Herman Stewart USAF Retiree

Chief Master Sergeant Herman O. Stewart, Kings Mountain native, retired July 1 after 23 years service in the United States Air Force.

Ben Parton, Chief of Headquarters Tactical Command at Langley AFB, Virginia, presented plaques, citations, and letters of commendation to Stewart during an awards ceremony at the Air Force Base.

"The singularly distinctive accomplishments of Chief Stewart culminate a distinguished career in the service of his country and reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force," said the citation accompanying the Meritorious Service Medal for outstanding service as Fire Protection Superintendent. Stewart is also recipient of the AF Commendation Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Small Arms Expert marksmanship ribbon, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the NCO Academy graduate ribbon, the Good Conduct medal, with two bronze loops which was awarded six times, the AF Longevity service ribbon with four oak leaf clusters, the National Defense Service Medal, the Vietnam service medal, the Republican of Vietnam Gallantry Cross and the Republic of Vietnam campaign medal.

Sgt. Stewart received over 40 letters of commendations from base fire departments he had visited and inspected while attached to the Headquarters Tactical Command at Langley AFB.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Stewart of the Dixon Community, Stewart joined the USAF in October 1953. From October 1958 until December 1961 he was employed by Sadie Mills and then re-entered the service.

Stewart has served in a variety of duties in the fire-fighting branch of the USAF during the past 23 plus years.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and their son, Robbie, reside in Montgomery, Ala. He plans to attend school at Maxwell Air Force Base.

Jeff Boggan In Training

Fort Bragg, N.C.-Cadet Jeffrey S. Boggan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Boggan Jr., Kings Mountain, N.C., is receiving practical work in military leadership at the Army ROTC Advanced Camp at Fort Bragg, N.C.

The six-week training includes instruction in first aid, communications, marksmanship, orienteering, weapons, weapons systems, defensive and offensive tactics, recondo techniques and numerous other areas. Most cadets are fulfilling their advanced camp requirement during the summer between their junior and senior years in college. The successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from their respective college or university will result in the student being commissioned a second lieutenant in the Active Army or the U.S. Army Reserve or National Guard.

A 1978 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, Boggan is a student at Wofford College, Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Bumgarner At Ft. Bragg
