WHAT DOES MAY 17th MEAN TO YOU?

ROCKY MOUNT — During the past half-century our nation—and the world—has celebrated Armistice Day (now Veterans Day), V.E. Day, Pearl Harbor Day, Korea Day and many others. But five years ago—May 17th, 1948—the U. S. Supreme Court placed a new interpretation on the U. S. Constitution when that august body declared that Tom Jefferson and Company really meant colored folks, too, when they wrote that immortal document with their goose-quill pens.

Do colored people really believe that the Constitution means all of us? Or, have we so long been conditioned by the slave-complex of being satisfied with being half-free and half-slave until we just don't want to go out of the stable or pasture after the gate has been left open for us? Are we just willing to die in the wilderness of second-class citizenship because most southern whites have kept from us the better things of life by forcing immoral conditions upon us so they could say all manner of evil against us because they have kept us down and stripped us of our manhood and womanhood to the extent that we just feel we are inferior?

Well if we feel we can get by with that kind of life, we should see enough of the changing times to know that our children cannot get by that way. They will have to compete with the best trained people of all races—black, brown, white and yellow—from a hundred different countries around the globe.

Therefore, our youths should attend and participate in all the organizations where they can contact different nationalities whenever possible. In that connection we wonder how many high school youths availed themselves of the NAACP youth meeting at Shaw University Raleigh, May 9th as was announced during the Freedom Rally May 3rd? How many youths will join in celebrating May 17 (Freedom Day) by selling tags to raise funds for the freedom fight? How many youths will form NAACP Youth Councils in lieu of jittersburg clubs in their communities? NAACP adult leaders stand ready to help you do this anywhere. Call on us. Write to us.

How many pastors, churches and Sunday Schools will have special services on Sunday, May 17th in observance of our "second emancipation's" fifth anniversary?

LIFE MEMBERSHIP PAID
We salute the Old North State Medical Society for having made the nice contribution of a $300 N. AACP Life Membership. That was a nice start. Altho a few of the 125 members have paid, or now are paying on individual life memberships, we expect our numbers to start paying on another "offer" since it will only be $4 each on the group basis, just the price of one evening's refreshments as Daisy Bates and Marge Belafonte often remind us.

The late Mrs. Mildred Dixon Cools, Troy, N. Y. native, who once taught at N. C. College and Tuskegee, left a bequest of $4,000 to the NAACP in memory of her late husband, G. Victor Cools and other relatives. Mrs. Cools passed October 1952. This is a challenge to you and I to do something for the cause of freedom. Will you?

It would be nice to hear of a pledge and a payment from the IPEOW (EIKs) as we meet in Raleigh this week. WHY NOT Bills and Daughters? Let's get on the wagon with NAACP. It costs money and lives to become really FREE indeed.

MOTHER'S DAY
CLINTON—Mother's Day was observed at the First Baptist Church, Sunday, May 10, with the pastor, the Rev. Johnnie L. White, in charge of service. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Women's Chorus.

On hand to welcome the many friends was Miss Prethedie Ezzell. During the evening service we were favored with an address by Mrs. Elnora J. Shields, a teacher at the Hargrove High School. Mrs. Shields spoke on "The Role of Women in Today's Changing World."

P. T. A. BANQUET
The Sampson High School P. T. A. held its annual banquet last Monday night in the school cafeteria. After the opening remarks by the president, Mr. Edward Faison, Mrs. Thomas gave a rundown of the accomplishments during the year. The N. F. A. quartet sang several selections, followed by an address by Rev. J. L. White, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The menu consisted of baked ham, golden glow salad, apple rings, potato chips, riz crackers, strawberry shortcake, with whipped cream and ice tea.

The Pleasant Grove High School also held its annual banquet last week with a very large group of parents and friends on hand to enjoy the food and the very timely address by Mrs. G. Barbee, health co-ordinator, North Carolina Department of Health, Chapel Hill. There were about 100 parents, teachers and friends on hand to enjoy the feast.

MOTHER'S DAY
The Andrew's Chapel Baptist Church observed Mother's Day on Sunday, May 10. Music was furnished by the Women's Chorus of the church. The main address was given by Miss Grace White, music teacher at the Pleasant Grove High School. The Rev. P. E. Green is the pastor.

IN THE CITY
In the city and worshipping at the First Baptist Church were Mrs. Nette Tyler, Miss Marion C. Tyler, Mr. Brooks Tyler, Jr., a teacher at Mary Potter High School, Oxford, and Mr. Roy Anderson, Jr., all of Oxford. This group composed "The Tyler Trio," of Oxford and Mr. Roy Anderson is known as "America's No. 1 Wheel Chair Artist."

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Perry of Durham were also in the city visiting Mrs. Perry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brewington, of Still Street.

Mr. James T. Sampson of Roxboro was in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sampson.

HENDERSON — Dedicatory services were held Sunday for the new Jubilee Hospital at 3 P. M. Hundreds of families following the program. Modern in every respect, the hospital was made possible through the cooperation of the Board of Missions of the United Presbyterian Church, the State Medical Care Commission, and the U. S. Public Health Service. Federal aid amounted to 50 per cent of the cost with the State giving 3.6 per cent, and the church the remainder.

Leaders of the community, the Presbyterian Church, and the Medical Care Commission participated in the program. Dr. James K. Leitch of the church presided. The Lord's Prayer was given by Rev. P. B. Burson, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, while the scripture was read by Dr. J. R. Dungee, pastor of the Reading United Presbyterian Church in Henderson.

Mayor Carroll V. Singleton extended greetings, while Mr. Williams of the Medical Care Commission presented the license, and keys to the building were presented by Williams, Moore and Weber, Raleigh architects who designed the building. These were accepted jointly by Dr. Leitch and Miss Betty A. Iebster, secretary of the educational and medical work of the church.

Mrs. Eva J. Adams, who has been superintendent of the Jubilee Hospital for 35 or 40 years, took part in the dedication. Dr. Leitch gave the prayer of dedication. Henderson Institute Glee Club sang the anthem, "Bless This House."

The principal address was given by Mrs. G. I. G. Shambaugh of Des Moines, Iowa, vice-president of the United Presbyterian Women's organization. Dr. Dungee gave the benediction.

Following the outdoor program, the portrait of Dr. Beckford and another of Mrs. Adams were unveiled in the hospital reception room. Mr. Arthur Poole presented the portrait of Dr. Beckford and Mrs. M. L. Poole that of Mrs. Adams. The portraits were made available through the subscriptions of citizens. Dr. Beckford has been surgeon and medical advisor for thirty years.

The building was decorated by designs given by business organizations. The new hospital will have thirty beds and contain a modern operating room, laboratory and other facilities. One of the city's oldest beauticians was one of the leaders in securing funds to purchase the portraits of the two pioneers of the hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Beckford will celebrate their wedding anniversary on April 27. One of our prominent deacons, member of the New Bethel Baptist Church, was funerals recently. Rev. Olanus Hicks officiated.

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER
Since Sunday, May 10th, is Mother's Day, Washington School wishes you to review these lines by Clara G. Cornell. Instead of picking just ONE day Each year for Mother's Day In which to tell her of my love, I take a different way I show my love the whole year through By helping her EACH day Before I hurry off to school, Or run outdoors to play. I dry the dishes, tidy up, And carpet-sweep the floor; And do a whole lot more, I help take care of Baby Ted.

And while I'm at these many tasks I'm happy as can be Because I'm letting Mother know She's very dear to me. The menu for Raleigh City schools for May 11-15 includes: Monday—fish croquettes, macaroni, cheese and eggs, buttered green peas, chilled or scalloped tomatoes, bananas, rolls, butter and milk. Tuesday—Pimento cheese sandwich, deviled egg sandwich, fresh greens, pickled beets, celery stick, butter, chocolate pudding and milk. Wednesday—Birthdays lunch, hamburger, vegetable soup, cole slaw, bun, margarine, cookies, milk and crackers. ANNUAL CAMPOREE
The annual camporee of the Cape Fear Area Council was held at Booker T. Washington High School, May 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

Troops were represented from Raeford, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Bladenboro, Clarkton, Whiteville and Hallsville.

The purpose of the camporee was to bring boys closer together and to examine their abilities in the various phases of Scouting. Such events as cooking, pitching tents, fire building, signaling, first aid, and tracking were carried out.

Awards were given to troops and patrols on the basis of speed and accuracy. Troop 677 of Clarkton won first place.

The thirteenth annual May Day Festivities were very picturesque and exemplified the real meaning of May Day.

The Grand March, led by Holly Shaw and Rosa B. Mathis, consisted of forty pupils from the Junior High School, under the direction of Mr. William Donaldson.

The Queen, Miss Juanita Brown of the 8th A Grade Section, wore a pink lace evening dress, carried a bouquet of live American beauty roses and a silver crown placed upon her wind-swept curls by Horace Smith, president of the Crown and Scepter Club.

The flower girls were the tiny Misses Wanda Jones and Julie McDowell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McDowell, respectively.

The crown bearer was Master James Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis of High Point.

The first number to honor the Queen was a Russian dance, "Alex Androvsky" presented by the 7th and 8th grade pupils. The girls wore the customary Russian peasant dress and the boys wore white pants, black leggings and tightly fitted jackets.

The 1st grades did a Navy Wedding; the 2nd grades, The Stars and Stripes Forever; 3rd grades, A Circus Parade; 4th grade, A Polka; 6th grade, a Spanish Cavallerie; 7th grade, Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer and Come Let Us Be Joyful; 8th grade, Winter Wonderland; 9th, Calisthenics; 10th, The Minuet; 11th, Tango; and 12th Winding of the Maypole. The master of ceremonies was Mr. J. R. DeVane.

The activities were enjoyed by young and old alike.

The Bladen County Drama Festival held its annual Drama Festival at the school on April 14.

The 4 high schools participating were Bladen Central, which presented "The High Window" and won third place; Spaulding Monroe, which tied with East Arcadia for second place for the presentation of "Retribution" and "The Running Tide," respectively; and Booker T. Washington, first place, for its presentation of "Triumph In Ashes."

The directors of the above productions were Miss H. M. Broadbent, Mrs. A. McCull, Mr. J. A. McAdams, and Mrs. C. A. Simmons, respectively.

NORTH END HOLDS FIRST MAY DAY EXERCISES
ROXBORO—North End Elementary School held its first May Day exercises on Friday, May 1st, since moving to its new location, in the school's auditorium. The setting was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and colors. The entire program was divided into three parts. It opened with a beautiful procession with May Queen and her attendants followed by a grand march by the student body.

Part II of the program featured dances by the various grade groups. These dances were American, some Latin American, and others of European countries.

Part III of the program presented the games. The Sack Race and Snatch and Run seemed to be the audience's delight.

The outdoor activities featured softball games between North End and the boys and girls of Woodland Elementary School.

Mr. E. H. Umstead, principal of North End, expressed gratitude to the many parents present, and welcomed them to return to other activities.

N. C. COLLEGE SPECIAL STUDENTS AT PERSON COUNTY HIGH
North Carolina College Special Students, under the direction of Miss Ruth H. Gillum, presented a concert in the Person County High School Gymnasium, here Sunday, to open a week of activities in observance of National Music Week.

This group was presented by the Person County Band Mothers and included Joseph Hitcherson, baritone; William Rogers, pianist; Nathaniel Jones, saxophonist; Michael Hinton, pianist; and Miss Gillum, accompanist.

Mr. C. D. Moten, Person County High School Band Director, thanked Miss Gillum and the Fine Arts Department of North Carolina College for helping in the opening of the Music Week activities.

"There's Magic In Music—Use It" is the theme this year for National Music Week, May 3-10, musical organizations of every kind will again engage in one of the unique movements in American cultural history.

Not an ordinary "drive," Music Week provides an opportunity for the organized musics' interests of the country and all music lovers to join together in emphasizing the pleasure to be derived from participation in musical activities of many different kinds and in many different ways. The general purpose of Music Week throughout the years has been to concentrate on musical activity for one special week, and by so doing, to gain so much benefit and inspiration from these seven days that music will continue to be a more meaningful experience throughout the remaining 51 weeks.

ROXBORO ELEMENTARY CROWNS "MOTHER OF THE YEAR"
The candidates of the Roxboro Elementary School P. T. A., who ran for the "Mother of the Year" were presented Tuesday night and much enthusiasm was created. BRUTAL MURDER-ROBBERY IN ROCKY MT.
ROCKY MOUNT — Perhaps the most savage or beastly murder and robbery to occur here for quite a while happened Friday morning, May 1, when Mrs. Lucy Lewis, age reported as "near eighty years" was brutally bludgeoned to death with a 3-foot pick handle in her home at 619 Shearin Street where she lived alone except for a few roomers she kept.

A commotion was heard in the home by neighbors who went to investigate and called police, who rushed the injured woman to the hospital where she died, according to a report issued by Police Chief J. I. Nichols.

Suspicion pointed to one Johnny Jones, a roomer in the home, who was apprehended upon the tip of a taxi operator. Following a prolonged questioning, Jones reportedly confessed to the attack upon the life of aged Mrs. Lewis and the robbery.

Jones allegedly stated that he had the pick handle to use as a "persuader" to obtain payment of an "unpaid debt," claiming he "needed money." Finding the almost helpless old lady alone in the kitchen, he proceeded to carry out his plan by beating her and taking the money, leaving as a neighbor entered. When the neighbor left to call officers, Jones, reportedly told police that he returned to finish the job, evidently realizing that should the victim remain alive she might identify him. Then it was that he discarded the bloody pick handle in the yard as he fled.

Police have not established the amount of the robbery, but $18.90 was found on Jones, Chief Nichols reported.
