

Fair Features Hell Drivers

Returning to the Cleveland County Fair for the first time in many years will be the Jack Kochman Hell Drivers show. Performances are scheduled for October 4 and 5 at 8 p.m., and October 6 at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. Jack Kochman is often referred to as the "King of the Hell Drivers," a rather unique title since he never drove in an auto thrill show. Kochman, whose Hell Driver show is seen by more than one million persons every year, plays a different role. He's an organizer, promoter, a showman who runs what is regarded as the best automotive thrill show in the United States.

Kochman first became involved in the stunt driving profession in 1942 (the year Lucky Teeter, considered stunt driving's answer to baseball's Babe Ruth, was killed in a ramp-to-ramp jump). "The guys drove cars with 31-inch iron cleated wheels then and during the war we had to alter the carburetors to run on propane cooking gas," he recalls. "But things are different now and we use only the best equipment. I buy new Dodges every year and the only clunkers you see in the show are the junkers we buy for the crashes and roll-overs," he says.

Although most stunts are dangerous because a slight miscalculation on the part of the driver can cause havoc, safety precautions have been developed to give the performers every advantage of the calculated risk they must take.

One of the big advantages for scheduling Kochman's team at the fair is that the show goes on, rain or shine. The show may be altered, such as additional ground loops or wet weather stunts replacing the ramp-to-ramp jump, but it is never cancelled.

Kochman's program at the Cleveland County Fair is scheduled to include the T-bone crash in which a car leaps from a ramp and dives into others placed vertically in its path; the roll over, where the driver sees how many times he can force the vehicle to roll; the high ski, where the drivers travel unbelievable distances with the car running on only two side wheels; the ramp jump; and a whole series of precision driving tricks, in which the drivers weave a crazy-quilt pattern passing within inches of each other.

The 1979 Cleveland County Fair will open September 28 and continue through October 6.

Tech Slates Courses

The Continuing Education Department of Cleveland Tech has announced the following courses:

Furniture Refinishing begins Monday, October 1, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., on Tech's campus in the woodworking shop. Janice Elmore will instruct.

Decorative painting begins Wednesday, October 3, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at the home of the instructor, Jean Brunner. Persons should call Ms. Brunner for reservations.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

A commercial basketball league meeting will be held Wednesday at 7 p.m. in room nine of the community center. All interested players and sponsors are urged to attend. For more information, call George Adams at 739-3549.

FREE SHOOTING

The community center gym will be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 6-10 p.m. for open play. The community is encouraged to take advantage of free basketball throughout the month of October and until Nov. 5, when the commercial league will begin its season.

SUBJECT: WATER SAMPLE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It has been brought to our attention that the water sample taken from our supply on August 29, 1979 contained coliform bacteria in excess of the maximum level for that contaminant. On September 5, 1979 another water sample was sent to the Department of Human Resources, and this checked out that no coliform bacteria was found. It is our duty to let the people and tenants of this community know of this infrequent matter. If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.
