In paying tribute to Bishop Penick, Dr. James A. Boyer, president of the college, said: Bishop Penick was a man of objective was to bring all men of the Episcopal church tosether in an atmosphere of peace and mutual understanding. His final, dramatic appeal for brotherly love, mutual understanding, and Christian living was enunciated as he addressed the last meeting of the Laymens Association of the Diocesese in High Point several weeks ago. He wanted a unified church above all. but he wanted a constant and active regard for the dignity of all men.'

Born in Frankfort, Ky., on April 4, 1887, the Rev. Mr. Penick was the son of an Episcopal minister. He was married to Miss Carolina Ingelsby Dial of Colum-Bern, J. M. Hanna, Greensboro, W. bia, S.
