

Henderson Wins Carolinian League Championship Game

Smithfield Club Bows At Raleigh

BY "SKINK" BROWNING
Director Thomas Hunt of the Henderson CAROLINIAN Clubbers used two pitchers in defeating the tough Smithfield Clubbers here Sunday, 4-1, for the Clubbers League Championship. The lanky stringbean hurler from Smithfield went all the way.
The lefty fireballer had the Henderson batters awed at the bat, but three costly errors by teammates spelled his doom. The little Henderson curveball artist held the Smithfield bats at bay for five innings. His strenuous efforts caused him to tire in the sixth and a replacement closed the deal.
Director - Coach "Buddy" Forte of Smithfield and Asst. Coach A. G. Murrell had all guns cocked for the tussle; but Director Hunt of Henderson would not be denied and directed his team in "Casey Stengel fashion" from the sidelines.
The game was a thriller from beginning to end. Smithfield loaded the bases in the last inning with nobody out, but the Henderson pitcher bore down and left the runners standing there.
Final score, Henderson 4, Smithfield 1.

California Bans Jordan

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—The California Athletic Commission has suspended Don Jordan, welterweight champion.
Clayton Frye, secretary of the commission, told reporters that Jordan was suspended for failure to take a physical examination.
Reportedly the champion was ordered twice to report for the examination and ignored the summons.
Originally scheduled to fight Art Aragon, Sept. 22, Jordan had the bout postponed until Oct. 27 largely because he felt physically unfit to fight on the earlier date.

Jack Dempsey serves as technical advisor for the staging of the fight sequences as well as trainer for Ben Gazzara, star of "Body and Soul".
Since his retirement from the ring, Joe Louis has often acted as a referee at boxing exhibitions.

Fayetteville's Freshman Wk. Has A Varied Menu

FAYETTEVILLE — With nearly three hundred freshmen and transfer students in the fold, a faculty-student committee, headed by Carolyn H. McDew, Dean of Women, exposed the newcomers to an ambitious round of activities said to lessen the difficulties incident to the student's transfer from high school to college.
These first-year students were drawn from several sections of the country and represent an assortment of interests.
The dormitories were formally opened on Tuesday, September 8 and from that point the students moved rapidly from tours, loyalty programs, registration, health check-ups, lectures, and placement examinations to the Thursday evening's introductory performance at which they were formally introduced to the faculty and staff and were told of college traditions.

President and Mrs. Rudolph Jones "at home" to the young collegians came on Friday evening and followed by a series of lectures and an off-campus picnic the next day. The exercises for the new students were concluded on Sunday with panel discussion and a tea.

It Pays To ADVERTISE

Grambling Coaches Search For Important Ingredients

GRAMBLING, La. (ANP)—Grambling college football coaches are looking for a couple of important ingredients after the first week of practice.

The main objective is to find enough guards and tackles out of a forewall of new faces to turn a question mark line into an exclamation point. The other problem in the unhappy defensive setup is finding high-level reserves quick and big enough to match starters in all-around ability.

Eddie Robinson and his staff are doing everything possible to stabilize unsettled conditions.
"We should do all right offensively," the drawing mentor said Saturday. "But we're hurting up front. Graduation and the scholastic axe just about cleared us out."
Robinson generally looks for clouds in the brightest of sunshine, and he has a reputation for bawling his downfall.
For a change, he seems both honest and accurate.

Here and there linemen have given evidence of fundamental qualities that promise well for the future, but the voids really ache.

Robinson has installed the Wing-T as a basic formation and the linemen working capital has not provided the kind of head's needed to break the seal on a new deck of cards.
As a result, hopes rest heavily on experimentation with tackles Joe Hall, 241; Junis Buchanna, 221; Robert Burton, 275; Jerald James, 250; Pleasant Matthews, 218; and Tommy Duncan, 255. The most promising element this week has Guard prospects are Garland Boyette, 192; Leon Simmons, 205; Clyde Washington, 210; Arleen Cullers, 220; Joe Autrey, 197; and Fred Collins, 202.

Compactly-constructed Rufus Harris, 195; Allendale Wilson, 218; Sid Franklin, 215; and Bobby Rabon, 208 are set to divide the backing duties.

Terror Gang:

Policemen Nab White Hoodlums

NEW ORLEANS — (ANP)—Two Negro policemen, Patrolman Oze Jeanjacques and Desk Sgt. Sidney Cotes, arrested six white hoodlums who had attempted to terrorize a Negro neighborhood, the St. Bernard housing project, by throwing rocks, bottles, etc., at Negro boys and girls whom they passed in their car.

The policemen, called to the scene by headquarters, searched the neighborhood and found the white lads in the car. They brought the youths back to their attack scene and a near riot ensued. Negro boys and girls wanted to get at the lads. The policemen prevented this violence and arrested one Negro girl as a leader.

The judge in Municipal Court the following day sentenced the lads to a $50 fine, ten days in jail and 60 days in lieu of payment of fine.
