

Decisions Program Set

Mauney Memorial Library and Kings Mountain Woman's Club will sponsor an eight week Great Decisions program beginning Feb. 2. The meetings will be held each Monday evening at 7:45 in the Woman's Club building on East Mountain Street. They will last approximately one hour.

Great Decisions is a nationwide program which increases understanding of eight of the principal foreign policy issues facing the U.S. and gives citizens a chance to express their views to the nation's decision-makers. It is prepared by The Foreign Policy Association and will be coordinated by Dr. Bill Manikas,

History/Political Science Professor at Gaston College.

The dates and issues to be discussed are as follows:

1. Feb. 2: The U.S. And The Soviet Union, Dilemmas of Power and Peace.

2. Feb. 9: From Cairo to Kabul: Oil, Islam, Israel - and Instability.

3. Feb. 16: China After Normalization: How Good a Friend for the U.S.?

4. Feb. 23: South Africa: Can Race War be Avoided?

5. Mar. 2: Central America and the Caribbean: New Political Earthquake Zone.

6. Mar. 9: Food: Humanity's Need. America's Interest.

7. Mar. 16: Made In U.S.A.: Is U.S. Competitiveness Slipping?

8. Mar. 23: The World In 1981

The Foreign Policy Association is a national educational organization. Ever since its founding in 1918, this nonpartisan, nongovernmental Association has worked to help Americans gain understanding of significant issues in U.S. foreign policy and to stimulate constructive citizen participation in world affairs. National headquarters: 205 Lexington Ave., New York, N.Y. 10016. Washington Office: 1800 K Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006.

KMLT Sets Tryouts

The Kings Mountain Little Theatre, Inc., announces try-out dates for its upcoming production, "Off With His Honorable Head." Try-outs will be held Thursday, January 8, 6:30 p.m. at Park Grace Auditorium and again on Saturday, January 10 at 2 p.m.

"Off With His Honorable Head" has an oriental theme. The emperor, Wun Long Nap, has a daughter, Toy San, who is in love with the poor Lu Lo Li; but the emperor wishes her to marry the rascally Hu Fu Wong who pretends to be rich. To prevent the marriage, Toy San pretends that she cannot speak. The emperor offers to reward anyone who can cure his daughter, but anyone who fails will lose his head.

There are 18 parts to be cast.

Any high school student or adult is invited to audition for a part.

Janet Sims is director for this production; Debbie Rushing is assistant director.

The Kings Mountain Little Theatre, Inc., will hold its regular monthly meeting following try-outs on Thursday, January 8, at 8 p.m. at Park Grace. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Tax Listing Underway

Tax listing in Kings Mountain and Number Four Township was off to a brisk start this week.

The annual tax listing chore began Friday in the lobby of the Kings Mountain Government Facilities Building and continues throughout the month.

Mrs. Betty Ballard, Mrs. Joann Hauser, Mrs. Marion Carpenter and Mrs. Gerry

Werner will be on duty daily at the new City Hall Mondays through Fridays, through Jan. 30th. The listers will be at Grover Rescue Squad Building to list taxes on Sat., Jan. 10th and Sat., Jan. 24th during the hours of 8:30 until 1 p.m.

Law requires that persons who own property list for taxes. Practically, the listing is of personal property as real property is carried forward on the books from year to year. Persons who have acquired or disposed of real property during the year should inform the listing officials to assure proper billing for taxes.

Among properties to be listed include automobiles, household goods, guns, appliances, dogs and other items of value.

"List early and avoid the last minute rush," says Mrs. Ballard.

DEATHS

MRS. BERTIE LEE HORN

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertie Lee Horn, 61, of Route 3, who died Saturday evening at her home, will be conducted Tuesday at 3 p.m. from Oak Grove Baptist Church of which she was a member.

Rev. Michael Goudelock, Rev. Russell Hinton and Rev. James Holder will officiate at the rites and interment will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. Horn, wife of Olland Horn, was daughter of the late Clarence Thomas and Mattie Blanton Dixon.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Dennis Horn and William Horn, both of Kings Mountain, one brother, C.T. Dixon Jr. of Kings Mountain; two sisters, Mrs. David (Teenie) McDaniel of Hendersonville and Mrs. Wesley (Pearl) Kiser of Kings Mountain; and five grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers the family has requested memorials be made to the piano fund of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Harris Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Larceny And Vandalism Reported To KM Police

Kings Mountain Police Department is investigating reports of larceny and vandalism which occurred during the weekend.

Thieves took two color television sets, valued at $700, during a break-in at Clark Good Year Co. on S. Battleground Ave.

Larry Ebron, 82 Pine Manor Apts., reported that a tire on his 1980 Ford was cut.

Reports of larceny included: Ricky McDaniel, 113 S. Gaston

St., CB antennae valued at $19; William Hullender, 502 Hawthorne, larceny of gasoline; Diane Gromme, larceny of car battery; Charles Fletcher, 410 Clinton Dr., larceny of tape player; Louis Futrell, Rt. 4, larceny of furniture from Miniwarehouse, valued at $1200; Sue Henderson, 1003 Princeton Dr., larceny of trailbike; and Angela Hopper, 82 Pine Manor Apts., larceny of check from mailbox.

Jerry King To Attend Small Business Meeting

Jerry King, Director of the Kings Mountain Office of Economic Development, will go to Raleigh Jan. 28th to attend the Governor's Conference on Small Business.

The Conference, to be attended by industrial developers from all over the state, will be held at Jane S. McKimmon Center and is sponsored in conjunction with the N.C. Small Business Advocacy Council and the N.C. Department of Commerce.

King said the purpose of the conference is to discuss and develop recommendations which will address the concerns of small businesses in the area of taxes, regulations, education, training and dissemination of information, procurement and bonding, and capital formation and retention.

Organizations providing support services to small businesses will have displays and be available to talk with persons attending the conference.

Rowlett Speaks To Boy Scouts

Sgt. James W. Rowlett, U.S. Army Recruiter for the Kings Mountain area, was guest speaker at the annual Christmas Party for Boy Scout Troop 91 and Explorer Post 91 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

Another special guest was PFC Lee Bickley of Kings Mountain, who recently completed basic training.

Sgt. Rowlett showed a film about the Army and told the scouts and explorers about the many opportunities available in the Army.

SUNDAY MASS

Effective January 11, Sunday Mass will be celebrated at Resurrection Lutheran Church on Crescent Circle in Kings Mountain for the parishioners of Christ the King Catholic Mission. Anyone needing directions to the new location may contact Mrs. Christine Morrison at 739-3071. The time remains the same - 8:30 a.m.
