

ATTENDS "SOME LIKE IT HOT" PREMIERE — Singer Harry Belafonte enjoys a laugh at New York's New Loew's State Theatre March 28th, where he was attending the New York premiere of the film, "Some Like It Hot." (UPI PHOTO).

POPE RECEIVES CULTURE CONGRESSMEN — Pope John XXIII poses amid a group of 200 representatives of Negro culture — writers and artists from Africa and America who were received, along with white observers, at the Vatican April 1. The Negro intellectuals attended in Rome the second world congress of their society, which ended March 31. The 77-year-old Pontiff delivered a speech in French to the delegates who were led by J. Price Mars, Dean of the University of Port-Au-Prince, Haiti (UPI PHOTO).

N. KNOX, PRESIDENT KATEL B. WHICKAM and VICE PRES. MAUDE GADSEN discuss European Tour of Organization.

PLANS ARE BEING COMPLETED for the European and study program for those members of the National Beauty Culturists' League who will study advanced hairstyling and cosmetology at the Ara Ecole of Hairdressers with the Master Cornada in October of this year. . . President Whickam is most anxious that NBCL members now contact the tour chairman, vice president Maude Gadsen of 167 W. 136th Street in New York City so as to be assured of the best accommodations during this wonderful tour. . . The group will leave the United States on the SS/US immediately following the October convention in Philadelphia. . . This advanced educational program is in keeping with one of the points of President Whickam's 10-point program for NBCL.

RAYMOND LOGAN, a 1939 graduate of St. Augustine's College is the co-author of a technical memorandum, "Solid State Elevation Servo Amplifier for 120mm Gun Tank M103." This report discusses modification of the elevation servo-mechanism of 120mm Gun Tank M103. Mr. Logan is employed by the Research and Development Group, Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was a well-known student at St. Augustine's.

FOCUS ON CHANGE — His picturesque clothes may be rooted in tradition, but the outlook of this African is strictly modern as he examines a movie camera in Rome. He is a delegate to the Second Congress of Negro Writers and Artists, attended by representatives from the Americas as well as Africa. They discussed "The Unity and Responsibility of African Negro Culture." — (UPI PHOTO).

DOUBLE EATURE — Only nine months old, identical twins Anthony and Andrew Henderson are really excited about moviemaking. They're trying to take a look at themselves on the celluloid in a film cutting room at the Samuel Goldwyn Studio in Hollywood. The youngsters, so alike that only their parents can tell them apart, alternate in the same role in the new movie, "Porgy and Bess." (UPI PHOTO).

GO ON PATROL — Members of a riot squad of the African security police move off on patrol here carrying clubs and mesh screens to protect them from thrown objects. An uneasy quiet prevailed in Nyasaland March 27th after three weeks of rioting by supporters of African Nationalism and arrested extremist leader Dr. Hastings Banda. (UPI PHOTO).

ANYBODY CAN DO IT — Arthur Saam Best, right, nationally known hand clinician in wood instruments, who conducted a clinic at A&T College last week, gives out pointers to 10-year-old Michael Spaulding, a hand student from Graham. Observing at left is Walter F. Carlson, Jr., director of bands at A&T, in charge of arrangements for the event.

OWNS HOME IN APPLE VALLEY, CALIF. — Although she seldom stays in one place very long because of numerous stage, screen, radio, night club, TV and recording commitments, Pearl Bailey (above) has a home here in Apple Valley to which she returns as often as possible. While co-starring as Maria in Samuel Goldwyn's motion picture production of "Porgy and Bess," Miss Bailey made the round trip to and from Apple Valley every weekend, and entertained about half the cast there, too. She and her husband have about 35 acres there. (UPI PHOTO).

AT INSURANCE MEET — Asa Spaulding, left, newly elected president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company of Durham, is shown about the campus at A&T College by Dr. Wernoth T. Gibbs, right, president of the college. Spaulding keynoted the annual meeting of his company's North Carolina State Planning Committee which met at A&T. At center is N. L. Gregg, Greensboro district manager, official host to the two day conference.