

Aggies Win CIAA Crown With 3-0 Victory Over NCC

Hard-Fought "Turkey Day" Game Attracts 8,000 Fans

GREENSBORO — A and T College, 14 point favorites over North Carolina College, scored on a 23 yard field goal with two minutes of playing time left in the contest to down the Eagles, 3-0 in the traditional Carolina Classic.

Eugene Cambridge, a sophomore from Miami, Fla., booted the pigskin through the uprights from the 23 yard line. That was the ball game.

More than 8,000 fans witnessed the contest, mainly one of bruising defense. Tremendous line play by both teams stopped scoring drives on three occasions.

The Aggies won their fifth CIAA title of the season, laying claim to their second successive CIAA championship. It was also the fourth straight title including football, basketball and baseball of last season.

North Carolina College blew two scoring opportunities in the first half, one at the one-foot line and the other at the 1 yard stripe.

New blood gushed into the Aggies at the start of the second half. They moved the ball down to the Eagles' five yard line to lose it on a fumble.

After stopping the Aggies in the first quarter, NCC marched from their own 33 yard line on down to the one foot mark where Paul Winslow was stopped shy of the end zone by the Aggies' tackle, Tommie Day.

With Nathan Cook, a junior from Winston-Salem, at the throttle, the Eagles again marched down to Aggie one where they were stopped on a fourth down situation when Clark Witherspoon, standing in the end zone, dropped a perfect chest high pass from Cook.

Statistically, the underdog Eagles outplayed the Aggies, racking up 14 first downs to the Aggies' 10. On the ground, NCC gained 161 yards while limiting the A and T attack to 69 yards.

A and T in winning their third straight traditional "Turkey Day" tilt over NCC, connected on 5 of 15 passes for 71 yards.

On the drive ending with the field goal capping their scoring, the Aggies gained possession of the ball when Tommie Day failed to take a pass right out of Witherspoon's hands, advancing the ball down to the Aggie nine.

NCC's defense rose to the occasion, setting the Aggies back to their fifteen when they caught Paul Swann, back to pass, and threw him for a 6 yard loss. On the third down the Eagles' defense again bucked to set the Aggies back to the 17. On 4th down, from an angle, with Swann holding, Cambridge booted the kick true from the 33.

Tempers flared at the end of the contest and fists and helmets flew from both sides of the field.

Standouts for the Aggies on defense were Thomas Sumlin, at guard and Day. Their main offensive threats were Cambridge and Lloyd Oakley.

A and T finished the season with an overall record of 6 and 2, while NCC closed out the season with a 4-4-1 mark.

The victory was a sweet one for Bert Piggott, who in three years as Aggie head coach had led the Aggies to two championships.

CAROLINA CLASSIC HERO — Eugene Cambridge, 29, A&T Aggie halfback gathers in a pass from Paul Swann for a 15 yard gain in the Aggie-North Carolina College game played at Greensboro on Thanksgiving Day. Cambridge was the hero in the game in kicking a field goal late in the fourth period to give the Aggies a 3-0 win and another CIAA championship.

A & T Opens Defense Of Cage Title In Greensboro Dec. 11

GREENSBORO — The A & T College Aggies will open the defense of the CIAA basketball crown against Elizabeth City State Teachers College at the Greensboro War Memorial Coliseum on Friday, December 11.

The game is not only the first for the two teams but is the first to be played in the new, four million dollar Coliseum opened a month ago. Game time has been set for 8:00 P. M.

Two other Aggie games, North Carolina College on January 23 and Winston-Salem Teachers College on February 20, are scheduled for the giant emporium.

The Teachers, one of the two teams in the conference to defeat the Aggies last season, will bring to the Coliseum one of the best quintets to play on the home floor. Paced by their high powered scoring ace, Marvin Trotman, who last year set a new CIAA record by pouring in 36 points, the Teachers are reportedly just as strong as last season.

The Aggies, coached by Calvin Irvin who brought the team from near obscurity to national prominence within four years, have two gaping holes to plug. Irvin is still looking for replacements for Joe Howell who broke all scoring records for the Aggies during his 4 years of play and for big Charlie Harrison, the rebounding ace.

Despite these losses, via graduation, Irvin feels that he will have a "better than average" ball club fight was due to racial bias.

The white coach, meanwhile, said his men were attacked. He said it began after his team tied the score with a touchdown and was trying for the extra point. The drive was stopped on the one-yard line and about four or five players from the opposing team attacked his men, he claimed.

Local authorities conducted a probe of the coaches and players involved.

Elvie Street, Jr., coach of the Negro team, said unfair officiating caused the trouble. It could have been averted, he added, if police had been assigned to patrol the game. He denied that the

Knoxville Bulldogs Whip Ala. A & M

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — The Knoxville College Bulldogs closed their football season with a 22-0 win over Alabama A & M College at Normal, to make their SIAC standing 4-2-0. Herbert Lucas, James Carter, and Frank Thompson broke away for long scoring runs.

Grabbing a 16-0 lead in the second quarter, the Bulldogs dominated the game the rest of the way. The Bulldog backfield did most of their damage right down the gut, driving through big holes to make first down after first down.

Lucas, halfback from Eustis, Fla., went 81 yards on a pass play from Tommy Robbins, a sophomore quarterback from Gadsden, Ala., for the first touchdown and Albert Lucas, a junior and twin to Herbert, racked up the conversion.

Carter, junior fullback from Eustis, picked off an Alabama pass and returned it 53 yards for another score. Thompson passed for the conversion. It was good and KC went into the second half leading A and M 16-0.

Changing their strategy in the second half, the Alabamans took to the air, but it was not effective. Thompson went 30 yards for the final touchdown of the game, in the third period, on a pitchout.

In the first half KC's defense pushed A and M back from 10 to 15 yards on every play. Ralph Ross, Donald Cunningham, George Pettigrew, and Curtis Hampton stood out on defense. Playing their last game for the Bulldogs were Ross, Cunningham, Pettigrew, Jimmy Smith, Rozzie Bush, and Melvin Harrison.

W. J. Trent, Jr. Heard By Bennett Audience

GREENSBORO — "Life would indeed be a wonderful experience if we did not have to make decisions," Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., of New York City, declared in his vesper message at Bennett College on last Sunday morning.

Executive director of the United Negro College Fund and a former Bennett teacher, Dr. Trent is the son of Dr. William J. Trent, Sr., president-emeritus of Livingstone College at Salisbury.

Speaking on "Commitments to What?" Dr. Trent stated that individuals and nations as well have to make commitments one way or the other—for good or bad.

our lives. Beside outside tensions that never seem to subside, there are constant struggles going on within ourselves. We must make choices but in order to do so, we must have a hierarchy of values against which to make them."

Church-related institutions, the speaker explained, are among the outside forces which seek to help individuals to make right choices. This contribution to society, he added, is one of the primary reasons why they should be supported and continued.

DRIVE
SAFELY !!

POINT FOR UPSET — Iowa State football stars Tom Watkins (left) and Dwight Ichols, who rank one-two in the nation in rushing, point to the team bulletin board Nov. 26th. The board is headed by a sign saying, "Oklahoma Can Be Had." (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Ernie Davis Of Syracuse Scores Thrice In Rout Of Boston Team

BOSTON—(ANP) — Ernie Davis, the stellar left halfback of the Syracuse University powerhouse football team, scored three touchdowns in his team's massacre of Boston University to the tune of 46-0.

Davis' scoring runs included a five-yard run, one-yard smash, and a fleet-footed 23-yard run in the second, third and fourth quarters.

Davis looked very much like a smaller edition of Jimmy Brown, slumming of Syracuse now sparking the Cleveland Browns. In fact, it was Jimmy who persuaded Davis to attend Syracuse.

FISTS FIRST — Heavyweights Billy Hunter (left) of Detroit, and Alex Mitoff, of Argentina, fighting poses after weighing-in ceremonies Nov. 27th. Hunter weighed 181½ and Mitoff 203½. Meet in a bout at Madison Square Garden, Nov. 27th. (UPI PHOTO).

Jackson Cage Season Open With Scholastics Tip-Off Tournament

JACKSON, Miss. — Basketball State Champions; Carthage Central, Mississippi Conference champions; Meridian, Leland, Natchez, teams-at-large; and Hill, defending Tip-Off champions.

In the opening round Meridian meets Gulfport, at 2 p. m., followed by Leland and Hill, 3:30 p. m.; Carthage and Clarksdale, 7:30 p. m. to register ten players, a student trainer and one coach. Players whose names appear on the eligibility list at time registration will be only players qualified to participate.

An expensive leg trophy, donated by the Jackson Coca Cola Company, will be presented to the winner. Each time a team is declared a tournament winner, their name is inscribed on the trophy. In order to retain permanent possession, the name of the school must appear three times on the award.

Providing the winner's name does not appear three times on the trophy, it is returned to the athletic department one week before the date of the next tournament or display purposes and for presentation to the next winner.

Soil Bank funds are available for planting trees on certain types of land.

Sepia, White Ball Players Brawl; Blame Favoritism

BALTIMORE (ANP) — Unfair playing was blamed as the cause of a fight between Negro and white players during a sandlot football game last week.

The fight erupted toward the end of a game between two teenage teams, one Negro and the other white. As a result, six players on the white CYO team, together were their coach and the white referee, were taken to hospitals, x-rayed, and treated and later released.

Local authorities conducted a probe of the coaches and players involved.

Elvie Street, Jr., coach of the Negro team, said unfair officiating caused the trouble. It could have been averted, he added, if police had been assigned to patrol the game. He denied that the

My Neighbors

KENTUCKY

STRAIGHT
BOURBON WHISKEY

CENTURY CLUB

$2.45 PT. $3.85 4/5 QT.

NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY, NEW YORK - 26 PR00F