A Wedding Brunch on their wedding day at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Plonk honored Michelle Marquaille and Grafton Withers who were married in a religious ceremony Dec. 6th in Central United Methodist Church.

Arrangements of white mums, snapdragons and daisies decorated the Plonk home on Piedmont Avenue. All-white arrangements were used on the bride's table.

The bride wore a cream beige wool dress with a pink shoulder corsage, gift of the host couples.

Teresa Kiser, Ray H. Willis Are Wed In Church Ceremony

First Baptist Church provided the setting Sunday for the wedding of Miss Teresa Mae Kiser and Ray Hillard Willis.

The couple exchanged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Harry Queen.

Mrs. Ronnie Willis was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kiser.

Gary Kiser escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of peau d'ange lace and satin featuring long traditional sleeves accented with clusters of pearls and sequins. The gown was enhanced by an empire waist, A-line skirt, high neckline and attached Chapel train. She carried a bridal bouquet centered with red roses and showered with stephanotis and satin streamers.

Miss June Ware attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Beth Hawkins and Miss Mercedes Smith, all of Kings Mountain.

The three attendants wore long formals of mauve chiffon and carried single long-stemmed pink roses.

Ray Willis of Cherryville was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Ronnie Willis and Stuart Willis, both of Cherryville.

The bride's mother was gowned in a green dress with which she wore black accessories and a white shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a bronze colored gown with black accessories and a white shoulder corsage.

After receiving guests at a reception in the church fellowship hall the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee. For traveling, the bride wore a two-piece suit and lifted the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The mauve and pink theme of the wedding was beautifully carried out in reception decorative details. Pink roses topped the three-tier wedding cake which was cut and served with pink punch and party refreshments. Parents of the bride and bridegroom hosted the reception and were assisted in serving by Ruth Huffstetler, Betty Black, Freida Grayson, Denise Bolin and Susan Kiser.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Sybil Kiser Hamrick of Kings Mountain, is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Blalock and Mr. and Mrs. Melton Kiser, all of Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed by Coca Cola Bottling Company.

The bridegroom, son of Lee Ray Willis and Mrs. Melba Bridges Willis of Cherryville, is a graduate of Burns Senior High School and is employed by L. & R Oil Co. and Kings Mountain Phillips 66 Station.

The newlyweds are at home at Battle Forrest Apartments in Kings Mountain.

Some experts estimate that the first dogs were tamed over 12,000 years ago.

A "fun party" honored the couple on Thursday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Robinson.

Party refreshments were served to 50 guests, including members of the wedding party and out-of-town wedding guests.
