The Kings Mountain Parks and Recreation Department Invitational Doubles Tennis Classic will be played Friday through Sunday at the Deal Street and Kings Mountain High School courts.

Some of the top doubles teams from Cleveland, Rutherford and other area counties are entered. Competition will be held in men's, women's and mixed doubles.

Action will begin shortly after 5 p.m. Friday. The championship rounds in the three divisions are slated for 3, 5 and 7 p.m. Sunday.

"We feel like we have some good doubles teams entered," said Paul Mitchell, summer tennis instructor for the Recreation Department.

Ray and Betty Morris of Rutherfordton will be among the favored teams in the mixed doubles category and local favorites Kim Moss and Kim Gladden are entered in the women's competition. Local teams already entered in men's doubles include Ed Guy and Bob Jones and Tom Cox and Tom Buchanan. Cox is fresh from winning the City Juniors crown two weeks ago.

"We have 10 teams entered at present, and expect at least a dozen more to enter by Friday," said Mitchell. "This tournament should prove to be a good one for the players and fans."
