Tours With G-W Group

BOILING SPRINGS — The Gardner-Webb College Choral Ensemble conducted its annual Spring Tour, March 6-12. The Ensemble performed in churches and schools in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

William T. McSwain Jr., son of Margaret B. McSwain of Kings Mountain, is a member of the Gardner-Webb Choral Ensemble. He is a freshman.

The Choral Ensemble is the official touring choir of the college. The Spring tour coincided with "Music in Our Schools Week" sponsored by the Music Educators National Conference and was an emphasis on a nationwide basis in the promotion of music as an educational tool in the schools in the country.

Accompanists for the Choral Ensemble were Connie Hodge, organist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hodge of Sumter, S.C. and Patricia Burnett, pianist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paleather Burnett of Duncan, S.C. Student conductor was Larry Bodie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Bodie of Aiken, S.C. He is a junior majoring in Sacred Music.

Currently in his seventh year as conductor of the Choral Ensemble, Dr. George R. Cribb is Chairman of the Department of Fine Arts. He received a Bachelor's degree from Wake Forest University and graduate degrees in music from Columbia University and North Texas State University. He has done additional studies at Westminster Choir College, the Hartt School of Music of the University of Hartford, the Union Theological Seminary (New York) and at York University (England).
