Sigmas Complete Plans For 1959

BY JAMES BENJAMIN HORTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The General Board of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., a national Greek-letter college organization, recently held a joint meeting in this city with its host, Alpha Sigma Gamma chapter. Purposes of the one-day meeting were, among other things, to plan for the 45th Anniversary Convocation to be held here December 27-30th, inclusive — and to establish a theme for 1959. It chose for 1959 the theme "Preparation for Economic and Social Security in an Integrated Society."

BE SAFE WITH VALUABLES

They Could Get Lost Or Stolen
AND... You'll get halled-out

Why continue to worry yourself and your wife about your valuable papers and jewelry. Some thief could interrupt twenty years of well-earned home storage of insurance policies, wills, deeds, and other valuables... or an unexpected fire could destroy these same valuables that you worked and planned for so long for your family's protection. When they are stolen, lost or destroyed, the wife will hally you out and say, "I told you so." Don't get halled-out. Protect your valuables, put them in a safe place—a safety deposit box in the Mechanics & Farmers Bank, now!
