Rush Memorial A. M. E. ZION Church News

BY MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE

Despite the downpour of rain last Sunday, we can truthfully boast of fine services. It was the 5th Sunday and again the junior choir and junior ushers were in charge, each displaying in a very fine way, his many talents.

After the call to worship at exactly 11 o'clock, the junior choir marched gracefully out of the choir room singing, "God Of Our Fathers." They knelt around the altar for the prayer of consecration. After the singing of the doxology, followed by the pastoral prayer and choral response, the 1st hymn, "God Moves In A Mysterious Way" was sung, lined by our pastor, the Reverend W. D. Carson. The responsive reading was for the 35th Sunday: "Family Religion."

Scripture lesson was then read by the pastor, from St. John, the 11th chapter, comprising 25 verses. The fervent prayer was also offered by Rev. Carson. Our 2nd hymn, "O For A Thousand Tongues" was sung while the congregation meditated devoutly.

The pastor then chose his text from the same scripture read: St. John, 11:21: "Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died." The minister began by saying that Martha's faith and belief in Jesus was unlimited. Martha's faith was like a bruised reed.

He then enlarged on the following points: 1, she believed that Jesus was coming, because she had asked for Him; 2, she believed He had the power to save; 3, she believed what Jesus had said; 4, she fell at His feet and caught the droppings of His word. This message was powerful and one that was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Our evening services are just as enjoyable and spiritual and we in-
