Olive Branch Club Of N. Y. In A Concert

WAKE FOREST — The Olive Hill Branch Club of New York City, an auxiliary to the Olive Baptist Church of Wake Forest, presented Contralto Anna Mae Gill Yarborough in concert last Sunday August 30 at 6 p.m. at the Olive Baptist Church. The Rev. S. L. Suits is pastor of the church. The singers' accompanist was Mrs. C. C. Mann.

A sum of $400 was raised for the church through the efforts of the club. Club President Freddie Lewis termed the en-the club project a tremendous success. The club prompted the project to spearhead the church pew rally of which Mr. Erwin Jeffreys is chairman and Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Hilare co-chairmen.

A large delegation came down from New York to attend the concert. A sumptuous repast was prepared by the home members.

The program included the following: "Lord Make Me Strong," Johnson; "Seek Ye the Lord," Lansing; "He Shall Feed His Flock," Handel; "O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings to Zion," Handel; "O Rest in the Lord," Mendelssohn; "Would God I Were the Tender Apple Blossom," Hinkson; "Sylvia," Speaks; "I've Lived and Lived," Edwards.

The last four numbers after intermissions were: "Go Down Moses," Ezri; "He's Got the Whole World in His Hand," Forrest; "Fix Me Jesus," Johnson; and "On My Journey," Lawrence.

Asthma and Hay Fever Relief Comes in Minutes . . . and Lasts For Hours

Tiny Tablet Now Available Without Prescription!

New York, N. Y. (Special) — Medical Science has developed a new, tiny tablet that not only stops asthma spasms, but brings relief to those who suffer from hay fever attacks.

Authoritative tests proved this remarkable compound brings relief in minutes — and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful spasms.

This fast-acting formula is prescribed by doctors for their private patients who suffer from asthma or hay fever. And now sufferers can obtain this formula — without prescription — in tiny, easy-to-take tablets called Primatens.

Primatens opens bronchial tubes, loosens mucous congestion, relieves nasal passages, helps dry up nasal passages. All this without taking painful injections and without the inconvenience of nebulizers.

The secret is — Primatens combines 3 medicines (in full prescription strength) found most effective in combination for asthma and hay fever distress.

So look forward to sleep at night and freedom from asthma or hay fever spasms . . . get Primatens, at any drugstore. Only 98¢ — money-back guarantee.

CARNATION COOKING HINTS
by Mary Blake
HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR AND HER STAFF

If you have lunch boxes to fill you'll be happy to know about my Indio Date Bars. These popular bar cookies pack so well, and because they're made with Carnation Evaporated Milk, they stay fresh and moist longer. Better make a double "batch" — they won't last long when the family finds out how delicious they are.

INDIO DATE BARS
(Makes 24 bars)

1/4 cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK	1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup (6 ounces) chopped dates	1 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup soft shortening	1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup sugar	1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg	1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Join Carnation into your mix. Stir over low heat about 2 minutes. Pour over dates. Let stand until cool. Beat the shortening, sugar, egg and vanilla together thoroughly. Add the Carnation-date mixture. Stir in sifted dry ingredients. Blend well. Add nuts. Spread in buttered 9-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Cool. Cut into 24, 1x2 1/2-inch bars. Roll in powdered sugar.

HOUSEHOLD SAFETY PRACTICES — There are approved working methods and safe procedures for using household equipment. It will keep these in mind when you go about your house work.

When you wash clothes, wear rubber-soled shoes if floors are damp when using electric laundry equipment.

Judge Green, Noted Jurist, Succumbs In Ill.

CHICAGO (ANP)—Judge Wendell Green, first Negro to sit on the Cook county circuit court bench, is dead at 72. In failing health for the past two years, Judge Green died Aug. 23 at his home of lung cancer.

A native of Topeka, Kans. Judge Green was graduated from the University of Kansas and University of Chicago, and held a degree in pharmaceutical chemistry and the L.L.B. degree.

He began practicing law on his birthday, Jan. 1, 1921, and in 1942, was elected to the Municipal court bench. He was re-elected in 1946, carrying the endorsement of the Chicago Bar association, who rated him "exceptionally qualified."

Judge Green began his career of public service when he was appointed assistant public defender in 1930. Five years later, he was appointed to the civil service commission.

Gov. Adlai Stevenson appointed him to the circuit court in 1950 to fill a vacancy, and he was re-elected in 1951 and 1957. In 1957, the bar association gave him the highest score of any sitting judge.

HEADS NATION'S DENTIST: Dr. H. Medley Proffitt of Heleas, Ark., widely known dentist and civic leader and son of a prominent Arkansas family, was elected president of the National Dental association at its recent 46th annual convention in Cincinnati. Dr. Proffitt is noted for upholding the finest traditions and tenets of his profession. (ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS PHOTO).

TEAMSTERS' ATTORNEY: Augustus G. Parker, prominent attorney of Cleveland, Ohio, upholds the labor policy of Jimmy Hoffa, president of the Teamsters' Union. Parker, first Negro lawyer to be retained by the union, points out that a National Fair Association resolution recently passed the union for its non-discriminatory activities in the South. COLLEGE, CAREER OR HOME... THOSE WHO SEW ARE FASHION-RIGHT her in competition with men, it also gave her a yearned-for freedom of choice in how she should look.

She found she could look clean and competent and still retain her individuality, femininity and stylishness. After that, there were no bounds to the "career girl wardrobes" that were designed especially for her.

Although they are ideal for the working girl, these two white-collar dresses pictured here — like hundreds of McCall's Patterns — are equally appealing to the housewife, mother, or matron.

The beige tweed dress (McCall's Printed Pattern No. 4912) has a large cape-like collar that can be made of the same material as well as the white pique. The collar is included in the front bodice seams and is interfaced with organdy. The skirt has three gores and a back pleat. The pattern also carries pieces for a four-gore flared skirt. Either skirt may be lined. The cap sleeves are cut in one with the back and side front bodice.

A practical dress for right now, it may be made in a printed silk or cotton, shantung, linen, crepe, polished cotton, surah or synthetic mixtures. The color or fabric of the collar may be left to the sewer's own imagination.

The black linen dress has a large, away-from-the-neck, notched collar (McCall's Printed Pattern No. 4919). It is fitted and has a front buttoned bodice and a slim, three-gore skirt. A flared four-gore skirt may also be made. The cap sleeves are made in one with the bodice. The collar is cut in one with the bodice fronts and may be faced with self or contrasting fabric, and is interfaced.

A real classic, this dress knows no season. The choice of fabric, whether wool or cotton, makes it adaptable for all climates.

Fashion — Sewing Weekly Tip: When pinning tissue to fabric, put the pins in along the lengthwise grain of the material around the pattern.

FAR-FLUNG COLLAR, caught into the bodice seams, forms wide neckline. With cap sleeves, the dress is conditioned for summer, a sophisticated way to take the heat. Made either all of one fabric or with a contrasting collar, it could easily be sewn in silk, linen, cotton or synthetic. McCall's Pattern #4912 in Misses' sizes 10-14. 65¢.

Having advanced from white-collars to careers, the working girl who's going places is now confident enough to have fun with her white collar.

No longer is she practically pledged to wear a simple black dress, day in and day out, trimmed only with a lick's stiff and unimaginative white collar. True, her wardrobe problems were all and she had only to worry about washing and starching the collars rightly. But how dull and frustrating it must have been.

Just as her new status emancipated her and placed
