

Kiser-Hovis Pair Wed On Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Hovis, who were wed Saturday are on a wedding trip to Disney World in Orlando, Fla. and afterwards will be at home at 600 Segars Mill Road in Hartsville, South Carolina.

Miss Leigh Ann Kiser became Mr. Hovis' bride in a 7 p.m. formal Candlelight wedding in Bessemer City's First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. John Ruffy, pastor of the church, heard the exchange of vows in the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. C. Kenley was organist for the program of traditional music and Julius Barkley was soloist. Mr. Barkley sang "The Greatest Of These Is Love" and the benediction "Lord's Prayer."

Spiral candelabra and nine branch candelabra on the altar were interspersed with elegant Benjaminis and massive arrangements of late summer flowers enhanced the setting. Southern Smilax and Williamsburg candelabra were used down the center aisle of the church.

Kenneth G. Kiser escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride wore a formal design of Candlelight pure silk organza over satin designed by Priscilla. The empire bodice of English net and French Alencon lace was enhanced by tiny Venice flowers and a Queen Anne collar with sweetheart neckline. The long tapered sleeves fastened at the wrist with scalloped lace. The full A-line skirt was sprinkled with lace motifs which circled the hemline of scalloped lace. Her veil of silk illusion had a handkerchief rolled edge bordered with matching lace which floated gracefully from a cap of lace with a satin bow in the back of the cap. She carried a cascade of bridal satin roses, stephanotis and maidenhair fern.

Mrs. Monte Richardson of Matthews attended the bride Matthews, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Larry Charles of Mooresville, Mrs. Gary McNair of Bessemer City, Miss Kim Payne of Charlotte, Miss Marie Hovis of Bessemer City, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Allison Lynch of Bessemer City, cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Elizabeth Innes of Matthews, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

All the attendants wore formal gowns of sheer mauvette over Quiana designed by Aria. The bodices were designed with butterfly sleeves shirred at the shoulders to form collars in front to the waistline and caught with an inserted vest of candlelight lace. The full skirts were gathered at the waistlines and caught with a narrow long belt of candlelight Quiana. The attendants carried cascades of soft mixed flowers and Hybrid lilies. The flower girl carried a lace basket filled with rose petals.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Jim Hovis, brother of the bridegroom, Kim Kiser and Tyler Kiser, brothers of the bride, Donnie Hovis, cousin of the bridegroom, Gary McNair and Steve Shull, all of Bessemer City, Monte Falls of Cary, and Omer Heracklis of Gastonia. Junior usher was Kenneth Dan Lynch of Bessemer City, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose a mauve formal with an orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a green formal with an orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Orangrel B. Jolly of Kings Mountain, maternal grandmother of the bride, chose a champagne colored formal with beige accents and an orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Tyree Kiser of Bessemer City, the bridegroom's paternal grandmother, chose an orchid formal and a cymbidium shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Eaker of Bessemer City, wore a long pink formal and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed wedding reception which carried out the wedding colors of mauvette. The V-shaped bride's table was garlanded with Springeri fern and enhanced by two Cherub candelabras holding epergnettes of flowers. Southern Smilax and candles were used throughout the room. The all-white four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a bouquet of fresh flowers matching the bridesmaids bouquet and the cake was used at the of the large table. Silver punch bowls were at either side of the tables and refreshments were served from silver appointments. Mauvette over lace cloths overlaid the refreshment tables.

After greeting wedding guests, the newlyweds were flown by helicopter to Douglas Airport in Charlotte for a 10:10 flight to Orlando, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Kiser are parents of the bride who is granddaughter of Mrs. Orangrel B. Jolly of Kings Mountain, and the late Clarence L. Jolly, Sr. and of Mrs. Tyree Kiser of Bessemer City and the late Mr. Kiser. She is a graduate of Bessemer City High School and of King's College in Charlotte. She has been employed by Walker, Palmer & Miller, P.A., Attorneys at Law in Charlotte and will be employed by Saleeby, Cox, Diggers & Bledsoe, P.A. in Hartsville, S.C. in October.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wade Hovis of Bessemer City. He is a graduate of Bessemer City High School and a Magna Cum Laude graduate of N. C. State University where he received a B.S. degree in Agricultural Engineering and was a member of Alpha Epsilon and Phi Kappa Phi honorary societies. He is employed by Sonoco Products Company of Hartsville, S.C.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday night at Lincoln House in Lincolnton.
