Lodges taking part will be Bull City Lodge No. 317 of Durham; Pride of Vance, Henderson; Security Lodge, Sanford; Fidelity, Raleigh; Warren County, Warrenton; and Pride of Orange, Chapel Hill.

The Oratorical Contest will be conducted at the St. Matthews A.M. Church on E. Davie Street at 3 p. m. The winner of the district contest will be his representative at the state contest on Tuesday, May 12. Lucille Hunter School at 8 p. m. The state winner will compete in the national finals at Atlantic City, New Jersey, in Aug. KILLEPS GET LONG TERMS RALEIGH — For beating his girl friend to death with a broomstick a 37-year-old Wake Forest laborer was handed a sentence of life imprisonment. Wilbur Wilkerson pleaded guilty to first degree murder in the slaying of his girl friend, Miss Annie M. Wilkerson, on the night of April 2. According to officers the couple lived together, but were not legally married.

In another case, an Apex man David McLean of near Apex, had originally been charged with first-degree murder in the fatal beating of Tommy Lee, 17, of Raleigh, who died near Holly Springs on March 27. He was sentenced to serve from 18 to 25 years. DROWNS AFTER RIVER DIVE BONEBORO — Sterling Calver, 25, of Roxboro, drowned in Person County when he jumped into the Hyeo River to grab fish which had been dumped to the surface last week. Calver, a farmer on the Kitchen Harris farm on the Virginia Road, was accompanied by another man. They used a half stick of dynamite to blast fish to the surface. When the fish came up, Calver jumped in to get them.

JUDGE DELANEY HERE THURS. RALEIGH — Judge Hubert T. Delaney, retired Justice of the Domestic Relations Court of the City of New York, will speak in the college Chapel at St. Augustine's College on Thursday, April 23, at 11:30 a. m. Judge Delaney was born in Raleigh, the son of the late Bishop Henry Beard Delaney and Mrs. Nancy J. Delaney. In 1927, he was appointed an Assistant U. S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York. In 1934, he was appointed Tax Commissioner for the Borough of Manhattan and in 1942 was appointed Justice of the Domestic Relations Court of New York, a position he held until 1955, when he retired.

INSURANCE AGENT SPEAKS TO RALEIGH — Henry L. Brown, general agent for the Pilot Life Insurance Company, was the speaker at the Fuller Products Co. Branch here, which held its weekly meeting at the YMCA, S. Bloodworth Street, recently. The speaker discussed the importance of training qualifications and the many advantages of selling. "Cash is the main objective of any salesman or saleslady, but we want to cash in on ideas for rendering service and better methods of approach in offering this service," the speaker stated. Many suggestions were offered for the development of skill in the art of selling, stressing, however, the importance of practice and experience to become a clever salesman. "Habit of neatness, mannerisms and intelligent approach, means success," he concluded.

NCTA HEAD TO TAKE OVER AT WAKE SCHOOL (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Barber, a native of Salisbury, is a graduate of the C. P. Frie High School, that city, attended Livingstone College, and received the B.A. degree at Claflin College, Orangeburg, S. C. He earned the M.A. degree at the University of Pennsylvania in 1947 and has studied for three summers toward a Ph.D. degree at that institution. Smith said of Barber: "We are very happy to have a man of Mr. Barber's stature coming to our county as a member of the administrative family." Married to the former Miss Mary Maye, an 8th grade teacher at B. T. Washington, Barber is the father of two children. They are Carlton, Jr., 13; and Constance, 7 years of age. He was a member of the executive committee of the NCTA for many years before becoming its president. Speaks in City Sunday A Baptist and adult teacher of his Sunday School Class in Clarkton, Barber is scheduled to be the Men's Day speaker at the Martin Street Baptist Church here Sunday. Barber has received plaques and awards from the following groups in recent years for his leadership ability: Bladen Teachers Association, his school, and the Southeastern Schoolmasters Club. In a telephone conversation with Mr. Barber Tuesday of this week, he expressed pleasant surprise at being chosen to head the Garner school.

SURPRISE IS EXPRESSED AT HARRIS' ACT. (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Recreation Commission and an unsuccessful candidate for the State House of Representatives last year, Dr. Harris also gave two other reasons for withdrawing: "You can't expect other people to support when your own race doesn't"; and, "I haven't been feeling too good." He said that he planned to run again for the City Council in two years. When he ran for the State House of Representatives, Dr. Harris received 3,000 votes. All efforts by The CAROLINIAN to contact him for elaboration for his pulling out of the race were futile. The 14 white candidates will battle for the 7-seat council when election day rolls around. This marks the first time since the city-manager city-council form of government was formed in 1946 that a Negro has not been among the candidates for election. Colored candidates who have sought council seats and the years in which they ran follow: F. J. Carnegie and George Mitchell, 1947; Herman L. Taylor, 1948; C. A. (Doll) Hayward and the Rev. C. C. Jones, 1951; Herman L. Taylor, 1952; Carl E. DeVane, 1955; Dr. C. B. Middleton and the late L. T. Lightner, 1957; and Dr. Harris in 1958. It has been debated in this area whether the Negro will question the racial views of the candidates for the city council. Many facilities have been sought by the race and denied. The 14 candidates seeking election this year are: W. P. Upchurch, Robert L. Sessoms, James W. Reid, M. Butler Prescott, Arthur L. Poole, Charles H. Kahn, Louis T. Johnson, Paul A. Hoover, Jesse Helms, C. F. George, Burley R. Evans, W. G. Enloe, Joe S. Correll, and John N. Coffey.

MESSAGE FROM IKE, OTHERS FOR YOUTH MARCHERS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) of the children did not see an opportunity to hear a Phillip Randolph as he told why they had come to Washington, the cradle of independence, the supposed birthplace of true democracy to ask the United States Congress to back the decision of the United States Supreme Court. Randolph was backed with ringing words from Walter Ruether and George Meany, in telegrams sent by the two labor magnates. He also had the endorsement of George Zimmerman, Hubert Delaney, Roy Wilkins, Martin Luther King, Marguerite Belafonte and Daisy Bates. The fact that there were so many adults in the march seemed to serve as an incentive to the children and they marched with quickened step and fervent spirit. They were applauded by a large number of spectators who filled the march route, and yelled words of cheer, gestures of cooperation and smiles of dignity as the many marchers passed. There were those who looked worn from the long march, who were bent with age and some who showed that the years had taken their toll, but they trudged along like valiant soldiers and where their feet seemed to have become weary from the trek, their voices would ring out in the yells and songs. Not since that memorable Easter by the small branches and branches in the cities. The activities of the North Carolina State Conference are noteworthy in the area of civil rights and is the leader in NAACP programs as to membership and fund raising in the southeast region. The North Carolina NAACP is now engaged in a program of expanding desegregation of the public schools with cases pending in federal courts involving education in Mecklenburg County, Durham, Greensboro and Montgomery County. The North Carolina NAACP relocated the parents of the boys in the "Kissing Case" of Monroe, placed them in improved housing, financed the complete operation, which resulted in the boys being returned home from Morrison Training School. The NAACP is still taking care of the families. Branches throughout the state will be represented at this important freedom celebration in large numbers coming in bus and car loads to give thanks for the progress to date and rededicate themselves to the task of wiping out the evils of discrimination and segregation that still beset our state and nation. Charles McLean, NAACP Field Secretary, Mrs. Ruth Morgan, Vice President of the State Conference, Mrs. L. L. Graham, an official of the State Conference, Dr. Grady Davis, Chairman, Church Committee of the State Conference and "M. Alexander, President of State Conference will also participate. Mrs. Annie Rose Jordan, Noted Spiritual Singer, will be a feature of the program.

LETTERS URGE ARK'S GOV. TO CONSIDER (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Faubus said that the situation is so fluid at present, it is difficult to tell what will happen during the 1960 National Convention. He thinks that if a third party comes, "it will bust loose in the South like nothing ever seen before in this country." "For the first time, the people themselves are aroused," Faubus said. "If the dam breaks, there will be no stopping them. The political leaders themselves won't be able to control them. That's why the situation is different from the old Dixiecrat Party, when a few politicians bolted, but didn't have enough support from the people."

President Ridley will be presented by Superintendent J. H. Moore of the Pasquotank County Schools and a member of the Board of Trustees, and will be in-vested in the office by Dr. J. W. Davis, Chairman of the Board of Trustees. In the presentation of the symbols of office, Mr. John A. Bias, president of the Alumni Association, will present the presidential medalion. Members of the board of trustees will make presentations as follows: McDonald Dixon, vice-chairman, will present the charter. Dr. Clifford B. Jones, the keys, and Roland L. Garrett, the mace.

ASKS SEAWELL TO RETRACT STATEMENT (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Christians and Jews in Charlotte Feb. 6. Williams said Seawell "willfully distorted the true facts," and threatened that if the retraction is not forthcoming, he will seek further legal advice regarding the possibility of a suit for slander. Seawell allegedly made statements to the effect that "none of the money (collected by the committee to combat racial injustice) ever found its way back to the Negro children or their families." Williams claimed that he had canceled checks dated starting in December 1958 to prove that the money did go to the families of Hanover Thompson, 10, and David Simpson, 9.

MRS. BELAFONTE SPARKS NAACP'S RALLY MAY 3RD (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Mrs. Belafonte has degrees from Hampton, Va., Institute and New York University. She studied also at the Sorbonne, the University of Madrid and the University of Heidelberg. She has travelled thousands of miles East and West, North and South, in behalf of the Freedom Fund. A special feature of the NAACP Freedom Celebration will be the crowning of the "NAACP Mothers of the Year" by Mrs. Belafonte. This is an annual project of the North Carolina chapter of the NAACP. Church Bonus Money Rules All purchase slips of receipts presented to your church must come from stores advertising in the CAROLINIAN. Each week carries a date in the Bonus Money period. Purchases eligible must come from the store during the week the ad appears. No purchase slips representing a business should be submitted. All receipts must come from individual purchases. All churches in Raleigh and Wake County are eligible. All purchase slips must bear the name of the store from which the purchase was made. All purchase slips should be submitted in the name of the church, and should be in the office of the CAROLINIAN the Monday following closing of Bonus period. To order that smaller churches may have an equal opportunity to share in the Bonus Money the following regulation is established: A church of over 200 members will be awarded 1st Bonus Money consecutively. A church of 100 or more members receive 1st Bonus Money after the first period. It would have to wait until the third Bonus period to be presented 1st award again, except when a church has 200 or less members, then it could win 1st Bonus awards consecutively. However, this does not mean that second and third awards cannot be sought consecutively. Consequently every church group has the opportunity to secure an award every period. No purchase of over $20 from any one merchant during a week can be counted. There is a ceiling of $25 per person a week for grocery purchases. To the extent of the same amount of purchases by more than one entry, the award will be divided. Weekly purchase totals should be shown on each packet and total placed on the outside of the envelope carrying the period's entry along with name and address. Bonus money earners will be announced in the issue following the closing of each period. All entries remain the property of the CAROLINIAN. All entries are final when the names of the Bonus Money earners are announced in the CAROLINIAN, and no responsibility is accepted by this newspaper beyond that point. No receipts from banks will be considered, except payment on mortgages.

LETTERS URGE ARK'S GOV. TO CONSIDER (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Faubus said that the situation is so fluid at present, it is difficult to tell what will happen during the 1960 National Convention. He thinks that if a third party comes, "it will bust loose in the South like nothing ever seen before in this country." "For the first time, the people themselves are aroused," Faubus said. "If the dam breaks, there will be no stopping them. The political leaders themselves won't be able to control them. That's why the situation is different from the old Dixiecrat Party, when a few politicians bolted, but didn't have enough support from the people."

ASKS SEAWELL TO RETRACT STATEMENT (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) Christians and Jews in Charlotte Feb. 6. Williams said Seawell "willfully distorted the true facts," and threatened that if the retraction is not forthcoming, he will seek further legal advice regarding the possibility of a suit for slander. Seawell allegedly made statements to the effect that "none of the money (collected by the committee to combat racial injustice) ever found its way back to the Negro children or their families." Williams claimed that he had canceled checks dated starting in December 1958 to prove that the money did go to the families of Hanover Thompson, 10, and David Simpson, 9.

Church Bonus Money Rules All purchase slips of receipts presented to your church must come from stores advertising in the CAROLINIAN. Each week carries a date in the Bonus Money period. Purchases eligible must come from the store during the week the ad appears. No purchase slips representing a business should be submitted. All receipts must come from individual purchases. All churches in Raleigh and Wake County are eligible. All purchase slips must bear the name of the store from which the purchase was made. All purchase slips should be submitted in the name of the church, and should be in the office of the CAROLINIAN the Monday following closing of Bonus period. To order that smaller churches may have an equal opportunity to share in the Bonus Money the following regulation is established: A church of over 200 members will be awarded 1st Bonus Money consecutively. A church of 100 or more members receive 1st Bonus Money after the first period. It would have to wait until the third Bonus period to be presented 1st award again, except when a church has 200 or less members, then it could win 1st Bonus awards consecutively. However, this does not mean that second and third awards cannot be sought consecutively. Consequently every church group has the opportunity to secure an award every period. No purchase of over $20 from any one merchant during a week can be counted. There is a ceiling of $25 per person a week for grocery purchases. To the extent of the same amount of purchases by more than one entry, the award will be divided. Weekly purchase totals should be shown on each packet and total placed on the outside of the envelope carrying the period's entry along with name and address. Bonus money earners will be announced in the issue following the closing of each period. All entries remain the property of the CAROLINIAN. All entries are final when the names of the Bonus Money earners are announced in the CAROLINIAN, and no responsibility is accepted by this newspaper beyond that point. No receipts from banks will be considered, except payment on mortgages.
