EASTER SPEECH

QUESTION: What would a good approach to the Easter speech in order to make it somewhat different from the usual type of Easter speech?—Mrs. T.F.F.

ANSWER: I believe as I have observed it, most ministers spend much time on the risen Christ. But the more fascinating approach is an analysis of the arrest and three trials of Jesus. These should be explained in terms of Roman and Jewish laws.

Such a discussion will make clear why the Jews could not put Christ to death at the end of the first and second trial during which

He was called a "King of the Jews." It will be interesting to point out the crooked dealings of the High Priest in this connection.

QUESTIONS OF HARVARD
It is strange that had not John Harvard's mother executed these three she might have been at Harvard University. It was the wealthy father of John Harvard—a butcher, a cooper and a grocer — a man which came the money to found what is now America's oldest educational institution. It was Rev. John Harvard's gift of a library of 300 volumes and a sum of 600 pounds—a magnificent gift in the year 1633—which gave him the distinction of being principal founder of the college named in his honor. His father was a butcher and the first of his mother's three husbands.

COOK VEGETABLES QUICKLY TO PRESERVE FOOD VALUE
During this cold-catching season, plan to include winter greens in your meals.

These are good sources of vitamin A and C, both of which are needed to help resist and fight infections in the body, says Miss S.

Virginia Wilson, nutrition specialist for the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service.

Overcooking changes color, food value and makes them harder to digest.

Per capita consumption of poultry was 23.2 pounds in 1935.
