FLIM-FLAMMED WAKE TEACHER TELLS COPS

IHE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 19, NO. 9 SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1959

PRICE 12e IN N. C.; ELSEWHERE 15e

MOTHER, 16, GETS 3-5 YEARS

Airoort Boycott Planned

Schoolmarm Victim: Seek Gun-Wielder

prehend Ralph Richardson, local pro-golfer, who is being hunted in connection with the shouting of his wife, Mrs. Helen Hairston Richardson, in a manner that has shocked this tobacco town

The bizarre killing is believed to have elimaxed a squabble that has gone on between the two for a long time and it happened Wednesday afternoon of last week in

Mrs. Richardson is said to have come in from the Carver Consolidated School, where she is employed in the elementary department, as a teacher. She is said to have been getting ready to accompany some of the members of her family on

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

71 Debs Are Seen « In City

BY MARCUS H. BOULWARE

In the spotlight for 60 brief seconds each, 71 young women from across the State, from Maryland and District of Columbia. were presented to Society last Friday night at the 22nd annual Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's Debutante Ball held in the Memorial Auditorium beginning at 9 p.m.

Wearing elegant white gowns, out with sophisticated simplicity yet billowing, the girls displaying bouquets of roses bowed into Society against a background of colonial ivy leaf setting.

TO NEGOTIATE INDEPENDENCE - These African leaders pose in front of the airliner that had just brought them to Le Bourget Airport, Paris, France last week from Dakar. They are in Paris to meet with President DeGaulle in order to negotiate the indepen-dence of their states, formed into the Federation of Mali. From left to right are: Mammadou Dia, Mobido Reita and Lepold Senghor all top officials in the African country's government.

Will Review Parker Lynch January 4

passed last month by the Pearl River county (Mississippi) grand jury, the Mack Parker lynching case will be reviewed by a federal grand jury at Biloxi January 4. The announcement was made by

U. S. District Judge Sidney Mize

here last week Farker, a 23-year-old Negro (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

PAGE 2 Horton's Cash Stors O. M. Clothing Company Capital Ice & Coal Company, Inc. Maus Piano Company PAGE 3 Pirestone Stores hress & Company Mechanics & Farmers Bank Rassign Funeral Rome Burison-Belk & Company Sauthern Bell Tel. & Tel. Company

Coloniai Stores, Inc. R. E. Quinn Farniture Company B. E. Quien Painture Company
Modern Finance Corp.
Acme Realty Company
Taylor Radio & TV Service
Standard Cinder Block Company
Mr. C. Karl Lichtman
PAGE 7
Efforts of Rafeigh
Umstend's Gree. & Transfer Co.
A. & P. Popol Stores

A & P Food Stores Seven-Up Bottling Company Branch Banking & Trust Company

Marker & Daughter Stores Sure-Fit Seat Cover Center Thompson-Lynch Company Ambassador Theatre Electrical Wholesators, Inc. Speedy-Wash Raleigh Scafood Company PAGE 9 Carolina Power & Light Co. Davie St. Com Laundromat Federal Acceptance Corp. L & W Tire Company Gem Watch Shop Gus Russos Cleaners & Hatters PAGE 19 Stephens Appliance Company, Inc. Deluxe Hotel Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company Caveness Insurance Agoney Warner Memorials Ridgeway Opticians Carolina Builders Corp. Watson's Seafood Company Fayetteville Street Bartist Church

PAGE 11 Cition Motors, Inc. Consolidated Credit Sanders Motor Comp Carolina Buick Com-Wake-U-Drive-1 Harris Barber College Reliable Loan Company Cooper's Barbecue

Joy's American Grill PAGE 12 Dunn's Esso Servicenter Hunt General Tire Company McLeod & Watson Clothing Stora Famous Bakery PAGE 13 Capital Coca-Cola Boitling Company

Odom Cut Rate Clothing Macon's Barber Shop Walker-Martin, Inc. Balcigh Savings & Loan Ass'n PAGE 18 Khokes Furniture, inc.

accused of raping a white waman, was dragged from his cell at the Fearl River county jail at Poplarville, Miss., April 25 and shot to death by a group of hooded men. His body was afterwards. His abductors were never apprehended. The case triggered a huge invesigation by the FBL who later submitted a 378 page report on their findings. The report was turned over to Gov. J. P. Coleman, who forwarded it to Pearl river county found in the river several days

officials. However, the Pearl river county grand jury ignored the report, closing its session without even considering the case.

Commenting on the case, Atterney General William P. Rogers. stated: "The harm in this case is

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

3 Palmetto Kids Burn To Death

GREENSVILLE, S. C. - Pere by ned to death three small child en and demolished their small ame home here on Monday. Dead are J. T. Downs, 5; Luis Downs, 8; and Mickey Downs, 8

According to reports, the fire started in a heater which the children's mother had ignited before going to a nearby bours

CONTINUES ON PAGE IS

Segregation Claimed As Strike Looms

litical swords into pruning hooks and our political spears into plow shear's" is to be staged at the Greenville Airport January 1 to protest a racial incident involving Jackie Robinson.

Mr. Hall is the chairman of the planning committee for the two ity and the Greenville Ministerial

The organizations are testing discrimination shown major league basebal player Jackie Robinson when he arrived at the airport earlier this year to attend a NAACP

Mr. Robinson told the 1,700 perons assembled at the rally that (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Woman Ex-Con Killed

SPARTANBURG, S. C .- A 36year-old woman fatally shot a 32vear-old woman recently released from prison for the fatal shooting of her husband in a Thanksgiving Day quarrel.

Dorothy Parker has been charged with the murder of Janette Young. The victim was shot at her apartment while standing on a walk way at the rear of it. Young was shot several times in her chest before staggering back to her apartment and falling dead on the kitchen floor.

Mrs. Young was arrested Nov. 4, 1958 for the pistol slaying of her husband, Johnny Young, in the same apartment. She was con-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CIVIL RIGHTS OFFICIALS CHAT WITH STUDENT NAACP BEADS-Left to right, Dr. Asa 7

Spaulding one of the advisers on the Civil Rights, who spoke at Shan University, November 23; Al-bort S. Sampson, a junior of Everett, Mess, who was recently elected state president of the State Youth

College Chapters of the NAACP; Albert Hockaday, a sonior of Weldon, president of the Student Council,

And Lobs Lane, a sophomore of Brooklyn, elected state weasurer of the NAACP.

DE. S. D. PROCTOR

10 Address NC Councils

Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, president of Virginia Union University, Richmond, will address the ninth annual convention of the North Carolina Association of Student Councils, December 10, at Hghland High School, Gastonia. Dr. Proctor will speak at the Thursday evening public meeting in the Highland auditorium on the theme, "The Impact of a Changing Society Upon Youth-A Challenge to the Student Council." Dr. Proctor has traveled in Europe, Palestine, India and Burma. He has also toured the Soviet Union and the Baltic States for the Baptist World Alliance, He widely known as a dynamic beaker and a leader of youth. Over five hundred students are expected to meet in Gastonia December 10-11. There will be sixteen discussions topics lead by competent siudent leaders and faculty consultants.

The five delegates who atended the National Association of Student Councils Convention in Pitisburgh will present their report in the form of a trial. The delegates from Booker T. Washington, Rocky Mount High School, will serve as plaintiffs. This report.

use different tactics and to p their trade upon a more intellicent group, according to police. due to the fact that they played a new trick upon one Thurmar Whitaker, a member of the faculty of the Garner Consolidated School who resides with his wife in Washington Terrace. Local officers report that Mr Whitaker was a victim of persons ellegedly unknown to him in a came of foul play, by which he lost the sum of $140.00. The victim is said to have been watched as he went to a local bank to get a check cashed and when once he had emerged from the bank he vas cásy prey

The "Con Men", as referred to in underworld talk, showed him how easy it was for them to talk together and even made the picture so bright until the erudite young man took them to his bosom and even into his car. It was there that they, two flim flammers and the

IOINS THEM TO "BEAT" THEM..."Besinik" detective Delms Watson, right, watches Miss Ginger Sherman, second from right, 23 and two unidentified men outside New York police beadquarters last week following narcetics raids on three West Side after hours "pads" earlier in the day. Watson, wearing an impressive red beard at the time, and accompanied by a "chick" policewomsa, gained the confidence of the "Beatniks" by hanging around Broadway salons. (UP Garner Teacher Prey For Women, Whiskey Trap they wanted some preity girls.

ome whiskey. Mr. Whitaker did ot say whether they had planned o use the other part of the trio-

One of the flim flammers dec ed that in order to properly ex cute the job of making love to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

wine, women and song or not, but Wake Forest Principal Dies Suddenly At Home

ROXBORO - Jacob A. Tillman, principal of the Dubois High School in Wake Forest, died suddenly Saturday morning at his Roxboro home, where he was spending his Thanksgiving holi-

Born in 1910, Tillman had been associated with the Wake Forest School for approximately 4 years.

it was ruled that death was due to a heart attack. Till-

Judge Sends Moin, 16. To Working's Prison

BY STAFF WRITER

ludge William Y. Bickett Intone he words Monday which meant that she must spend the next 3-5 years in prison for disposing of baby to conceal its birth. The Wake Superior Court judge pronounced sentence after hearing reports from officers delegated by Miss Patricia Alien. 16, heard the court to investigate the case Misa Allen, of Stem, Route 1, admitted in court that she had given birth to the lafant while visiting friends on Oberlin Rd. in the city. She claimed that she could see no signs of life in the haby and wrapped it in a plantic curtain and left it in a lot situated nearby.

The child's body was found the following day and an autopsy indicated that it had died of expo-

Bickett said Tuesday that investigation revealed that Miss Allen bad previously given birth to twins, illegitimately, and that the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Accident" Listed In Fatality

DEXEL, S. C.- An accidental discharge from a .22 caliber rifle killed a 41-year-old man here. Robert Floyd Wilkins of Dexel was shot through the heart Monday while scuffling with another man over the rifle, police reported. Adolphus Vano Johnson, 30, at hose home the shooting occurred. was trying to disarm Wilkins when

rifie went off, witnesses re-(CONTINUED ON PAGE 5)

tween 2:36 and 3 p.m. Satur

A native of Lancaster, S. C., M l'illman is survived by his wife Mrs. Ruth Jeffers Tillman; on child, Reginald Tillman, all of the home; two brothers, G. D. Tillman of Greensboro; and T. C Tillman, Greensboro; tirree sisters, Mrs. Tarba Brown, Car thage; Mrs. Mattle Carpenter Rutherfordton; and Mrs. Mary Funderburg, Lancaster, S. C.

Mr. Tillman graduated from Central High School in Philadelphia, Pa.; Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, with a B.S. degree in mathematics and received the M.S. degree at the University of Pennsylvania.

Seawell To Protest At Washington

Atty. Gen. Malcolm Seawell w go to Washington, D. C. to protes a ruling on Aid to Dependent Chi dren Funds. The new rule is said to be opposed to a law recentli passed by the North Carolina Lex

William L. Mitchell, head of th Social Security Division of the Department of Health, Education are Welfare, said last month that the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News

ATTORNEYS AFFEAL CASE RALEIGH-Attorneys for a State College student convicted of assaulting a Negro girl by asking her to join him in his car have appealed his case to Wake County Superior Court

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 1)