

Biggest Display Of Arts & Crafts Ever Assembled Under 1 Roof

METHODISTS PLAN BAZAAR - Central United Methodist Church women are planning a Fall Bazaar Nov. 5th at the church and offer a wide variety of bazaar items to the public. Mrs. Kenny Falls, above, points out some of the many bazaar items. Photo by Lib Stewart

At Central United Methodist Church On November 5th

"The biggest display of bazaar items ever assembled under one roof."

That's how women of Central United Methodist Church are billing their upcoming Fall Bazaar slated for Nov. 5th from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. at the church educational building.

Mrs. Jane Clemmer, general chairman, said that circle groups are at work readying a Holiday Room, a Children's Room, a Country Store and a Canned and Baked Goods Area. Many of the items are handmade and will feature gifts for Christmas for the whole family.

Both lunch and dinner will be served. Chicken salad with all the trimmings will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. and plates are $1 for children and $2 for guests over 11 years old. Turkey with all the trimmings will be served from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. and plates are $2 for children and $3 for guests over 11.

A handmade afghan donated by Winnie Fulton will be presented as a door prize.

Mrs. George Hamrick is co-chairman with Mrs. Jane Clemmer and other chairmen of special committees include Mrs.

Denise Falls, publicity; Mrs. Nellie Jenkins and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Country Store; Mrs. Margaret Kirk, kitchen; Mrs. Tom Harper, dining room decoration; and Mrs. James Jonas and Mrs. Paul Walker, desserts. Various circles of the church are arranging the special rooms, which will be open to the visiting public.

The popular bazaar was held two years ago and drew record crowds. The bazaar is planned as a fund-raising project by the circle groups every two years, said that co-chairmen.

Kings Mountain Herald

Section B Thursday, October 9, 1980

READYING FOR BIG BAZAAR - Central United Methodist Church women are hard at work preparing for the Nov. 5th Fall Festival and Bazaar. Members of Circle 8 are pictured at a workshop session recently in which members gathered to make holiday items. Photo by Lib Stewart

MASCOT AND CHEERLEADERS

Tim Rhodes, as the North School Mascot, dressed in tiger attire, and school cheerleaders Dana Whetstone and Candi Sisk were presented to the North School PTA at a recent meeting. These young people will lead school spirit programs during the year. Photo by Lib Stewart

Standing Room Only

A "standing room only" crowd of over 400 parents and teachers attended a meeting last Tuesday of North School P-TA and launched a "North Go Forth" program to encourage attendance and promote school spirit.

The meeting was highlighted by presentation of the school mascot, the tiger, with fifth grader Tim Rhodes wearing the official tiger outfit which was the choice of the majority of the students.

Blue and gold attendance banners were won by Mrs. Denton's class in K-2 with 20 parents present and shared by Mrs. Fender, Mrs. Gladden and Mrs. Blair in grades 3-5.

President Mickey Corry, who presided, invited participation in an extensive beautification program which will include painting of the interior in bright, colorful paint, redoing the playground area, planting shrubs, trees and flowers and decorating the sidewalks with tiger feet, all of which will be a P-TA-sponsored project. He said that members are invited to serve on 10 major committees, including hospitality, safety, planning, publicity, school improvement, fine arts, fall festival, social services, membership and awareness. Corry also recognized Bill Hager, chairman of the volunteer program, who invited parent volunteers in the classrooms.

Winners of the North School Bicentennial poster contests were presented. They are Mike Phillips, first grade; Dana Sisk, second grade; Kristi Tyson, third grade; Todd Reynolds, fourth grade and Bo Ballard, fifth grade.

President Corry recognized Mary Wade Smith, Wanda Jordan, Judy Scism, Jo Ellis, Miles Scism, Anvil Knitwear, Modern Cleaners and Adams Cleaners for their contribution to the tiger outfit and North's first new banners.

Miss Connie Phifer gave a presentation of the reading program and Rev. William Tyson offered prayer. Supt. William Davis was a guest.

Parents were invited to an open house in the various classrooms after the program. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by a committee headed by Mrs. Joe Lee, hospitality chairman.

TIGER MASCOT - Tim Rhodes, fifth grader at North School, wears the official tiger, chosen by students at the school mascot for the coming year. The mascot, school colors and banners were presented at a recent PTA meeting. Photo by Lib Stewart

ATTENDANCE BANNERS - Mrs. Tim Gladden, left, Mrs. Fender and PTA Vice President Jack Crawford are pictured with North School's first blue and gold attendance banner which was shared by the classes of Mrs.

Denton, Mrs. Fender, Mrs. Gladden and Mrs. Blair as two banners were unfurled. A record attendance, more than 400, packed the school auditorium for the PTA meeting. Photo by Lib Stewart