

In Cherryville's First Wesleyan Church

Miss Karen Childers, Mr. Douglas Childers United In Marriage Sept. 15

MRS. MILES DOUGLAS CHILDERS
(Karen Edwards)

Cherryville's First Wesleyan Church was the setting Sept. 15 for the wedding of Miss Karen Danette Edwards and Miles Douglas Childers. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of Cherryville, is granddaughter of Mrs. Ellen Petrosino of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Edwards of Cherryville. She is a graduate of Cherryville High School and Gaston College. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris S. Childers, also of Cherryville. He is a graduate of West Lincoln High School and Appalachian State University. He is employed by the Lincoln County School System as a teacher and coach. He is grandson of Junius Helms and Mrs. Ethel Dellinger Childers of Cherryville. Chaplain Jack Cooke heard the 3 p.m. exchange of vows in the double-ring ceremony for which a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Darrell Austin, organist, and Rev. J.W. Stiles, vocalist.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and background greenery and enhanced by nine-branch candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Glads, chrysanthemums and poms centered the setting and a double kneeling bench with a unity candle completed the decoration. Charles Edwards escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of imported silk organza and Alencon lace designed along empire lines with wateau back enhanced by cathedral veil appliqued in lace sprays and overlaid skirt of silk organza. The mandarin neckline was also accented by lace. The dainty bridal hat, which featured apple blossom lace appliques and seed pearls, had a face veil of net which swept over the front to a long silk net which descended down the back of the gown. She carried a cascade of all-white fugli mums and springerl fern. Miss Tonya Webb attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Paulette Putnam of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Paula Moss and Miss Christina Edwards, all of Cherryville. Missy Edwards, sister of the bride, was flower girl. All the attendants wore long formals of huckleberry crepe sonya designed with blouson bodices, capelet sleeves and full, accordin-pleated skirts. They carried cascades of mulberry carnations and white fugli mums. Participating in the wedding as honorary attendants were Miss Lisa Sellers of Cherryville, Misses Janet Lynn and Carol Ann Edwards of Kings Mountain and Miss Vicki Coker of North Augusta, S.C. Richard Billings of Statesboro, Ga. was ringbearer. Best man for the bridegroom was his father. Groomsmen were Kelly Childers, Todd Childers, brothers of the bridegroom, Butch Edwards and Scott Edwards, brothers of the bride. Kip Childers, brother of the bride, lighted the altar candles.

Mrs. Kelly Childers presided at the register. The bride's mother was gowned in a rose qulana formal and a shoulder bouquet of white fugli mums. The bridegroom's mother chose a smokey blue formal and a white mum corsage. After the ceremony, the bridal couple presented their mothers with silk roses as they departed from the altar. Mrs. Martha Jane Flowers directed the wedding and Mrs. Delores Banner directed the sanctuary. The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Klawah Island, S.C. and are at home on Bess Chapel Road in Cherryville.

Charles Cadenhead Makes Dean's List

Charles Steven Cadenhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Cadenhead of 404 E. Kings St., Kings Mountain, has made the dean's list for the summer term at Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, Tenn. Cadenhead is a senior and will graduate from Southern in April. He also graduated from Western Carolina University in Cullowee with a B.S. in biology. He plans to return to Cleveland County after graduation to open practice.

...GOING STRONG—The Senior Citizens Swinging Mountaineers Band made appearance No. 99 Thursday and on Sunday made their 100th appearance at a local church for a musical program. The 25 members of the Band was organized a little over two years ago.

Swinging Mountaineers Make 99th Appearance

The Senior Citizens Swinging Mountaineer Band made its 99th appearance Thurs. Sept. 27 at 3 p.m. at Wesley Nursing Home in Charlotte. The group consists of 25 members, all KM residents, ranging from 68-84 (although most claim to be 40 and "holding"). It was organized two and one half years ago through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Bolton, who direct the group. They perform all types of music, ranging from spirituals to pop accompanied by a variety of instruments, including a washboard. The Mountaineers do not charge for any of their appearances, but do accept donations to help defer the costs of travel and instruments. They appear by invitation and made their 100th appearance Sun. at 7:30 at Midview Baptist Church (although this total does not include the Mountaineers monthly appearance at the Kings Mountain Convalescent Center.) "They are a great group to work with," said director Mrs. M.V. Bolton. "We have a few problems now and then, but mostly we just have plain ol' fun!"

Miss Edwards, Mr. Childers Entertained At Cakecutting

Miss Karen Edwards and Miles Childers cut their wedding cake Sept. 14th at a cakecutting hosted by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards, at Cherryville Country Club. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was a round table overlaid with lace and centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake topped with fresh purple grapes and enhanced around the base with artificial grapes in purple, deep blue, red and lime green. Mrs. Martha Flowers and Miss Lisa Sellers served the cake and punch was served by Misses Janet Lynn and Carol Ann Edwards. Lavender and white mums were used with a silver candelabrum of tapers for central decoration for the refreshment table which was arranged with silver ad-pointments. The bridegroom's chocolate cake was cut and served with party pickups. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Austin of Kings Mountain sung a duet as a toast to the bridal couple. Miss Edwards wore a cocktail-length dress of hot pink and deep purple which featured long sleeves and blouson bodice. She wore a corsage of white carnations. Guest were members of the two families, wedding party and out-of-town guests.

The lilac, a native of the Orient, was not introduced into Europe until the 16th century.

REVIVAL SERVICES

Missionary Methodist Church will hold revival services Oct. 10-14 beginning at 7 p.m. each night. Rev. Carl Kelly, pastor, will direct the services. All interested persons are invited to attend.
