Tyson Accepts ARP Church Call

Rev. William H. Tyson arrives in Kings Mountain today (Thursday) and assumes his new duties as pastor of Boyce Memorial Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church Sept. 1.

The new pastor comes to Kings Mountain from Bartow, Fla., where he served as co-pastor for the past four years of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Bartow, Florida. Previous to that time he served as pastor of the Steam Mill Road Presbyterian Church of Columbus, Ga. from 1973-76.

He is a graduate of Belhaven College where he majored in Bible and Greek. He is also a graduate of the Reformed Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity degree. Since 1979, Mr. Tyson has been pursuing a study in church growth and training of the Laity which is given at the Fuller Theological Seminary. The completed course will lead to a Doctor of Ministry Program.

Mr. Tyson is married to the former Mary Ann Cappel and they have three daughters, Kristin, Lisa and Heidi. They will be residing at the ARP manse on Sherwood Lane.

"Our church feels most fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Tyson", said a church spokesman, who added, "He is a young man of strong faith and convictions with a pleasing personality. He will not only be a blessing to the church but he will be a definite asset to the town and community."

TO NEW YORK

James Throneburg has returned to New York City after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Y.F. Throneburg. Mr. Throneburg stopped in the city enroute from San Diego, California where he attended a Theatres Convention.
