Leroy Blanton, Director White said an October meeting of the board will probably be held in the new City Hall and may be final meeting of the board in official capacity.

deemed to be equivalent in value by reason of cost of acquiring acquisition. Parcel 13-24 was deemed to be in excess of difference in appraisal value in disposal parcel No. 66.

Comm. Mauney told the board "I am not against swapping Benjamin Brown 9,000 square feet of property for 3,000 square feet but because of discrepancy of footage would like the action clarified, although both parties are in favor of the exchange. Paul McGinnis made the motion, seconded by John Plonk, that the resolution stipulate the value of properties.

+Replying to question of Leroy Blanton, Director White said an October meeting of the board will probably be held in the new City Hall and may be final meeting of the board in official capacity.

Bethware Fair Opens Wednesday

There's something about a fair and that something is expected to draw crowds to the annual Bethware Community Fair which opens Wednesday at 6 p.m. on the grounds of Bethware School.

Thursday, Sept. 13 will be Children's Day at the Fair with reduced prices in rides along the midway from 1 until 6 p.m. Johnson Amusement Rides have promised a variety of rides, and concessions will be manned by civic groups, including the sponsoring Bethware Progressive Club.

Exhibitors are reminded by Mrs. Betty White, chairman, to register all handicrafts, macrame, agricultural, homemade or home-grown products Wednesday from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. Judging of the exhibits, where hundreds of dollars in cash prizes will be given, will take place on Thursday.

Stokes Wright and John Grant, in charge of farm machinery exhibits at the 32nd annual fair, said that antique cars will feature a large exhibit at this year's event.

Mrs. White estimates that a record number of exhibitors, even more than the 1,487 who turned out at last year's Fair, will return to the fairgrounds this year.

Prizes, which are larger than last year, will be awarded after 8 p.m. Fri., Sept. 14, said Mrs. White. There is no entry fee to exhibitors and no admission is charged to the fairgrounds.

Civic clubs interested in manning a booth at the Fair are asked to contact Willard Boyles, 739-4023. Call Stokes Wright, 739-2804, or John Grant, 739-5868, for information on farm machinery exhibits.

Ann Grant, 1979 Fair Queen, will cut the ribbon to officially open the Bethware Fair.

Nightly prize drawings for prizes will be featured.

"This is a community fair and we urge more participation from the entire community," said Mrs. White.

We read between the lines at Pharmacy Plus. When we read your doctor's written prescription, we see more than the name of the doctor, the dosage and the name of the medication. We see how this information relates to you. We check on other prescriptions you may currently be taking, so we can warn you and your doctor if you're mixing a potentially harmful group of drugs. We look into your past records to make sure you've never reacted badly to that type of drug before. At your Pharmacy Plus store, we take the time to care — about you and your family.
