CARY-ASBURY ROUNDUP

BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON
CARY—Sunday School at Union Bethel AME Church was well attended last Sunday morning, especially by the youth. The morning worship services followed immediately. The pastor, the Rev. S. A. Hunter, delivered a stirring message, taking his text from St. Matthew's.
The subject of his sermon was "The Art of Giving." Among the visitors to the church services were Mrs. Mattie Williams of Raleigh; Mrs. Ross Lee Morrow and Mrs. Willie Williams of Buffalo, N. Y.

PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. Spence Thomas of 227 East Johnson Street had as their weekend guests Mrs. Cassie Price and children, Roseville, Mr. William Ray of Fuquay Springs, Mr. James Russell of Pennsylvania and Mr. Thaddeus Ray of Camden, N. J. The guests were all relatives of the family.
Mrs. Rosa Lee Morrow and children, Mrs. Willie Williams of Buffalo, N. Y. are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Beasley of West Grey Street.
The children of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, as well as the adults, enjoyed a picnic on Sunday last, at Chavis Park in Raleigh.

SICK AND SHUT-INS
Janie Pearl Trice is a patient in Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pate Trice.
Mrs. Nora Beckwith is doing nicely at home.
Deacon Horace Jones is now at home on Rildard Rd.
ASBURY—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bobbitt had as their house guest recently Mr. Eugene Bobbitt of New York, brother of Mr. Luther Bobbitt.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hooker and children and Mrs. Roxy Walker spent Sunday in Apex with Mr. and Mrs. W. Horton.
Mr. Leno Royster, Cary, visited Mr. Luther Bobbitt on Saturday.

CHURCH SERVICE
The Lincolnville AME Sunday School was well attended on Sunday morning. The superintendent, Mrs. Bessie Hall, is hoping to make this year one of the best.
SICK AND SHUT-INS
Miss Gloria Wright is now at home from the hospital. She is doing well.
Mr. Frank Coad is also at home.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"Thy way, O Lord, is too high for us to fully understand, but we know Thou lovest and carest for us. Thou art ready to supply our needs. Give us more strength and patience, more faith and trust in Thee, in Jesus' name."
OBERLIN BAPTIST—Sunday School opened at 9:45 with Supt. Sherman Lewis in charge. Morning worship started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music, directed by Mr. Ernest Massenburg. As the pastor, the Rev. Howard Cunningham, is on his vacation, the timely message was delivered by the Rev. A. J. Turner. He used as a theme, "Jesus Gives The Answer" and as his subject, "Young Men Seek Eternal Life."

WILLIAMS GROVE BAPTIST—Church School opened at 9:45 with Supt. William Davis, Sr. in charge. Morning services began at 11 o'clock with the junior choir in charge of music, directed by Miss Virginia Neal. The pastor, the Rev. B. H. Cross, is on vacation and the members and friends wish for him a very happy one. The inspiring sermon was delivered by the Rev. T. B. Smith.

FIRST BAPTIST—Sunday School opened at 9:30 with Supt. W. H. Taylor, Sr. presiding. Morning worship service opened at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music, directed by Mesdames M. T. James, E. M. Kelly and others. Scripture was read by the Rev. Isaac B. Horton from the 14th chapter of Joshua, beginning at the 5th verse. Morning prayer was given by the Rev. C. C. Jones. A very spiritual sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Charles W. Ward, from the Book of Joshua: "Give Me This Mountain."

Maple Temple Church News
BY MISS LENA M. EURE
On Sunday, July 19, morning worship service began at 11:00 at the Maple Temple Christian Church.
The Rev. C. C. Burnett, who is the assistant pastor, made the call to worship and the senior choir marched in singing, "We're Marching to Zion."
After the choir had taken its place, it sang, "Gloria Patri."
We were then led in prayer by Rev. Burnett, after which the choir chanted "The Lord's Prayer."
The first hymn of the morning sung by the choir was, "Am I A Soldier of the Cross?"
The scripture lesson was then read by Rev. Burnett, which was the entire 1st chapter of the general Epistle of James. Deacon Richardson then offered prayer.
The Mission Offering was lifted while the choir sang, "If Jesus Goes With Me." Deacon Holloway blessed the offering.
The announcements and notices of the week were given, followed by the introduction of the visitors.
The General Offering was lifted while the organist, Mr. William Moore, rendered selected numbers. The offering was consecrated with, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."
Before the asst. pastor began his sermon, the choir sang the beautiful spiritual, "Christ Is All." The theme of his sermon was "Deliver Us From Evil," which was taken from the 6th chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Matthew, centered around the 13th verse. In this chapter we are told how to pray and "The Lord's Prayer" is also found here.
The sermon was most timely and well-delivered. It was enjoyed by all present.
Immediately after the sermon, the choir sang as an invitational hymn, "Yield Not To Temptation."
The benediction and the doxology closed the service for the morning.

SICK AND SHUT-INS
Mr. Rozella Taylor, Mrs. Texana Robertson and Mrs. Dorothy Canady.
OUR THANKS TO REV. C. C. BURNETT
For the past two Sundays Rev. C. C. Burnett has been in charge of the services at Maple Temple Christian Church, while the Rev. M. F. Booker, pastor, has been vacationing. We certainly have enjoyed Rev. Burnett, and would like to take this opportunity to thank him for the splendid services performed.

St. Matthews AME Church News
BY MRS. BERTIE JONES
St. Matthews AME Church's Sunday School opened at 9 o'clock a. m. with Mr. Wm. Tate as superintendent. The Sunday School was well-attended. The morning worship began at 11 o'clock with Choir No. 1 in charge of music. Miss Ella Mae Giles of the organ. The service was well-attended with many visitors present. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. G. W. Troublefield, pastor, and prayer was offered by Brother Robert Dunmore.
The Rev. Troublefield chose his text from Acts, 5th chapter, 29th verse: "Then Peter and the other Apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than man." His theme was "Obedience." He preached a very powerful sermon as always. He stressed how we are more prone to obey man than God. Everyone enjoyed the sermon and the choir was at its best.
We have a special treat for Raleigh next Sunday. St. Matthews will have a dedication service at 11 o'clock. We will have a treat with Bishop Frank Madison Reid of the Western North Carolina A. M. E. Conference as guest speaker. Everyone is invited to join in this service. If you have not heard him, be sure to hear this dynamic speaker and if you have, you already know what it is in store for you.
