Teachers by the hundreds will; converge on Raleigh from all parts of North Carolina Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week for their annual meeting. School children here will have a happy holilers. All officers and members are day while local facilities are used urged to attend. The president is by the visiting teachers. And by the visiting teachers. And speaking of holidays, this is the airst of three "short" weeks in a row. The following will result from the Easter holidays which will be Friday of next week and Menday of week after next.

But back to the teachers. In years past I have heard many complain that they have difficulty linding a place to sleep when they want to stay over night. Mrs. Alice C. Jones of 213 East Caberrus St. is in charge of housing arrange-ments and anyone who is desirous of housing is sure to find help through her. Show University has offered much dormitory space and that, along with the many rooms in private homes, is sure to be enough for all guests in the city for the meetings.

On Sunday, March 15, morning worship service began promptly at 11:00 at the Maple Temple Chris- each Wednesday night at 7:30 Come tian Church. The pastor, Reverend and join the group.

M. F. Booker, made the call to OAK CHY BAPTIST worship and the senior choir ing to Zion." After the choir had Oak City Baptist Church. All the taken its place, it sang, "Gloria people are urged to be present. Patria."

We were then led in prayer by our pastor while the choir softly writing. They all appreciate the chanted, "The Lord's Prayer." The first hymn of the morning rendered by the choir was, "If Jesus Goes With Me."

The scripure lesson was read by the pastor from the 8th chapter of at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Ruth Bunch is St. Mark, verses 1-38.

Prayer was offered after the reading of the scripture by Deacon Pred Jones, of the Botheleham Baptist Church, Norfolk, Va.

While the mission offering was being lifted the choir sang, "I Must Tel! Jesus." This offering was plessed by Deacon Holloway. The announcements of the week and the introduction of the visitors were made. The general offering was lifted and consecrated.

The choir then sang, "Look For Me In Heaven," afterwhich the pastor began his sermon which was built around the 8th chapter, 34th verse of Saint Mark.

In this passage of scripture, it tells how the Lord fed a great multitude of people on seven loaves of bread and a few small fish, and had seven backets of fragments left. This was a very wonderfully delivered sermon and enjoyed by all present.

Immediately after the sermon, the choir sang, "Jesus Is Tenderly Calling," as an invitational hymn. The doxology and benediction closed the sermon for the morning.

CHORUS MAS ANNIVERSARY At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the Maple Temple Gospel Chorus observed its 10th anniversary. The senior and junior choirs of the church sang the opening two numbers. Other guests participating were: the Oberlin Baptist Choir, Church of God choir, Union Baptist Church choir, New Bethel, and the Royal Lites of Smithfield.

The beautiful song service was enjoyed by all
