"Ooooh, daddy!
but you're so far away!"

not really... not when
LONG DISTANCE
spans the miles

Wonderful, isn't it, to hear that familiar voice coming in so clear? Like magic when you're young. Still a marvel when you're old. Yet such a simple thing to do. Why not visit someone by Long Distance right now? Remembers, it costs less to call station-to-station, and it's twice as fast to call by number.

An "Atoms at Work" mobile unit exhibit, sponsored by the United States Atomic Energy Commission, was displayed at Saint Augustine's College on July 22, 23.

The eight major topic areas included in the exhibit are: (1) Man and Energy; (2) Atomic Fuel; (3) Fission; (4) Nuclear Power Program; (5) Radio Isotopes in Medicine, Industry, and Agriculture; (6) Safety; (7) International Cooperation; and (8) Fusion.

Conducted tours of the exhibit were held for summer school students and high school students attending Saint Augustine's College's National Science Foundation Institute and local citizens.

P. A. Lamm, science educator from the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies explained details of the exhibit to students, teachers, and interested citizens. He described the program as "A Science Teacher Training Presentation."

Housekeeper At College Attends Meet

DURHAM — Mrs. Florabelle R. Hill, Executive Housekeeper at N. C. College at Durham, attended a special Building Service Supervisors Conference at Virginia State College July 15-18.

Consultants at the session were Conway M. Britton, Representative of the Hilyard Chemical Company, St. Joseph, Mo.; A. Watson Valentine, Advisor, Quality Inspector and Field Instructor of all Building Service for the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia.

Dr. William L. Watson, professor of Horticulture and Landscape Consultant on Campus Beautification, Virginia State College, Petersburg, Va.; E. A. Boykins, Construction Supervisor, Virginia State College; James T. Wadkins, Managing Director, Richmond Area Safety Council, Richmond, Virginia; and a representative of the Bartlett Tree Expert Company, Richmond, Virginia.

The purpose of the conference was to present information that would help them to become more efficient and economical in directing the care, operation and maintenance of the school plant. Emphasis was given to managerial aspects.
