LET US GIVE THANKS—Members of Beta Chi Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa have decorated a Thanksgiving bulletin board for residents of Kings Mountain Convalescent Center as an Altruistic project. The bulletin board will be featured during the month of November for residents and visitors to enjoy. From left, Mrs. J.C. Bridges and Miss Janet Falls, Altruistic chairman, complete the decorating projects using Fall colors.

Family Brings Recital Home To Mrs. Mauney

Mrs. W.K. Mauney, 92, was unable to attend a piano recital in her honor Friday night at Mauney Music Building on the Lenoir-Rhyne College campus at Hickory but her family brought home with them recordings of the concert and the program which paid tribute to the family for their many love gifts to the institution.

MRS. W.K. MAUNEY

Island, N.Y., presented a piano, the most recent of the Mauney family's many gifts to L-R, in honor of Mrs. W.K. Mauney. Dr. Libby L. Gabriel, professor of music at L-R, played the public recital in the Mauney Music Building, constructed from gifts from the Mauney family. A W.K. Mauney Scholarship is also presented annually.

Mrs. Mauney's favorite selections from Bach and Beethoven were included in the program.

Attending the recital from Kings Mountain were W.K. Mauney, Jr., his daughter, Martha Jane Mauney, his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Faunce, and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

Born in Dallas, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Hoffman, Mrs. Mauney and W.K. Mauney were married Oct. 19, 1916. Mr. Mauney died in 1971.

Family and friends helped Mrs. Mauney celebrate her 92nd birthday Sept. 9.

Grissom And Dickey Named To Committee

City Commissioners Bill Grissom and Jim J. Dickey have been appointed by Mayor John Henry Moss to serve on the city beautification committee, along with representatives of area garden clubs.

Mrs. W.T. Weir is chairman of the nine-member committee which has presented grounds beautification plans for the new Kings Mountain Government Facilities Building.

A large copy of the adopted beautification plan, which includes the planting of trees and shrubs, will be on display in the vestibule of the new City Hall in order for citizens to view the project as it gets underway.

Mrs. Weir said that Town and Country Garden Club will sponsor a benefit card party

Thurs., Nov. 29th, in the vestibule of the new City Hall and proceeds will be distributed between the beautification project of the handsome new facility and North Carolina Zoo. Mrs. Weir said that tickets are $3 per person and each foursome is asked to bring a card table and cards for any game the group wishes to play, such as bridge, rook, canasta. Light refreshments will be served and score prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. Weir said that Kings Mountain citizens are invited to make memorials to loved ones via the beautification project of planting a tree or shrub.
