Miss Harrelson To NYC For Style Seminar

Miss Harrelson, owner of the Harrelson's Beauty Salon, is leaving for New York on July 14th to spend 3 weeks at an advanced Style Seminar at the famous Robert Fiance Hair Design Institute, one of the world's leading hair fashion centers. The subject matter will include the newest hair design trends, modern haircutting techniques, fashions in coiffure design, and styling for the individuality of the patron. Miss Harrelson plans to bring the most advanced hair fashions back to the Fuquay-Varina area as a result of this visit to New York.

Only experienced hairdressers are eligible to attend the Institute, a post-graduate hair styling center, which is under the personal direction of Robert Fiance, Mr. Fiance, a well-known author and lecturer in the beauty field, has also taught hair design at the University of Miami. Many of the country's leading hair designers and prize-winning coiffure stylists have studied with Mr. Fiance.

Miss Harrelson will be part of an international student body at the Institute, whose post-graduate students have included representatives from London, Paris, Vienna, Thailand, Trinidad, the Philippines, Union of South Africa, Australia, Israel, New Zealand, Hong Kong, Brazil, and Istanbul.

film asks two basic questions: Can our world ever become one of plenty? Is a world of plenty really work working for?
LIFE WITH JUNIOR: 15 min.—Delightful presentation of a typical day in the life of a ten-year-old. Problems such as acceptance of a new brother and refusal to eat are shown with emphasis on ways to cope with some of these everyday problems.

STANLEY FINDS LIVING-STONE: 28 minutes—Reconstructs events of November 10, 1871, as Henry Stanley, American reporter, finally locates David Livingstone, Scottish missionary-explorer in Africa, who has not been heard from for three years.

Race Relations In North

DURHAM — "Trends in Human Relations: The Southern Scene" is the theme of North Carolina College's Institute of Human Relations July 6-25.
NCC's Summer School and the New World Foundation are sponsoring the program. The Institute proposes to "provide summer school students and interested citizens with a description and analysis of human relations in the South. Special attention will be given to Negro-white relations."
Dr. Horace B. English, psychologist and author, will deliver a concluding address on July 25. His subject will be "Human Relations in National and World Perspective." The speaker is a former Rhodes Scholar and Fulbright lecturer in Pakistan.
