CALLS FOR TAN GROUPS TO UNITE
LOS ANGELES, Calif.—A council which would unite all peoples of Afro-American descent has been called for by Gladstone Robinson, executive secretary of the Ethiopian Coptic Orthodox Mission, Inc. Robinson says all Negro organizations should put aside personal differences and unite. It is accepted that any task becomes less difficult when a concerted effort is made, he said.

DECLINE IN NEWSPAPERS IS REVEALED
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—The Negro Newspapers Directory just released by Lincoln University department of journalism reveals that the number of Negro newspapers decreased by 20 from 1958. The directory also shows a decrease in total circulation. This year's directory lists 152 newspapers with a total circulation of 1,801,497. The 1958 circulation was higher by 96,063. Of the total, three are dailies, 6 semi-weeklies and 143 weeklies.

ACT TO HALT HIRING OF NON-WHITES
PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (ANP)—Ford, General Motors, Studebaker and Volkswagen, the major automobile plants in the Union may be forced to stop hiring non-whites and instead reserve the job for white workers. The white trade unionists recently protested to the labor ministry that half the production workers in one plant are colored, while 40 percent are colored in another plant. The ministry has the power to designate areas for workers of a single race.

NIGERIAN WRITES FOR NEWSPAPER
LOS ANGELES, Calif.—The son of an African tribal chief has joined a newspaper staff here as a columnist. Omereho O. Eruteya, a student of the Graduate School at the University of Southern California, is using the theme, "Africa is the mother of civilization," in his new column which he began in the HERALD-DISPATCH last week.

WORLD HAPPENINGS
AMBASSADOR FLEES HOME
PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti—Cuba's Ambassador to Haiti fled back to his homeland last week after escaping assassination twice. Ambassador Rodriguez left the Cuban Embassy and five Haitians who had sought asylum there in care of the Mexican Embassy. It is alleged that Rodriguez was involved in conspiracy to crush the present Haitian government. The police found secret papers which disclosed the intentions of the Ambassador who had lived in Haiti for twenty years.

AFRICANS WIN SEATS IN THE LEGISLATURE
BLANTYRE, Nyasaland (ANP)—Two African members will be appointed to seats in the legislative council following nomination by Gov. Armitage. This will increase representation in the council from five to seven members.

DESEGREGATION HARMS SEPIA REGISTRATION
ATLANTA, Ga.—"The disturbed atmosphere in much of the South, created by resistance to school desegregation, clearly has retarded the normal growth of Negro suffrage." This declaration is contained in a report released this week by the Southern Regional Council, an interracial unit. "The Negro and the Ballot in the South," a full report of a survey of Negro registration, reveals that an estimated total of 1,303,827 Negroes were registered in the eleven southern states covered by the survey at the end of 1958. This figure shows an increase of 65,798 from the 1956 total.

HAITI ASKS BISHOP TO LEAVE AREA
PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti—Archbishop Francois Pourier has been asked to leave here because he and other French priests "have involved themselves in the internal politics" of the island republic. President Secretary Clement Bardot said he thinks the Vatican will relieve the 66-year-old, French-born head of the Catholic church in Haiti. The prelate is alleged to have supported factions opposed to Duvalier's regime. President Duvalier said the Vatican can end the rift between the Haitian government and the Roman Catholic Church by withdrawing the Archbishop.

S. African Women Still On Warpath
DURBAN (ANP)—Two hundred African women, protesting a government order restricting the influx of labor to Natal township and compulsory cattle-dipping, a health measure, threw stones at police when they marched to Campdown to tell their grievances to native affairs commissioners.

RACISM IS CONDEMNED
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—Integration is what every realist must admit is going to take place no matter how politicians plot and plan. Catholic Archbishop of Durban Rev. Enis E. Hurley said last week in sizing up the racial situation in South Africa. In the meantime, another Roman Catholic Bishop, the Most Rev. Donald R. Lamont of Southern Rhodesia, called for a renewed regard for "the natural dignity of every human person."

NEW ENVOY TO GHANA NAMED
WASHINGTON (ANP)—News reached Washington last week that William Marmon Quano Halm has been appointed Ghana's new ambassador-designate to the U. S. Halm, presently Ghana's ambassador to Israel, expects to take up his new post before the end of September. He replaces Ambassador Daniel A. Chapman who will take up a new assignment. Dr. Chapman was also UN delegate from Ghana.

John Jones & Son, Inc.
Has John Jones really slaved all of his life so his son could take over? Perhaps Mrs. Jones could throw some light on this question. Since he was a small boy, John Jones, Jr. has wanted to be a forest ranger. But his father has been so wrapped up in his own success that he has never asked his son what he wanted to do with his life. The fact that John should be free to make his own choice of a career has never entered his father's mind.

Have you ever used grape leaves in the home processing of cucumbers? If you have, do you know why you used them? Better color? Firmness? Taste? Or was the recipe handed down from grandmother or great-grandmother? Recent studies have indicated that grape leaves contain a natural which cause softening of the cucumber against the enzymes of the Muscadine family, a native American variety which originated in Tyrrell County, yielded the same inhibitor. It is obvious that the addition of highest concentration of the large quantities of grape leaves to commercial cucumber vats would be impractical. However, it may be that the inhibitor can be further identified and isolated so that higher concentrations could be easily obtained by synthetic methods. If this can be done it would prove to be of great value to the pickling industry and other industries where enzyme control is desirable.

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE
You drive your car along the hedge-bordered drive of the huge Peter Franklin estate and upon arriving at the beautiful mansion, you are directed by a frantic-looking maid to the private beach on the ocean. As you approach the beach, you see several men bringing in the body of a gray-haired man and lowering it gently to the sand. A young man comes up to you and introduces himself as Phil Edmonds, nephew of the dead man. "It's too horrible," he exclaims. "Uncle Pete must have wheeled himself right off the pier! He was partially paralyzed, you know—his legs. But he got around pretty well in his wheelchair. He had that floating pier built only a few months ago—supervised the whole job himself. He had it sit out there in his wheelchair and fish." You gaze out at the 30-foot pier extending from the shore, and just then an attractive looking young woman approaches and Phil introduces her as Tessie, his wife. "I saw it all," she tells you sobbingly. "But I was too far away to be of any help! I knew Uncle Pete was down here fishing and I had intended to join him. I was busy around the house when I happened to look down toward the beach and saw the tide was in. I started down the hill towards the beach and saw the tide had come over the pier. Uncle Pete must have fallen asleep while he was fishing—he often did. Anyway, I could see him trying desperately to wheel his chair in through the water. Evidently he couldn't see the edge of the pier under the water, because all of a sudden he toppled into the sea and disappeared! I felt so helpless. All I could do was scream, and finally some of our yard men came... but it was too late!" And Tessie breaks into a fresh fit of sobbing. "Where were you when this happened?" you ask Phil. "I was on my way home from town. I was just coming up the driveway when I saw the men running down towards the beach. When I saw what had happened, I phoned you." "Have you and your uncle always gotten along together well?" you ask. "Why, certainly," the young man exclaims. "He and I were always close friends. You don't think that I... why, I wasn't even at home... and besides..." "I don't know yet whether you are implicated, but I do know that your wife is," you say as you turn to the young woman who is now gazing at you with startled eyes. "There was a big, glaring flaw in her story." Why do you suspect that Peter Franklin was murdered?

Faculty-Staff Conference Planned At Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE—The Faculty-Staff Fall Conference at the Fayetteville State Teachers College has been set for September 27, according to a statement by the institution's president, Dr. Rudolph Jones. The activities will feature a calculated to stimulate thought on the basic issues of the colleges program for the ensuing school year. The theme for this year's conference is "Improving the College Atmosphere through Cooperative Effort."
