

Roberts-Spikes Marriage

Vows Exchanged Saturday

Adam's Chapel Methodist Church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Cynthia Jeanette Roberts and Bobby Spikes, Jr.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before Rev. Mrs. Prueella Kilgore.

Theron Femester was organist for the program of nuptial music and Miss Michelle Kilgore was vocal soloist.

Yellow pompons and spiral candelabra enhanced an arch of greenery and formed a background for the exchange of vows. White glads and yellow mums centered the setting.

Nathaniel Roberts escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white tulle and polyester satin designed with a high see-through neckline bordered by wide panels of bridal lace and featuring a Wedding Ring collar with long sleeves enhanced by see-through cuffs. The full skirt was completed with a Chapel length train. Her waist-length veil of illusion was bordered with lace and attached to a headpiece covered with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. Willie Early, who attended the bride as matron of honor, wore a semi-fitted full length evening gown of pale green Quiana enhanced by a capelet of floral printed chiffon. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and baby's breath tied with white satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Penny Lockhart and Miss Linda Lockhart, both of Shelby, Miss Karen Roberts, Miss Margarita Roberts, both of Kings Mountain, and Miss Sandy Wilson of Shelby. They wore street-length semi-fitted gowns of pale yellow Quiana covered with a capelet of floral printed chiffon and carried nosegays similar to that of the bride and matron of honor.

Chetha Early, who served as flower girl, wore a full-length semi-fitted gown of pale yellow Quiana covered with a capelet of floral printed chiffon.

Telly Hunt was ringbearer. Best man for the bridegroom was Stanley Jones of Shelby. Ushers were Willie Huskey, Benard Hunt, both of Shelby, Carl Roberts, Willie E. Huskey and Tommy Farr of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Ida Byers was hostess at a reception which followed the ceremony in the church

Smith-Eaker Couple

Exchange Wedding Vows

North Roanoke Baptist Church of Roanoke, Va. was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Miss Deborah Lynne Smith and Mark Wesley Eaker.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Richard C. Walden, Jr., minister of the church.

Mrs. Richard Walden was organist for the program of traditional music and Miss Kathy Levine was vocal soloist.

The altar of the church was banked with palms, fresh flowers and candles in wrought-iron candelabra.

Robert E. Smith escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's formal wedding gown was a Candlelight design fashioned with Queen Anne neckline trimmed with lace and featuring a knee-length skirt. Her fingertip veil was draped from a lace and pearl headband and she carried a cascade bouquet of white and coral silk flowers.

Mrs. Michael Hepworth attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Kidd of Roanoke, Va., Mrs. Donna Russ of Kings Mountain, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Paige Mauney of Kings Mountain, niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Ellen Cornelius of Hillsborough.

All the attendants wore long formals of coral Quiana with matching jackets. They carried nosegays of fresh flowers tied with satin streamers.

Children attendants were Stephanie Kidd and Courtney Kidd.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Phil Russ of Kings Mountain, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Duncan Haley of Roanoke, Va., Mike Tate and Blair Goodman, both of Durham, and Robby Bridges of Las Vegas, Nevada and Kings Mountain.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a mint green formal and a white shoulder corsage of fresh flowers.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a print design in shades of brown and green and chose a corsage of white flowers.

For a wedding trip to New York City the bride chose a white linen dress trimmed in yellow and green and topped her ensemble with a green jacket. She lifted the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a
