OPEN YOUR EYES AND PURSES TO NAACP

ROCKY MOUNT — If you doubt that your house containing your political and economic rights is on fire and about to be sabotaged or dynamited just read what the "Citizens' Councils of America" says in its April issue of which they boast that 35,000 copies are being circulated.

Certainly every Negro in the South should rise up and pay $3, $5, $10 or $25 to help hold to the freedom we have. Especially so when the States' Rights, N. C. and Ku Klux Klans are paying similar amounts to keep us in bondage and out of jobs-stare us to death. If we don't start pulling together we are going to be pulled under because those folks are organizing in an all-out attempt to defeat us. Won't you help yourself?

A special appeal is being made to white Tarheelers who believe in segregation for memberships and subscriptions to the newspaper published in Jackson, Miss. A special meeting is set for April 29 in Raleigh hotel, at which "The Hon. Hugh C. Grant" is scheduled to address "The N. C. Defenders of States' Rights."

OUR CHANCE SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon, May 3rd, at 3 o'clock it will be our chance to show our colors and our display of stance to try to help our Nation save democracy. We have the chance to put our money where we are always talking - on freedom's table. Mere words don't get freedom. We must pay for it with CASH as well as service to the cause.

It takes the courage of a Davey Crockett if we are to kill the bear of discrimination, lost jobs and poor schools. Wishing won't make it so. It takes three C's: Courage, Common Sense and Cash along with our prayers to fight this bear. Bring or send your money to the State-wide NAACP freedom rally Sunday and hear Mrs. Mar-

BY MRS. ALVIN WILLIAMS CHURCH ACTIVITIES

LOUISBURG — Sunday Church School at the Mitchell Chapel Church began Sunday morning, April 26, at 9:45. The superintendent, Mr. Mack V. Kearney, was in charge. Subject of the lesson, "The Rise of David."

The lesson was very beautifully reviewed by the superintendent. The members of the Sunday School were very pleased to have a number of visitors in Church School Sunday morning.

The Missionary Circle of the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church held its monthly meeting Saturday, April 25, at 8 p. m. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Bertha Milon. The president, Mrs. Della Kearney, presided over the meeting. Reports were made from the first vice-president, Mrs. Maggie L. Salomon, and the second vice president, Mrs. Mary L. Williams.

After the dispensation of business, the lessons for the month were discussed by Mr. Eddie T. Wilson and Mrs. Bertha Milon.

The Circle was glad to have a number of guests and visitors present. The one-day District Conference of District V, Group 3, Auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Convention met at the First Baptist Church, Oxford, Sunday, April 26. The address was given by Mrs. M. H. Horn, president of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Convention. Subject of her address, "Mobilizing To Live."

This was a wonderful discussion. There was a large attendance of around 400. Among this number were the following members of the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church: Mesdames Della Kearney, Mary Jane Davis, Lena Johnson, Edna Ford, Bertha Milon; Messrs. Edna T. Wilson, Bernice T. Kearney and Dennis Davis.

Services at the Haywood Church began Sunday morning at 10 a. m. Morning worship opened at 11 o'clock. A wonderful sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. O. H. Brodie. His subject was: "Our First Concern." Music was furnished by the senior mixed choir with Miss Pearl Hawkins at the piano.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Annie Kearney and children, Sarah, Jacqueline and Robert were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Kearney's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Foster.

Mrs. Sarah J. Jones and her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Williams, have returned home after spending a week in Morristown, N. J. with Mrs. Jones' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Watson, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. James Milon, Mr. Ollie Milon and Mr. Julius Milon spent Sunday in Newport News, Va., with the brother-in-law of Mr. Julius Milon and Ollie Milon. The brother-in-law is Mr. Robert Jones and he is ill.

Artesia High News

HALLSBORO — Our community

has enjoyed a series of dramatic activities recently, with the production of a primary opera, a grammar grade one-act play night and a very entertaining high school play by the "playmakers" of our own school.

Our school was also host to a center of the Columbus County Unit of the M. C. T. A. Dramatic Festival and a Music Festival by the Central High School Glee Club.

The Artesia Baseball Panthers have thus far played two games against the Westside Tigers, losing both by a close margin of 9-13 and 11-12 respectively.

We are host to the Lumbermen Phantoms this afternoon and are expecting a victory.

ARTESIA STUDENT ELECTED STATE OFFICER

Miss Hazel Baldwin, a junior of Artesia High School, Hallsville, was elected to office of assistant secretary of the State of North Carolina at its 28th Annual State Convention which met Saturday, April 18, 1959 at the Saint Augustine's College of Raleigh.

This marks the second time that an Artesia student has been elected to a state office. At the 27th Annual Convention, Charles Terry Bracy of Artesia was elected state treasurer.

Club members from all sections of North Carolina, numbering six hundred or more, heard Dr. Hugh M. Glover, Director of Public Relations Division of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia, as principal speaker.

Other activities of the morning included workshops deriving from the convention theme: "Preparing to Meet the Challenges of the Space Age Through A Better Utilization of Available Opportunities" and a talent program on which Jerome Powell played a saxophone solo entitled "Tales From The Vines."

Wooden by Strauss, with Miss Gretchen Thurman, Artesia's chapter president, at the piano. The afternoon session included committee reports, report of the treasurer of 1958-59, Artesia's Charles Bracy, report of executive secretary, Dr. Igal E. Spragins, Registrar of St. Augustine's College and miscellaneous business. This session was followed by a very elaborate and enjoyable social hour.

The convention was closed with the showing of a movie of last year's convention by Mr. Purdie Anders, Director of Public Relations of St. Augustine's College.

In addition to the previous mentioned Artesia students who attended the convention, others attending were Odessa Baldwin, Loney Jean McMillan, Carolyn West, Franklin Boone, Charles Deberry Cherry and Marshall Nichols. These were accompanied by Mrs. Neallie G. Shaw, club sponsor at Artesia and Miss Connie Lee Antons, who is a charter member of the Artesia Chapter and a senior at Winston-Salem Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N. C.

The week's program a wholesome and enjoyable event.

Washington Junior High School Happenings

EDITORS: Jeanne Gill, Carolyn Gilchrist, Fannie Rand, Ronald Forbes and Eugene Harrington

GLEE CLUB RECEIVES A-RATING

The dreams of the Washington Junior High School Glee Club were realized last Friday as they readied themselves to attend the District Music Festival. The festival was held at the John R. Hawkins School in Washington.

The trip was a delightful and everyone enjoyed listening to the piano and vocal soloists as well as other ensembles. The highlight of the day was the groups' appearance in the completion for Junior High Mixed Chorus. The Washington Glee Club sang "Joy and Good Cheer," by Praetorius, and "O Religion Is A Fortune," a spiritual. Carolyn La Carter sang the solo in the spiritual.

The following persons made the trip: Elaine Hinton, Ruth Hudgins, Paulette Cannady, Alice Mitchell, Vinnie Mills, Faye Eaton, Dorothy Shaw, Lizzie McClean, Theresa Phillips, Clyde Williams, Phyllis McCullough, Carolyn Carter, Betty Buggs, Joyce Cooke, Ann Smith, Francena McWhite, Joan Liles, Valjean Myers, Monelle Dolby, Brenda Edwards, Robbie Delnam, Wilton Smith, William Pollard, Edwin Ray, James Blackman, Carl Easterling, Robert Blackman, Billy Morgan, James Clay, James McCullough, Joseph Gass, Tommy Pearson, Robert Williams, Robert White, Marvin Harris, Milton Matthews, Ronald Reid, Johnny Boykins and Willie Robertson.

The group was accompanied by Mrs. W. P. Wimberley and Mrs. J. L. Allen.

The glee club members were happy to learn of their I-minus rating which qualified them to attend the State Festival in Durham.

LIBRARY NEWS

Mrs. Joyce McLendon, the school's librarian, is urging pupils to begin now making plans for summer reading. A new selection of books is being made and she wishes all pupils to acquaint themselves with these selected readings.

1959-60 P.T.A. OFFICERS ELECTED

The Washington School P.T.A. has ended another banner year under the most capable guidance of its president, Mrs. Mary Rogers.

The getting acquainted session during the first meeting established the atmosphere of "togetherness," which prevailed throughout the year—from September to May.

The committee chosen for the year worked faithfully and diligently at their various tasks. Much of the success of the year's work is due to their efforts.

Outstanding speakers during the school year included Mrs. Sadye Griffin, president of Ligon's P.T.A. and Washington's School Crossing Patrol; Mrs. Elizabeth Coffield of Shaw University; Mrs. Lillian Freeman, P.T.A. Council president and a former president of Washington's P.T.A. and Atty Fred Carnegie, member of the Raleigh School Board.

The attendance for the year has been unusually good. G. H. Coburn's seventh grade kept the attendance plaque for the entire year.

Officers chosen for 1959-60 include: president, Mrs. L. R. Rogers; vice-president, Mrs. Beulah Mason; secretary, Mrs. Louise May; assistant secretary, Miss Vivian Davis; treasurer, Mrs. Vivian Smith and chaplain, The Rev. J. Hunter.

DR. ROSSER VISITS

Washington School was happy to have Dr. Neil Rosser, Director of Instruction, to visit classrooms recently. Among the many classrooms that he visited recently was Mrs. R. B. Smith's fourth grade. The pupils were engaged in social studies. Specifically, they were discussing Hawaii. Dr. Rosser related to the class many activities and customs of Hawaii. The class enjoyed the discussion very much.

GOLDSTON NEWS

By D. W. Headen

GOLDSTON — Hello, readers everywhere! Here's hoping you are feeling fine. As we go rambling in Chatham another week end, we hope you will find the following news quite interesting.

GOLDSTON SOX DEFEATED

APEX, 15-7

The Goldston White Sox baseball team turned back Apex players 15-7 on Saturday, April 25, in spite of the tuff and ruff going at first. The home team scored one run in the first inning, another in the second and worked up to lead in the third inning with Windyard hitting two home runs. The game was played at the ball ground of the P. S. Waters High School. Manager for Goldston is Alonzo Horton.

DEATHS

DANCE

A dance sponsored by Goldston Civic Club will be given at the Blue Plate Saturday night.

The man who never loafs is not always the man who does the most work.

STRENGTH FOR TACKLE DAYS

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.—(St. Matthew 7:12.)

That is the Golden Rule—and who is there among us who would not subscribe to it? But in the daily rush and hurry of our lives, so many of us forget to apply it—and to love it. Thus do we hurt ourselves, as we hurt others.
