AN EATON MILESTONE-Gathered about the 100,000th heavy duty truck transmission are members of the transmission assembly department at Eaton Corporation's Kings Mountain plant. They put the finishing touches on the unit number 100,000 Tuesday. Eaton began operation here a little over three years ago and produced its 25,000th model two years ago Tuesday. Eaton transmissions are shipped all over the world. The 100,000th model is destined for South Africa.

1,000 New

Voters Needed

By October 6

Cleveland County Voters Registration Committee and Cleveland County Chapter of the NAACP are shooting for 1,000 new voters in Cleveland County by Oct. 6.

The two groups will conduct a voter registration drive beginning Saturday, according to William Hager of Kings Mountain, coordinator.

Hager said that volunteers are needed to man the telephones and to provide transportation to the polls to register and vote.

Hager said that volunteers will transport anyone who wants to register to the polls if they will contact the central by headquarters at Shiloh Baptist Church Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. by calling 487-4108 beginning Saturday. Area citizens may also go to the polls by calling Bynum Chapel Church in Kings Mountain at 739-2606 or the Rev. Johnny C. Brown in Patterson Springs at 482-9334. Hager said that volunteers will also transport voters to the polls on election day, Nov. 4.

Tickets

Available

Downtown

Tickets for two events on Oct. 7th are available in Celebration Headquarters, which is open daily downtown and manned by volunteers.

Prayer Breakfast tickets are $3 and Celebration Luncheon tickets are $5. The breakfast will be held at 7 a.m. on Tues., Oct. 7th, at Kings Mountain's First Baptist Church. The Celebration luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Oct. 7th at KMSHS Cafeteria.

Also available to the public at Bicentennial Headquarters are commemorative shirts and caps, $5 each, a commemorative monument, $10, and a limited number of commemorative booklets, $1 each, which are expected to be collector items and including letters from visiting dignitaries in addition to other information on the Celebration.

Cage Meeting Set Tonight

A commercial basketball league is being formed. This program is sponsored by the Kings Mountain Parks and Recreation Department.

An organizational meeting is set for Thursday, September 25, at 7:30 p.m., in the multi-purpose area in the Kings Mountain Neighborhood Facility Center (Community Center), second floor. Anyone interested in sponsoring a team in this league is urged to attend.

For more information about this program or other ongoing athletic programs, contact George Adams, Athletic Director, at 739-6995.
