Erskine Living Endowment Fund Meeting

The Gastonia and Kings Mountain Chapters of the Alumni Association of Erskine College in Due West, S.C., will open its solicitation for the 1980-81 Erskine Living Endowment Campaign Thursday, with a dinner meeting at the Pisgah Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, located at 3600 South Linwood Road in Gastonia, at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Summer-ville, 2050 Shannon Drive, Gastonia, campaign chairman for the Gastonia Chapter, and Mrs. J.C. McGill, 703 Hillside Drive, Kings Mountain, campaign chairman for the Kings Mountain Chapter, have announced that Dr. J.A. Knight, Vice President and Dean of Erskine College, will be guest speaker.

Towns included in the Gastonia Chapter and town chairmen are: Belmont and Cramerton—Mrs. Rowe Reese of Cramerton, chairman; Bessemer City and Dallas—Mr. Joseph O. Morgan of Dallas, chairman; and Gastonia—Ms. Mary L. Hendricks of Gastonia, chairman. Towns included in the Kings Mountain Chapter and their chairmen are: Boiling Springs and Shelby—Mr. and Mrs. David P. White of Shelby, chairmen; and Kings Mountain—Mrs. W. Charles Blair of Kings Mountain, chairman.

The Living Endowment will be attempting to surpass last year's record of more than $260,000 in contributions. Altogether, the Living Endowment has provided more than $4 million in current operating funds for Erskine over the past 25 years.

The campaign has earned Erskine eight national awards in alumni giving from the U.S. Steel Foundation.

More than 800 state, division, chapter, and town chairmen and workers nationwide are leading the 1980-81 campaign.
