"Mountains, Creations And Formations" Is Topic

Miss Elizabeth Anthony presented the program, "Mountains, Creations and Formations" at last week's meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club.

Mrs. Edith Goforth entertained members and guests at her home.

Other guests were Mrs. Polly Pharr of Charlotte, daughter of the hostess, and Mrs. Sallie King.

Miss Annie B. Roberts, chairman of the book selection committee, presented names of books for reading selection during the year.

Mrs. Tom Trott, president, who presided, reported that cards of remembrance were sent to Mrs. Fred Finger, charter member, and Mrs. R.S. Plonk of Bessemer City. Mrs. Finger will celebrate her 80th birthday in October.

Mrs. E.W. Neal presented to Mrs. Mary Klepper a "bon voyage" gift from the club and expressed regrets that George and Mary Klepper are moving from Kings Mountain to Alabama, their former home. The Kleppers have resided at Woodbridge and Mr. Klepper is associated with Foust Industries.

Mrs. Goforth was assisted in serving a sweet course with sandwiches and coffee.

Survey Course On Commercial Art

A survey course on commercial art is being sponsored by Cleveland Tech's continuing education department with Jim Marler teaching. Classes for the 33-hour course will meet once a week at Shelby High School on Thursday nights, 6:30-9:30, beginning Sept. 20.

Designed to bring the beginning artist into contact with the various aspects of commercial art the course will start with a description of the artist's "tools", pencils, paper, erasers, pen and ink, and progress through basic drawing, perspective, proportion, direction of eye contact, lettering, printing, and printing papers. To see behind the scenes activity students will have a field trip to a local print shop.

Tech's continuing education department has rescheduled a career planning workshop to begin at 6:30 p.m. on Mon., Sept. 17 in Room 2120 on the school campus. The workshop will have six sessions of three hours each on Monday nights 6:30 to 9:30 focusing on interests, personality, needs and values.

Stained glass, a 33-hour course to be taught by Richard Lail, begins Sept. 20 at Shelby Junior High in the vocational building. Classes will meet once a week on Thursdays 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. A registration fee of $5 is payable at the first class meeting on Sept. 20. Ending date for the course is Dec. 13.
