

Officers Of Boys, Girls State Picked

Austin Washington of Durham and Dorothy Beard of Belmont were elected governors of Boys and Girls State respectively, at the annual meeting of the organizations held at Shaw University last week, June 21-26.

Although both Girl State and Boys State are auxiliaries of the American Legion, they function separately.

However, their annual meeting held at Shaw University last week were planned jointly.

The six-day meeting staged a program of speeches by prominent personalities, workshops, instruction in civics and government and recreation.

The purpose of the organizations is to train youth in the principles of government.

The constitution of the United States is used as a guide in this endeavor.

Representatives are sent to the annual meeting by schools and American Legion auxiliaries all over the state each year.

The representatives must be rising seniors in high school. They are also required to show courage, character, honesty and loyalty.

Mr. J. T. Ormond, of Salisbury, is director of Boys State and Mrs. Rosa Fox is director of Girls State.

Miss Maxine L. Ormond was in charge of recreation and physical education during the annual meeting.

The organizations have been functioning for over ten years.

The annual meetings are held at Shaw University each year.

received the money.

National American League president, J. B. Martin, informed Dove by letter recently also that he did not own the Indians, according to League standards.

Drummond says eleven members of the Indians took out warrants for Dove for salary from May 28 until the present. They also asked expense money back to Newark.

The team members appeared in City Court Friday morning and were informed that a civil case could not be tried in a criminal court. Justice of the Peace J. E. Marshburn has reportedly sent the case back to City Court for a July 15 trial date.

The Indians, meanwhile are due in Newark for games July 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

As yet the problem of who'll "foot the bill" for their transportation back home has not been decided.
