KM Woman Raped, Robbed

No arrests have been made but Detective Sgt. Paul Barbee said yesterday that an intensive investigation is continuing into the rape-robbery of a Route 4, Kings Mountain woman early Sunday morning.

Barbee said the attacker is described as white, blonde, young and about five feet eight inches tall.

The elderly woman told Sgt. Barbee that she was awakened in her bedroom by a noise, turned a light on and saw the attacker who knocked out the light. "He told her to be quiet or he'd kill her, that he had a knife," said Barbee, who added that his investigation revealed that a telephone line had been cut with a knife. "He raped her and told her a couple times he was sorry and then went in her pocketbook and took $130 and a bottle of Darvon. The attacker told the woman not to leave the house or call anyone for 10 minutes. When he got out of the house she heard him holler for Joe," said the officer.

The woman told Barbee that she waited about five minutes before running to a neighbor's house to call the Sheriff's Department about 4 a.m. Barbee said that bloodhounds brought to the scene could not pick up a scent to track the attacker who is believed to have left with another person in a vehicle. Barbee said the victim was taken to Cleveland Memorial Hospital to be examined by a doctor who verified that she had been raped.

Church Homecomings Set

The Kings Mountain Pentecostal Holiness Church at 508 Branch St. will hold its annual Homecoming this Sunday with the church's Conference Superintendent C.M. Triplette as guest speaker.

Rev. Mr. Triplette will will the pulpit at the 11 o'clock worship hour.

Lunch will be served in the church fellowship hall after which a 2 p.m. song service is planned when the Lowell Pentecostal Holiness Church Youth Choir will minister in song. The community is invited to participate in the day's events, said the pastor, Rev. C.M. Roberson.

Rev. E.B. Hicks of Shelby, a former pastor, will fill the pulpit at the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday at Antioch Baptist Church on the 167th anniversary of the church.

Homecoming Day on Sunday will also feature dinner on the grounds at 12:30 and a song service beginning at 2 p.m. to which the public is invited.

Rev. W.J. Bennett, interim pastor, said that all friends and former members are invited to join the Antioch congregation in celebration of the church's 167th anniversary.

Homecoming Day will be held Sunday at Long Branch Baptist Church in Grover and Rev. B.F. Brewer, pastor, will fill the pulpit at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Other events of the day, all of which the community is invited to attend, include a picnic lunch at 1 p.m. and an afternoon service, under the direction of Rev. H.L. Spears, at 2 p.m. Revival services will get underway Monday and continue all week at 7:30 p.m. each evening with Rev. A.A. Ponder as evangelist.

Mack In All-Star Game

Kings Mountain's Kevin Mack will play for the West all-star team in tonight's East-West High School All-Star football game at Grimsley High School in Greensboro.

Mack is the first Mountaineer to play in the game since 1972, when center Mark George started for the West team.

He is headed for Clemson University on a football grant-in-aid.

The game, which begins at 8 o'clock, is the climax to the week-long North Carolina High Schools Coaches Association clinic. Admission is $3.

Quarterback Jeff Williams and defensive back Todd Armstrong of South Point will also be on the West squad.
