

CARY-ASBURY ROUNDUP

BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON

CARY — On last Saturday afternoon, August 23, Dr. E. L. Blake, pastor of St. James A. M. E. Church of Newark, N. J., was guest speaker at Union Bethel A. M. E. Church. Dr. Blake delivered in inspiring address on "A New Heaven and a New Earth." The text was taken from Revelations 21:1. Music was rendered by the Lincolnville Choir. Guests present represented Michigan, Newark, N. J., Durham, N. C., Pittsburg, and Lincolnville A. M. E. Church.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. Mt Zion Baptist Church gave a program in honor of the older persons in the community. The Rev. Cetta McNeil was guest speaker. The subject of her address was "Keep Driving and Go Forward." The Little Matthews Sisters furnished the music for the occasion.

All attendees received gifts from Mrs. Daisy Ferrell. The committee responsible for the program consisted of Mr. Frank Coad, chairman; Mrs. Mary Ferrell of the Christian Church; Mrs. Matthe Baugh of Mt. Zion Baptist Church; and Miss Mae N. Hopson of the A. M. E. Church.

PERSONALS
Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Blake returned to their home in New Jersey after visiting friends and relatives here. Mrs. Sylvia Bynum and Mrs. Jones, who accompanied them, also returned home.

Miss Arnetta Reaves has returned home to North Academy Street. She spent the summer with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Moore of Hartford.

Little Miss Ruby Lee Evans and Master Preston Green, Jr., of Creedmoor, N. C. were the weekend guests of their cousin, Little Miss Glory Jean Evans of Durham Road.

Mrs. Blondd P. Maye of New York is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pollard of 302 Ferrell Street.

Mrs. Clementine Rogers of Pennsylvania is the guest of Mrs. Nevada Woods of Walnut Street.

Mrs. Lucy Statton of Walker St. had for her summer guest, her granddaughter, Miss Josephine Chavis of Henderson, N. C. Miss Chavis returned home to attend school.

Mrs. Grace Jones of Durham was the Sunday guest of her mother, Mrs. Estell W. Burrell of North Academy Street.

ASBURY — The Rev. Mr. Kearney of Rhamkette was guest speaker at a program sponsored by guests No. 1, 2, 3. Among the guests to the program was the Rev. F. A. Melver. A sum of money was collected.

CORRECTIONS ON BIRTHDAYS
Those who celebrated their birthdays last week were: Mary Hooker, Aug. 27; and Armelia Vastia Bobbitt, Aug. 28; Wilbert Hooker, Aug. 30.

SICK
The sick in our community are doing well. Little Leonard Brown, who has been a patient in Duke Hospital, and Mrs. Covington are both improving.

THOUGHT
And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as hypocrites for they love to pray standing—Bible.

Roxboro News

BY J. C. GALBREATH

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR FORMER WOODLAND STUDENT
ROXBORO — Funeral services for Roosevelt Delano Hatchett, 16, were conducted at the River Zion Baptist Church last Wednesday at 2 p. m. The Rev. U. R. Booker, pastor of Jones Chapel Baptist Church, officiated. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

"Dillard" as he was called at Woodland, was born in Person County, March 5, 1941, a son of Malcolm and Sadie Tucker Hatchett. He received his education in the Person County Schools. He died instantly of injuries received in an auto accident on the Chub Lake-Coffo Road about 3:30 last Sunday afternoon.

ENTRE NOUS HOLDS LAST SUMMER MEETING
The Entre Nous Club held its last Summer meeting last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Sarah B. Galbreath at 117 School Street. Mrs. Galbreath and Mrs. M. U. Harris were hostesses to this meeting.

The Entre Nous Club's president, Mrs. Gertrude Clay, presided over the business session of the meeting after which the club members, their husbands, and friends were invited to the Galbreaths' lawn where they were entertained the rest of the evening. The group played Bingo and Pinochle and enjoyed the delicious Hors D'Oeuvres and drinks. Prizes won in the Bingo games went to Mrs. Ruth Tillman, Mrs. Gertrude Clay, Mrs. Wilma C. Bryant, and Mrs. Iris Baird.

Club members present and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Clay, Mr. and Mrs. J. Otis Hester, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Owens, Mrs. Iris Baird, Mrs. Nola Pointer, Mrs. Wilma Bryant, Mrs. Ruth Tillman, Mrs. M. U. Harris, and Mrs. Hilda F. Satterfield.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Seets, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. Dewey Clayton, Mrs. Zenobia Harris, and Mr. E. L. Leak.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Benjamin Hairston of Danville, Va.; Mrs. Myrtle Woody of South Boston, Va.; and Mrs. Freddie Harris and Miss Daffodil Farrington both of Washington, D. C.

MRS. LUCY LEE HAS HOUSE GUESTS
Mr. Bennie Moore, originally from Person County, and daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Moore of Winston-Salem spent a few days recently as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lee of South Main Street. Mr. Moore is now working in the Winston-Salem public library system, and his wife is Commercial Education Teacher at Caswell County School in Yanceyville.

Morning Star Baptist News

BY MRS. JESSIE DELOATCH

The Sunday School session at 11 a. m. opened the church activities at the Morning Star Baptist Church on Sunday last. The subject of the lesson was "A New Spirit For a Renewed People."

The regular worship services began at 12 with the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy." The sermon was delivered by the pastor, His subject was "A Double Portion of God's Gift."

At 1 p. m. the Baptist Teacher's Union convened. "The Bridges of God—Our Foreign Mission Board" was the topic discussed.

Night services followed the B. T. U. meeting. The singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" opened the services. The Rev. S. E. Spencer, pastor, delivered the sermon. His subject was "The Great Discipline."

Beaver Creek News

MRS. HIGGINS STREET
DIAL HU 4-0848

FAYETTEVILLE — The Rev. S. S. Maynor, pastor of the Beaver Creek A.M.E. Church, who has been on vacation, will return for fourth quarter, beginning Sept. 4.

The worship services on Sunday were conducted by the Rev. Sister Mary Morgan after the Sunday School session at 9:30 a. m. The Rev. Morgan was assisted by Sister Julia McKay and the Rev. Frank McLaughlin. The Gospel Chorus furnished the music, directed by Mrs. Essie Manuel, Mrs. Bessie Jones was accompanist at the piano.

The night services were sponsored by Mrs. Charlotte Manuel. The sermon was preached by the Rev. H. C. McMillian.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Lizzie Shaw of Burlington and family were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Jones of Mike Street in Bonnie Doon. Mrs. Shaw is the mother-in-law of Mr. Alfred Jones.

FUNERAL ATTENDANTS
Among those who attended the funeral of Miss Flora Jones were her sister-in-law and niece, Mrs. Margaret Jones and Mrs. Rosa L. Tate of Ambler, Pa.; Mrs. Maggie Siler and Mr. and Mrs. Miller McDougal of Durham; Mrs. Jennetta Jones of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Lillie Grant of Hemstead, N. Y.

Man Killed

CHICAGO — (AP) — Leroy Mosley, 30, was stabbed to death last Wednesday in a quarrel over the division of a watermelon.

Ligon Begins New Year, Fifty Teachers Report

"Let's strive for an even better year" were the closing remarks of H. E. Brown, beginning his third year as he greeted about 80 teachers to initiate the 1959-60 school year at J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School. Mr. Brown was preceded by Mr. J. C. Washington, president of the local PTA unit, who brought greetings from this organization.

Seven new teachers and two returning teachers, who were away in the past year, were welcomed to the first meeting for the present year.

Heading the list was Mrs. V. K. Newell. Mrs. Newell was on leave from the J. W. Ligon School last year to study at Chicago University in the academic year Institute for High School Teachers of mathematics teachers selected from 19 states to study at the University of Chicago.

As part of her study, Mrs. Newell selected an outline for a four-year course in Modern Mathematics at the J. W. Ligon High School and wrote a unit on Coordinate Geometry for the 10th Grade gifted student. This material included a teacher's manual and final examination. She plans to use some of this material at Ligon this year.

She stated, "the traditional curriculum in mathematics throughout the country is changing and it

Fayetteville Announces Faculty-Staff Additions

FAYETTEVILLE — Dr. Rudolph Jones, president of the Fayetteville State Teachers College, announced this week the names of 13 new faculty and staff members who have joined the faculty-staff group at the college here. These newcomers will bring to the campus broad training and wide experience in the business of teaching at the college level.

The list of instructors includes Dr. William B. Bradley, Rushville, Indiana, B. S. M. S., Ph.D., Indiana University, chairman, department of physical education; Dr. Elizabeth S. Bell, Durham, N. C., A. B., M. A., North Carolina College at Durham, Ph.D., Ohio State University, chairman, department of English; Charles A. Asbury, Concord, N. C., A. B., M. A., North Carolina College at Durham, who will teach psychology.

John C. Jones, New Bern, N. C., A. B., M. A., North Carolina College at Durham, who will teach history; William D. King, Parrott, Ga., A. B., Morehouse College, M. A., North Carolina College, who will teach geography; Page P. Saunders, Bluefield, Va., B. S.

Bluefield State College, M. S., West Virginia University, who will serve as teacher and as coach of basketball; and Herbert R. Doub, Philadelphia, Pa., A. B., Howard University, M. A., University of Pa., who will teach social science and coach football.

And to the staff has been added Thelma W. Hodges, Culver, Indiana, A. B., Howard University, graduate study, University of Chicago, Counselor, Harris Hall for Women; Alice C. Jones, New Jersey, B. S. C., North Carolina College at Durham, secretary to the president; Myrtle D. Pringle, Wadesboro, N. C., B. S., Agricultural and Technical College, faculty clerk-typist assigned to Dean's office; Annie L. Ray, clerk-typist, assigned to Dean of Women's office; Sanford, N. C., B. S., Fayetteville State Teachers College and to the library; Marea E. Singard, graduate study, North Carolina College at Durham, counselor, women's dormitory; and Geneva Murphy, Fayetteville, N. C., B. S., library science, North Carolina College at Durham, library assistant.

Davie St. Presbyterian Church

"Stepping Stones to Immortal Bodies" was the subject of the sermon given by Rev. Letha Debnam, guest minister, last Sunday, and it was based upon the text as found in I Peter, the 4th Chapter, and the 12th verse.

Rev. Debnam cleared up certain misconceptions about being a Christian, and they were (1) the church is a cure-all against our troubles and evils, and (2) the church is more than just another way of life. He mentioned that the weapons used by the devil to trouble us are: white lies to destroy us, ridicule to make us lose our equilibrium, temptation to bring about our downfall, and discouragement to defeat us. In spite of the weapons, Christians were urged to push on.

On the sick list of the church are: Mrs. Mable Griswold, 220 East Cabarrus Street; Miss Mattie Watts, 509 South Person Street; Mr. John Hicks, 402 Tucker Street; and Mrs. Marguerite Exum, 322 Cox Street.

In the September round-up campaign each member is urged to pay $5.00 over and above his annual pledge by the middle of September as the Presbytery meets at that time.

Members are urged to contact Mrs. Sadie Griffith by Thursday of each week to report news for the church bulletin. Any illnesses, births, and deaths should be reported to Mrs. Maude Smith.

Prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. All members and friends are urged to come.

Sarnoff And Dubinsky To Head Equal Opportunity Committee

NEW YORK — David Sarnoff, chairman of the Board of the Radio Corporation of America and David Dubinsky, president of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, have been appointed honorary co-chairmen of the Equal Opportunity Day Committee it was announced Monday.

Equal Opportunity Day is an annual event sponsored by the National Urban League and its 63 local affiliates on Nov. 19th, the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The purpose of the event is to focus national attention on the American ideal of equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, color, or creed.

More than 300 committees on business, labor, and the community will serve under Mr. Sarnoff and Mr. Dubinsky's leadership. Committee members include: George Baldanz, international president, United Textile Workers of America; J. A. Beirne, Communications Workers of America; Joseph L. Block, chairman, Inland Steel Co.; James R. Carey, president, International Union of Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers.

Also Arthur P. Clow, vice-president, Western Electric Company; Richard J. Coveney, vice-president, Arthur D. Little, Inc.; Donald W. Douglas, chairman of the Board, Douglas Aircraft Company, Inc.; Dr. Luther H. Foster, president, Tuskegee Institute; Harry D. Goetse, president, Brooklyn College; and Dr. Arthur D. Gray, president, Talladega College.

More Raleigh Personals

MRS. STARKS CAROLINIAN VISITOR
RALEIGH — Mrs. Betty Starks, Pittsburgh, Pa., matron, was a recent visitor to The CAROLINIAN while passing through Raleigh en route to Laurinburg, N. C.

MR. FRED HARRIS HOSTS GUESTS
Dr. and Mrs. Earl Sasser of Tennessee A and I University were house guests last week of Mrs. Sasser's father, Mr. Fred Harris of Lenoir Street. Mr. John (Jack) Harris, Mrs. Sasser's brother, motored down from Washington, D. C., to visit with his family before his sister and brother-in-law started their trek back to campus life for '59-'60 school term.

Dr. Sasser is a native of Goldsboro.

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED
Miss Mary Ann Jackson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jackson of Raleigh. Her engagement to Erwin Thomas Mitchell of Philadelphia, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mitchell of Raleigh, is announced by her parents. An early wedding has been planned.

WINS FIRST PLACE — Miss Shirley Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Smith of 744 Ellington Street, Raleigh, recently won first place in the annual oratorical contest during the Interdenominational Ushers' Association's convention. Her topic was: "I Speak for Democracy." Miss Smith is a student at Ligon High School and an active member of the Fayetteville St. Baptist Church.

Franklinton News

FRANKLINTON — Mrs. Emily J. Person has returned from Greensboro where she visited Mrs. Rosa Winchester.

Mrs. Catherine King Anderson and daughter have left for Washington, D. C. After spending the summer with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. A. W. King.

Mrs. Lydia Sidor of New Orleans spent a few days in Franklinton as guest of Mrs. A. W. King.

Mrs. Dorene Massenburg and children of Newark, N. J., have returned home after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver Harris.

Mrs. Mabel Wilder has returned from New York and N. J. where she spent her vacation with her daughter, brother and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner of Raleigh spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albritton, parents of Mrs. Turner.

Goldston News

GOLDSTON — Funeral services for Thomas Backster Reavis, 28, who died in a hospital at Arlington, Va. were held from the Union Grove A.M.E. Zion Church here August 29. Mr. Reavis was a native of Goldston, but having visiting relatives from Arlington, Va., he had gone back with them to stay a while and became ill while arriving and was immediately stricken.

He was a member of Mt. Hermon A.M.E. Zion Church here, a rushed to a hospital where he died, member of the Goldston Star Lodge, No. 688, F. and A. M., and the Great Hope Lodge, No. 213, K. of P. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Rosa Martin of Goldston, 3 grandchildren, Mrs. Bessie Martin Smith of Arlington, Va., Thomas Martin of Goldston, and George Martin of Arlington, and 5 great grandchildren.

Compliments Of
J. E. HOUSE
JEWELER AND WATCHMAKER
Box 247 Nashville, N. C.

Compliments Of
GULLEY'S
"Something Different"
Nashville, N. C.

Compliments Of
Bass Oil Co. & '66' Service
Complete Auto Repairs and Service
NASHVILLE, N. C.

Compliments Of
RALEY CHEVROLET-BUICK
INCORPORATED
Sales and Service
24-Hour Wrecker Service
NASHVILLE, N. C.

Compliments Of
WESTERN AUTO STORE
ASSOCIATE STORES
PHONE GL 9-3896 NASHVILLE, N. C.

Compliments Of
NASHVILLE DOLLAR STORE, INC.
"Always The Most For Your Dollar"
SHOES AND CLOTHING FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY
PHONE GL 9-5791

Compliments Of
3 POINTS SERVICE STATION
PHONE GL 9-3936
NASHVILLE, N. C.

Compliments Of
NASHVILLE DRUG 'N' COMPANY
★ Quality Drugs ★
NASHVILLE, N. C.

Compliments Of
WARD DRUG COMPANY
PRESCRIPTIONS A SPECIALTY
SERVICE ★ QUALITY
Phone 4311 Nashville, N. C.

Goldsboro News

BY J. H. GRAHAM

GOLDSBORO — We are very glad to report that Prof. H. R. McKeehan, who had been confined to his home due to illness, is much improved and expected to be in his office at Frink High School, attending to his duties as assistant principal on the opening day of school. Miss Dottie Frances, daughter of the H. R. McKeehan is doing nicely at home after undergoing surgery at Duke Hospital recently.

Mrs. Letha Bell of 809 Denmark Street has returned after having spent her vacation visiting relatives and friends in New York City and Baltimore, Maryland.

Miss Helen Hartley of 304 West Pine Street has completed an advanced course of Beauty Culture at Swindell's Beauty College in Wilson, where she received an advanced certificate in hair styling in its various phases.

Mrs. Mattie Peale and daughter, Miss Dorothy Peale, recently visited Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Williams of Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Williams is a brother of Mrs. H. Peale. He is dean of education at Tenn. A and I University. While in the city the Peales visited the college and also attended the summer school closing exercises. They spent ten days visiting in the city of Nashville.

Mrs. Albee Hogans and Mrs. Julia Spivey have returned after having spent the summer in Broadbeach, South Carolina.

Mrs. George Green has recently returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where he attended the Grand Lodge Convention, IBPOEW of W. Va. Mrs. Green also spent some time in New York City while away.

Miss Doris Suggs, daughter of Mr. Jack Suggs and the late Mrs. Little Suggs of Wash., D. C., was united in marriage to Willard Matthews, son of Mrs. Maggie Matthews and the late Mr. Willie Matthews of Route 4, Goldsboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Blue, Aug. 29, at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. "Ticky" Williams (nee Lucille Hargrove) formerly of Newport News, Va., spent their vacation visiting parents and friends in Newport News, Va., Newark, N. J., and New York City where they attended the closing session of the NAACP. Some of the schools after having entertained

First Church Of God News

Mrs. M. A. FORD, PASTOR
Mrs. Fayer White conducted her early morning prayer meeting to begin worship services Aug. 30, presided over the Sunday School Prof. H. L. Irons, assistant supt., which opened at 9:45. The lesson for the Bible Class was "A New Spirit For a Renewed People" (Joel).

Worship services began at 11 a. m. Rev. Mrs. Ford brought us a wonderful message on "The Wisdom of Winning Souls." The text was found in St. Matt. 10:16. "To win souls for Christ, one must be as wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove. Many people don't realize the true mission of the church. It's purpose is to: mend broken lives, rescue the perishing and lift up the fallen. Soul-winners must have: patience, sweetness in their souls. Christ had such a great compassion for man that he died to redeem him." Music for the services was furnished by the senior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Rowena Hunter. In spite of inclement weather we had a good number present in Sunday School and worship service. We always make our visitors welcome to worship with us and now extend an invitation to you to attend our services.

Church Notices: Mon., 8 p. m., P. E. A.; Tues., 7:30 p. m., junior choir rehearsal; Wed., 8 p. m., mid-week prayer service; Thurs., 7:30 p. m., missionary meeting.

Closing Thought: "O! give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever." Ps. 107:1.

J. PRICE HUNTER, REPORTER