

Young Girls Swept To Deaths In Storm

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 18, NO. 44 SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1959 RALEIGH, N. C. PRICE 12c IN N. C.; ELSEWHERE 15c

Kids Pulled Down Four City Blocks

GREENSBORO — Two young colored girls were swept four blocks to their death Monday in a creek swollen by afternoon thunderstorms.

Guilford County Coroner E. E. Davis, Jr. ruled both drowned accidentally. He said the creek was running fast enough "to overturn a boat" because of the heavy rains which hit this area about 2 p. m. and continued through the afternoon.

The victims were Doris Jean

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 5)

"MY, WHAT A BIG NOSE YOU HAVE" — Six-year-old Kurt Woodlow gets his first look at two real live horses at an outing last week with 40 other city children at Staten Island, N. Y. The outing was sponsored by a New York City newspaper and the Community Councils of the City of New York. (UPI PHOTO.)

Williams' Sons Now NAACP Cases

Kill Cousin In Churchyard

'Booze-Runner' Flees Cargo

1,000 Baptist Women To Raleigh For Convention

At least a thousand persons will be expected at Shaw University on August 11-14, attending the Seventy-Fifth Annual Session (Diamond Jubilee) of the Women's Baptist Home and Foreign Mission Convention of North Carolina, auxiliary to the General Baptist State Convention, Inc. The theme for the occasion will be "Called - Commissioned - Kept" Isa 42: 6-7.

The various meetings and programs will be held on Shaw University's East Campus and the Tupper Memorial Baptist Church on Tuesday evening at 8:40 p. m. Dr. A. J. Ryans, pastor, Ebenezer Baptist Church, Charlotte, will deliver the annual convention sermon Wednesday morning at 10:30. Mrs. M. A. Home, president of the Convention will be featured in an address.

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, Miss Delores McGrier, president, Junior-Young People's Department will address her group during its session. Wednesday evening has been designated as Foreign Mission Night. A pageant "Planks" in the Program of Progress W. B. H. and F. M. Convention will be presented in Greenleaf Auditorium of Shaw University at 7:30 p. m. and Dr. M. L. Shepard, pastor, Mount Olivet Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa., will deliver a sermon at 8:45 p. m.

On Thursday morning at 10:10 the group will hear the Rev. John Fleming, Director of Christian Education, General Baptist Convention of North Carolina, Raleigh. His topic will be "Our Human Relations Today." Thursday evening is Shaw Night. The Rev. Thomas Kilgore, pastor, Friendship Baptist Church, New York City, will deliver a sermon at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Ellen S. Alston is executive-secretary of the convention.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

SPECIAL SECTION

The Promotions Department of the CAROLINIAN wishes to announce that beginning with this week's issue it is paying a salute to the farmers of North Carolina. It is also pleased to announce that a special feature on Laurinburg Institute is being run in connection with the salute. See pages 13, 14, 15 and 16. Watch for your county.

Ex-Union Prexy To Seek Aid

MONROE — Ousted NAACP leader Robert F. Williams, who recently lost an appeal for reinstatement in the organization, has a second appeal on the way. But this time it is not for reinstatement.

Williams wants the NAACP to intervene in the refusal of the Monroe City School Board to accept applications from his two sons, Robert F. Williams, Jr. and John C. Williams, for reassignment to white East Elementary School.

When notified of the Board's action, Williams announced that he would "appeal directly to the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News Brief

LT. AND MRS. BURROUGHS PARENTS

FRANKFURT, Germany — A 6-pound boy was born to Lt. and Mrs. Frederick D. Burroughs on Saturday, July 18, according to a report received from Mrs. Vivian T. Brown, of Raleigh, who was

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Argument Over Smokes Proves Fatal

GALAX, Va. — One youth was in jail and police sought another Monday for the knife slaying of their cousin during an argument over a pack of cigarettes and matches at a church picnic.

Joe Bryson, 18, of near Galax, was stabbed in the chest during the fight Sunday at Tolliver Chapel Church, about six miles south of here.

Officers said Bryson and his cousins, Willie and Lawrence Bryson, about the same age were arguing over ownership of some cigarettes and matches.

The victim and Lawrence Bryson were armed with switchblade knives, police said, and Willie Bryson had a paring knife.

Willie was treated for knife cuts and was jailed at Independence. Lawrence Bryson escaped.

Many Raps Follow Big Accident

RAEFORD — Two youths, one without a driver's license and the other with an expired license, were arrested on Sunday for their part in an accident here.

Thomas McCrae of Newark, N. J., and Lelan Stewart of Albany, Ga. were charged with speeding in excess of 75 miles per hour, reckless driving, larceny and willfully racing after being involved in an accident near here.

McCrae's car overturned after skidding sideways down a highway near here. Stewart's car hit a fire hydrant inside the city limits.

STRIDES TOWARD FREEDOM — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, left, and Nnamdi Azikiwe, premier of Eastern Nigeria, walk to the speakers' stand at the Polo Grounds, New York City, where a mass meeting was held recently. The mass meeting climaxed a series of meetings held during the NAACP's 50th anniversary. (UPI PHOTO.)

Accuse Four Plaintiffs In Palmetto Golf Case

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Four Negro men here were accused of acting "in a concerted effort" to harass and embarrass the city.

The men—John H. Cummings, John E. Chisholm, Robert Johnson and Benjamin Wright—asked on July 6 for a hearing before a three-judge

Federal Court in connection with their being barred from using the city's golf course last year.

They charged that they were denied use of the municipal golf

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Hide-Seek Escape Try Thwarted

WINSTON-SALEM — A 26-year-old felon tried to escape from the Forsyth County Prison Camp Thursday on the basis of playing hide-and-seek inside the compound with guards.

Allen Hayes of Greensboro, serving some 25 years for a number of convictions, including crime against nature and larceny, hid inside a building where asphalt is mixed at the camp while guards instituted an all-out search and the highway patrol broadcast an escape alert.

However, guard Reed George discovered him perched on a ledge near the ceiling of the building about 45 minutes after the search started. Hayes came down meekly at the guard's order.

George said this was Hayes'

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Say 'Crip' Watson Hauled 174 Qts. Of Illegal Booze

Some $346 worth of "Stump Hole" (white lightning) whiskey will be poured down the drain soon because William (Crip) Watson of the 1100 block of S. East St. couldn't run fast enough.

Driving a late model automobile, allegedly containing 174 quarts of the illegal booze, Watson was spotted by Officers T. T. Street and J. E. Day, both of whom knew him.

He is said to have taken off in his car and turned into East Street Avenue, near Chapin Park.

Watson reportedly jumped from the auto and started to run. However, after he had gone approximately 50 feet one of the officers called him by name. When he heard this, he stopped as he knew he was "in trouble."

WILLIAM (CRIP) WATSON faces 'booze' rap.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Five Dead After Two-Car Collison

MYRTLE BEACH, S. C. — Five Negroes were killed Sunday in a two-car collision near Myrtle Beach, bringing South Carolina's weekend violent death toll to at least 10.

The Highway Patrol identified the five killed on U. S. Highway 17, one and a half miles north of Myrtle Beach as Herkiah Erwin, 27, of Florence; Miss Jean Blanche Robinson, 19, of Florence; Mrs.

Elaine Wright Jones, 25, of Florence; Eugene G. Williams, 33, of Conway and Gurley Graham, 26, of Conway.

Patrolman C. M. Metts of Ocean Drive said three others were injured in the crash. The names of the injured and the extent of their injuries were not immediately available.

A 36-year-old Aiken man, Henry

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Youth Robs Mom, Given Four Years

GREENSBORO — A 17-year-old youth was sent to a correctional school Friday until he is 21 for breaking probation by stealing $6 from his mother's purse.

Moses Campbell of Guilford

County had received a five-year probation term, along with a younger brother, for stealing $28 in November from a post office contract station safe.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

New Housing Project To Rochester Heights

A housing project which will erect 77 three-bedroom brick homes for Negroes is underway in Raleigh. The project will provide homes for Negroes who have been forced out of condemned dwellings in the city.

According to Thomas Hildebrandt, vice president of Cameron-Brown Realty Co., the development will be located in Rochester Heights, off the Garner Road.

The homes, with an estimated selling price of $9,000, will be sold without down payments, he said, adding that monthly payments on the 40-year FHA loans will be about $58.

Persons forced to leave low-cost housing projects because of increased income will also be eligible for the homes.

Paved streets and city utilities and services have also been planned to enhance the development.

Laurinburg Will Host Three August Meetings

The State Baptist Sunday School Convention (75th Annual Session) and the State Baptist Training Union Convention (58th Annual Session) of the General Baptist State Convention will meet with the Solid Rock Baptist Church, Laurinburg, the Reverend C. J. Cooper, pastor, August 4-6.

"Fitting Christian Education Into the Total Church Program" is the general theme for all sessions. Through simultaneous clinics, forums, addresses, reports, and sermons the theme will be developed.

Ana Spaulding, president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Durham, will give the featured address. Professor C. C. Paschall of Kittrell will lead the Sunday School Clinics; Attorney J. A. Lassiter of Winston-Salem, the ETU Clinics; and Miss Miriam Hicks of Rocky Mount, the Vocation Bible School Clinic.

Messengers are expected to attend from churches throughout the state. E. M. Butler, Wilmington, is president of the Sunday School Convention. J. T. Hawkins, Durham, is president of the Baptist Training Union Convention.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Redevelopment Of Harlem's 125th Street Considered

NEW YORK, N. Y.—A proposed plan for the redevelopment of the 125th Street area of Harlem, including facilities for transportation, recreation, business, education, and housing, was outlined on July 21 at the New York University Graduate School of Public Administration and Social Service.

The plan is the result of a nine-month study conducted by students in the School's advanced urban planning design class taught by Robert C. Weinberg, adjunct professor of urban planning. It was formulated with the knowledge and cooperation of the District 10 (Harlem) Planning Board established by the Manhattan Borough President's Office.

Preliminary studies of the community's social, historical, and economic background were made by the students. The area, which runs from 123rd to 127th Street and from the Hudson to the East River, has a population of some 600.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PLAN SHRINE CONVENTION—Hard at work mapping plans for the 56th annual Imperial Council Session of Prince Hall Shriners in Los Angeles, Aug. 16-22, at the Embassy Auditorium are members of the convention committee, Nobles and Daughters of Los Angeles' Egyptian Temple No. 5 and Egyptian Court No. 5. Chairman of the group is Police Lieutenant Roscoe (Rocky) Washington (seated 2nd from left), who also is Imperial Assistant Chief Rabbi of the 15,000-member Shrine organization. Others seated are: Illustrious Potentate Kenneth S. Washington Sr. (seated center); Illustrious Commandress Imogene P. Clay; Imperial Deputy Of The Oasis Ann E. Powell; and Daughter Sallie Ann Wright of the publicity department. More than 5,000 visiting Nobles and Daughters from all over the U. S. are expected to attend the five-day Shriner's confab.