

NEWS AND VIEWS

—BY—
J.B. HARRIS

MORE ACTION; LESS TALK NEEDED

ROCKY MOUNT — One of the greatest fruits of colored people is that of talking too much and doing far too little in the way of cooperating to remedy the evils of segregation and discrimination which beset us all over America—not just in the South alone.

In one session of the Atlantic City convention of the grand lodge of IBPOEW (Elks) last August, a chaplain was praying one of those longer-than-necessary prayers when the oldest man in the house spoke up and said in a low voice: "The Lord gets tired o' listening so much and seeing us do so little."

That man was venerable 90-year-old John Minkins, blonde Negro, who was first of an only colored man to serve as managing editor of a white daily newspaper in America, according to the report we've heard him give many times since meeting him in Atlanta, Ga., in 1953. Minkins died last month in his beloved Providence, Rhode Island. He was grand reporter of Eldkdom for many years.

We suspect Mr. Minkins was a-bout right about the Lord getting tired of hearing us "pry, judge, and solve" all of our problems and the world's problems around the barber and beauty shops, pool parlors, bridge tables and over the bars, to say nothing of in our churches and schools; then we fail to go out and REGISTER and VOTE to make these dreams come true.

Can't we get that distrust of each other out of our systems and organize something besides a poker club, crap game or dance? Something bigger than a fashion show so that we have some good jobs to earn money enough to BUY those pretty fashions which we snuff-off? What can a man or woman of our group with no job at all or just piece-of-a-job do about buying the latest clothes or cars or even as much-needed home—WITHOUT MONEY?? Let's put FIRST THINGS FIRST.

We buy more liquor, beer and wine percentage-wise, based on our low income than other racial groups; yet, we SAVE LESS and buy less real estate because we fear we'll leave something for someone else to enjoy. Even a dog will bury a bone for another day. Are we not of more value than calves?

It's too bad that segregation has conditioned most Negroes—so-called

ROXBORO NEWS

BY J. C. GALBREATH

WAKE FOREST PRINCIPAL FURNERIALIZED AT LAWSON CHAPEL CHURCH

ROXBORO — Celebrities from all over the state of North Carolina and some from South Carolina, gathered at Lawson Chapel Baptist Church last Monday afternoon to pay their last respects to Mr. Jacob A. Tillman, a resident of Roxboro and principal of DuBois High School of Wake Forest, Rev. J. W. Smith, Jr., pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Durham, delivered the Eulogy. Rev. U. R. Booker, pastor of Jones Chapel Church, presided over the service. Rev. A. H. George, of Johnson C. Smith University, read the scripture.

Others taking part in the program were Mrs. Girha Jeffers who sang a solo, and Mr. George Young, a long time friend of the Tillmans, who made some very touching remarks.

Mr. Tillman died suddenly Saturday morning at his Roxboro home, where he was spending his Thanksgiving holidays.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ruth Jeffers Tillman; his son, Remond Tillman; three sisters, Mrs. Tarbit Brown, Mrs. Carriage, Mrs. Mattie T. Carpenter of Rutherfordton, and Mrs. Mary T. Funderburke of Lancaster, S. C.; two brothers, Mr. G. D. Tillman of Greensboro and Mr. T. C. Tillman of Winston-Salem; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Fallbearers were the male members of the DuBois High School faculty: Honorary Fallbearers were the members of the Leader of Wake Lodge No. 285, Prince Hall F. and A. M. of N. C.; and the Floral Bearers were the female members of the DuBois High School faculty.

The body was laid to rest in the Lawson Chapel Church Cemetery.

COUPLE PLEDGES VOWS IN BAPTIST CHURCH RITUAL

The marriage of Miss Thelma E. T. T. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Louis Talley of Roxboro, to Anthony Jordan Binge, of Richmond, Va., son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Binge, Jr., took place Saturday, November 28, at 2 p. m. in Jones Chapel Baptist Church, Roxboro.

The Rev. U. R. Booker assisted by Rev. H. W. Wiley officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bouquet taffeta fashioned with a sweet heart neckline of chantilly lace embroidered in sequins and pearls. The bouffant skirt with lace appliques was intermission length in front. Unpressed pleats from back torso ended in a chapel train. Her four tiered veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of lace and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Miss Velma Colden of Portsmouth, Va. was maid of honor. She wore a silk organza dress in Dior blue made in intermission length with a barem hem. The pie-cut neckline and waist were applied in velveteen leaves. Her matching boucave was of velvet leaves with nose tip veil.

The other attendants were Mrs. Ernestine Talley, Mrs. Georgia Talley of Roxboro, Mrs. Hazel Wilson of Washington, D. C., Misses Rita Jane Binge of New York City, Ellen Lawrence of Roxboro, Mildred Darden of Wilson, Vivian Faribault of Hillsboro, Sara Patterson of Lenoir. They wore gowns fashioned similar to that of the maid of honor attendant in shrimp.

Tonya Talley of Washington was flower girl and Basil Talley of Roxboro, ringbearer.

James G. Hughes of Danville was best man. Ushers were Reginald Cumber, Robert James, Charlie McCarthy and Walter Manning of Richmond, Herman Smith, Andrew Talley, Brisbane Umstead of Roxboro and James R. Talley of Washington, D. C.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of dust blue and the groom's sister, Mrs. Bernetta Y. Plummer of Dior blue. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. H. W. Wiley organist and Mrs. Shirley Richardson, soloist.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. U. R. Booker. Hostesses were Mrs. Olivia C. Scott of Richmond and Mrs. Mabel C. Hughes of Danville, Mrs. Ruby T. Hester, sister of the bride of Roxboro, and Mrs. Ralph J. Plummer of Washington, D. C.

Registering guests were Mrs. Gwendolyn T. Smith, sister of the bride and Mrs. Katherine W. Lawson. Mrs. Lucille Talley and Mrs. Marjorie Albright were in charge of gifts.

Mrs. Marie Talley, sister-in-law of the bride of Washington and C. P. Chiles of Richmond, directed the wedding.

The bride, a graduate of Palmer Memorial Institute, Sedalia, N. C., and Winston-Salem Teachers College is a teacher in the Richmond Public School system. The groom, a graduate of West Virginia State College and The National Foundation of Funeral Service School of Embalming of Chicago, is a mortician with the R. C. Scott Funeral Home Inc. of Richmond.

The couple will be at home in Richmond, Va.

If you wish another to keep your secret, first keep it yourself.

Goldsboro

BY J. H. GRAHAM

GOLDSBORO — Mrs. Annie Hogans, a citizen of the city for many years, died last week in Rocky Mount at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Pittman. She was funeralized at the Holiness Church, East Elm Street, Wednesday, Dec. 2. She leaves to mourn her loss two daughters, Mrs. Theresa Pittman of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Robert Williams, Roanoke, Va.; three sons: Benj. Hogans, Roanoke, Va.; Thaddeus Hogans, Sr., N. J.; C. Martel Hogans, Washington, D. C.; 7 grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

Mr. Jacob Musgrave of 213 Alabama Street, died suddenly Saturday evening around 11:30 p. m. at his home, Mr. Musgrave was originally of Dudley, while he was rather a young lad his family moved to Goldsboro and remained here every since, where he has made his home. He served time in Army during World War Two as an M. P. and when the war ended he was honorably discharged.

He then went into the taxi cab business, continuing same until he was appointed city policeman, one of the first race office to be selected. He served in that capacity for ten years, after which he resigned and resumed his former business as taxi cab operator. He was a member of The Pride of The East Lodge No. 261, IBPOEW of W. American Legion and a very good church man. To know "Jake" as he was affectionately called by his friends, you loved him. He always had a smile or some sayings that would make you laugh and make your day brighter. A devoted husband and father, he leaves to mourn his loss his wife: Mrs. Bernice Musgrave of the home; his mother, Mrs. Rena Sykes, of the city; two sons, Jacob, Jr., and Benjie B. of the home; two daughters, Misses Mamie and Sharon B. of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Rosa Handy, Salt Lake City, Utah; Mrs. Helena Reid of Cheyenne, Wyo.; two brothers, Harold Musgrave, Goldsboro; Daniel Musgrave, Raleigh.

As we go to press, funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Mr. Will Henderson of 712 N. John Street continues very ill at his home. He is the father of Mrs. Margaret Brown of N. Center St. He was better known as "the shoe man." For many years he carried his sample case around for you to make your selection.

The "Pride of The East Lodge No. 261, IBPOEW of W. will observe their day of sorrow, Sunday, Dec. 13, at the Elks' Home, 312 S. James Street, at 5:45 p. m. You are invited to attend these memorial services with us. I am very sure you'll enjoy hearing the speaker and other parts of the program.

The Lions of Norway High School "salted away" a two-way win Friday night, defeating the junior and varsity teams of Douglas High School, Elm City.

The Barnes Business College presented to the public Sunday, Dec. 6, the Coronation of Miss Alumni of B.C. and a short skit, "Christmas Memories," at Leslie St. Community Center.

The choral group was students of the college, with Mr. J. D. Wright as accompanist. The B.C. alumni sponsored a queen's contest to raise money for scholarship fund. The following students were contestants: Mrs. Mamie R. Braswell, Misses Alysse Hoser, Eulcan Cogdell, and Helen Kornegay. Miss Kornegay was crowned queen.

The choral group sang a number of Christmas carols, which were very much enjoyed by the audience as well as other parts of the program. The welcome address and notices were given by Mrs. Dorothy Barnes, directress of the school.

Mr. Council Sherard of 1004 Olivia Lane is a patient at the Veteran's Hospital, Fayetteville. His many friends are wishing for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Janice McNeil was hostess to members of the Leaguers Club in her home on S. Leslie Street, Thursday, Dec. 3. Four rounds of pinocchle were played. 1st prize, Mrs. Dot Burton; 2nd prize, Mrs. Milas D. Kelly.

Members present: Mrs. Irene Jackson, Miss Mamie Hoskins, Miss M. Marie Stitt, Mrs. Ruby Inman, Mrs. Gladys Thornton, Mrs. Lillie Swann, Miss Teresa Middleton, Mrs. Bettie Joyner and Mrs. Margaret McKeithan.

Guests present were Mr. L. James, Atty. Earl Whitted and Mr. Earl Swann. A very delicious repast was served.

Jeffrey's School News

The Wake County PTA Council met with the Jeffrey's School PTA, Mr. Crews, the president, presided. The schools in the county were well represented.

Mrs. Harris, from the DuBois PTA was elected delegate for the district meeting in Roxboro. Mrs. P. M. Smith served as delegate from Jeffrey's School.

After a full evening of business the host school served refreshments to the group.

The Jeffrey's School November PTA had Dr. Robinson, from St. Augustine's College, as guest speaker. Dr. Robinson brought a very inspiring message on juvenile delinquency. Dr. Robinson was introduced by Mr. M. G. Batey, a graduate of West Virginia State College and The National Foundation of Funeral Service School of Embalming of Chicago, is a mortician with the R. C. Scott Funeral Home Inc. of Richmond.

The couple will be at home in Richmond, Va.

If you wish another to keep your secret, first keep it yourself.

The boys and girls in Mr. A. E.

CARY-ASBURY ROUNDUP

BY MISS MAE S. HOPSON

CARY — Regular services were held at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday with the pastor, Rev. Isaac Lee, delivering an impressive message. The young people's choir rendered music. Visitors are always welcome to these services.

A musical program was rendered Sunday afternoon at Union Bethel AME Church under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lucy Bell. Included on the program were the Methodist Chorus of Cary, the Gospel Five, and the Jubilee Singers of Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Reeves, 112 East Johnson Street, had as their holiday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Evans and children, Vomer and Frederick, Jr., all of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Young, of Lexington, N. C., with the week-end guests of Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ferrell, on 114 East Gray Street.

Mrs. Snowden Perry and little son Leon, have returned home from New York City where they spent the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne of East Park Street is recuperating after having been in an auto accident. Friends here are in sympathy with Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Ruth Evans Poole for the passing of their mother, Mrs. Edna Poole, whose funeral was held Sunday afternoon at Fayetteville Street Baptist Church in Raleigh.

ASBURY

Mrs. Annie Brown has returned to her home after spending two weeks in Newark, N. J., with her son, Leo, and friends.

Mrs. Sophronia Wright gave a surprise birthday party to her daughter, Carrie, Sunday afternoon. A number of friends were present.

Mrs. Roxey Walker attended the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Edna Poole, on Sunday.

Mrs. Truella Covington is doing nicely at this writing.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Diligent study brings success and prosperity.

METHOD NEWS

BY MISS DORA STROUD

CHURCHES

Christian Tabernacle

METHOD — Sunday morning at 11 Rev. Harvey Hayward held his regular monthly service at the above named church.

Those who attended the service enjoyed it. The choir rendered appropriate music for this season under the supervision of Mrs. W. R. Gaynor, pianist.

Oak City and St. James churches will hold mid-monthly services on each second Sunday.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE

The Missionary Circle of St. James AME Church will meet Sunday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Cora Haywood.

All members and friends are urgently requested to be present.

PRAYER SERVICE

On Wednesday night at Oak City Baptist Church, prayer service will be held. Miss Susan Wilcox is leader. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings and gain new strength.

LADIES COMMUNITY CLUB

On Thursday night, Dec. 3rd, Mrs. Enoch Scarborough and Mrs. James Manuel celebrated their birthdays at Mrs. Scarborough's home. A large number of club members were present; also Rev. and Mrs. Morgan. Mrs. Scarborough's sister-in-law and brother.

The party was one of the most elaborate events we have ever had. Every lady dined sumptuously on the banquet. Mrs. Manuel and Mrs. Scarborough received many handsome gifts for which they were very thankful.

CLUB'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

The club's Annual Christmas Party will be held Thursday night of this week at the home of Miss Dora D. Stroud. Each club member is expected to bring a visitor and a present for the visitor as well as one for the member whose name she drew. Let's make it an enjoyable affair. Dr. Grady Davis will address the ladies after the

Louisburg Happenings

BY MRS. ALVIN WILLIAMS

Church Activities

LOUISBURG — Services at the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church began Sunday morning, December 7, with Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. The superintendent, Mr. Mack Kearney, was in charge. Subject of the lesson, "Standing By A New Convert."

The lesson was reviewed by the superintendent.

On Sunday evening at 6 P.M. BTU was held with the president, Mr. David Long, presiding. Topics were discussed by members in the various groups.

The BTU director was in charge of a Bible quiz in which the youth participated. The quiz was a true and false test. The highest score of 90 was made by Miss Naomi Long; second highest score of 80 was made by Miss Marian Jean Brodie and Mr. Earvin Lee Jones.

A most powerful sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Brodie. Its theme was: "Reward for Faithful Service." His text was taken from Ecc. 9:10, and Rev. 22:12.

FUNERAL AND BURIAL

Mr. Roscoe Mason's funeral was conducted Dec. 3 at 2 p. m. at the Perry Chapel Baptist Church. The eulogy was by the Rev. S. R. Dunston. Mr. Mason was born in Lexington, Va. He established residence in Washington, D. C. He and his wife later established permanent residence in Franklin County. His wife was formerly Miss Frances B. Massenbury, a native of Franklin County.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Williams, Washington, D. C., have returned to their home after attending the funeral of Mr. Mason and visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Nancy Alston of East Orange, N. J., is visiting Mrs. Laura Alston.

Mrs. Mary W. Wilson, Mrs. Mary L. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fogg of the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church represented their Usher Board at an annual program held at the Red Bud Baptist Church, December 6, at 7:30 P.M.

Mrs. R. H. Foster, Jr. was honored with a birthday supper at her home on December 1. The following guests were present: Mrs. Otis L. Hatcher and son of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Junious Milon and daughter of Louisburg; Mr. Melvin McKnight, of Henderson.

The Seven Paths Community, which was the first place winner in the Franklin County Development project, was in the area contest which was held December 2. The group met at the Community Center. There Mr. Drive gave a brief summary of the origin and organization of the group. He also gave the accomplishments made. Community signs were put up, door steps improved, drive ways improved and closets built.

Homes that made these improvements were toured and the community signs were also toured. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams and Mrs. Sarah J. Jones of the Epson Community visited the occasion.

SICK AND SHUT-INS

Mr. Ollie Milon and Mr. Joel Alston We are hoping for them a speedy recovery.

Thompson School News

CECELIA SMITH, REPORTER

On December 3, the third and fourth graders taught by Mrs. L. G. Flagg, presented "The Nativity," as told in the second chapter of Luke.

The stage scenery and the costumes gave a very impressive background for the story.

Carols were sung by the group during their interpretation of the Birth of Jesus.

Students doing character parts were Thelma Perry as Mary, James Fairley, Joseph, Rosalind Jones, the Angel of Great News, Ernest Douglas, Vance Yates, Will Williams, Leo W. Jeffries and Michael Moses, shepherds, Carol Williams, Howard Snipes and Stephen Cooper, kings.

The Carolers were: Joan Benjamin, Sandra Holloway, Mildred McKinley, Betty Leach, Barbara

Rambling In Chatham

GOLDSTON — PETERSBORO — SILER CITY

PETERSBORO NOTES

BY GUYANNA HORTON

Church News

GOLDSTON — Five musical groups participated in a program held at the First Baptist Church in Petersburg Sunday night. The program was followed with a sermon by Rev. McDonald. The groups were: The Spiritual Five, Gospel Messengers, Travelettes of Siler City, the Centennial Choir of Bear Creek and the White Wing Choir of Petersburg.

CLINTON NEWS

BY H. M. JOHNSON

WITH THE WOMEN

CLINTON — The Andrew's Chapel Home Demonstration Club of Clinton will hold its monthly meeting, Tuesday night, December 15, at the club house, starting at 7:30 P. M. The meeting will climax with a social hour consisting of the Christmas dinner and a visit from St. Nick. The husbands are invited.

FRIENDLY GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Kennella Faison was hostess to the members of the Friendly Garden Club at her home on McKay St., Friday night. During the devotion Christmas carols were sung and a beautiful Christmas reading was given by Mrs. J. T. Stewart, after which the president presided. Plans were made to give 25 Christmas baskets to the shut-ins. During the social hour a turkey dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by all.

Christmas gifts were exchanged and a "merry time" was enjoyed by all. Members present were: Mesdames Irene Hill, Sabara Moore, Josie Moore, Katie Goodman, Addie Kirby, Hattie Fryer, Estelle Stewart, Estelle Chestnut, Mattie Boons, Sallie Boykins, Rev. Williams, Mamie Simmons, Thelma Parker, Rosie Brewington, Carrie Ray, Wixie Sampson, Rena Lewis, Myrtle Rich, Kennella Faison, Annie B. Sampson, Arietha Graham, Julia Mae Holmes, Hattie Matthis, Mabel Carter, Pauline Solice and Addie Johnson.

PERSONALS

The following people were in town last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cornelia Rich: Mrs. Mamie S. Holmes, Mr. Henry J. Beaman and Mr. Robert Pope, all of Bay Shore, Long Island, N. Y.; Mrs. Dorothy E. Nelson, Philadelphia, Pa.; Dr. Moses Ray, Tarboro; Mrs. Eliza Hicks, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. Willard Coxfield, and Samuel Coxfield of Pamlico, S. C.; Mr. Cesero Pugh of Dalton, Fla.; and Mr. Marshall Pugh, of Camden, S. C.

YMCA NEWS

The "Y" schedule of activities is now in full swing with many members active in various program features. All members who have not yet enrolled are invited to do so any day at the "Y".

Boys clubs of the YMCA distributed Thanksgiving Cheer Baskets to the less fortunate families during the past week.

Committee chairmen for the project were (1) Ligon Sr. Hi-Y, Lewis Hinton; (2) Oberlin Gra-Y, Chas. Andrews; (3) Lucille Hunter Gra-Y, Thomas Hilliard; (4) Vikings Social Club, William Robertson.

Harold Moses of Goldsboro, Marshall Ellis of Warrenton, Lewis Wilson of Elizabeth City, Leroy Wilson of Hobgood, Leon Powell of Cameron were dormitory guests of the "Y" during the past week while serving as marshalls at the Debutante Ball sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Physical Department

As a feature of the fall and winter activities the "Y" will enter three basketball teams in the City Recreation League. These teams include (1) Senior Team of young men 18-25; (2) Junior Team of boys 16-18; (3) Midget boys under 15. The senior and junior teams will later participate in the YMCA Sports of Greensboro during April.

A tennis tournament will be conducted at the "Y" November 30 and December 1. Boys may register with J. J. Madison of the physical department.

A basketball game has been scheduled for Saturday, December 9 between the Oberlin Gra-Y boys. Table tennis team representing the two clubs will also compete.

Smith, Brenda Martin, Norma Gales, Gill Flagg, Gloria Jeffries, Martha Stark, Constance Allen, Ella Smith, Mary McDaniel, Ruby Sanders, Mildred Banks, Annie Quillier and Dorothy Thompson.

PTA MEMBERSHIP BEYOND 100 PER CENT

The monthly meeting of the PTA was held December 1.

Mrs. Margaret Hinton, a very active civic worker in this community, was present. She brought to us many interesting and useful highlights of the Thirty-Second Annual Session of N. C. Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers held in Asheville.

Mrs. Hinton was introduced by Mrs. L. G. Flagg.

The PTA Membership campaign ends at this meeting with a report beyond 100 per cent. Mrs. C. S. Royster and her second graders reported 41 members.

This was the largest number of members reported by grades.

The second largest enrollment was 37 members reported by Mrs. S. L. Bryant and her sixth graders. Membership for the entire school totaled 245.

Each month the homeroom having the largest number of parents present at PTA wins the attendance banner. Mrs. Gloria Wilder's second and third graders received this honor during December.

Use extreme care in spelling pesticides.

CLINTON NEWS

Miss Marjorie Wilson spent the weekend in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wilson.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Cornelia Beaman Rich, age 102, died Sunday night, November 29, at the home of her brother, Mr. Samuel P. Beaman. She is survived by two brothers, Mr. Samuel P. Beaman and Mr. Howard Beaman of Clinton, several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held Wednesday, at 3 P. M. at the Lisbon Street Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. O. L. Bennett and the Rev. J. M. Holmes. Burial followed in the Sanhill Cemetery.

Mr. Henry J. Bethene, age 30, died Sunday, November 29 in Newbury, N. Y. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Grace Bethene, 2 sons, 2 daughters, 6 sisters and 5 brothers. Funeral services were held at the Andrews Chapel Baptist Church with the Rev. P. E. Green officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Little Miss Emerson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emerson of Route 3, Pittsboro.

Many students were home from college for the Thanksgiving holidays. Some were: Misses Louise Horton, Sonja Alston, Lucinda Rodgers, Mr. Clifton Headen, Henry H. Richardson, Calo Reeves, and Chopin Horton, A.&T. College, Greensboro; Misses Corene Tomer and Genevieve Alston, N.C. Durham; Misses Addie Sellers and Norma Farrow, Livingstone College, Salisbury.

Malanie Emerson celebrated her second birthday with a few friends on December 29. Her guests were Masters Joseph and Philly Goins, Stanley Lewter of Siler City, Misses Sharon Taylor, Willie Ann Patricia Eaves of Pittsboro. The children were accompanied by relatives: Mrs. Jessie Lee Goins, M. and Mrs. Fred Lewter, Mrs. Frances Taylor, Mr. I. E. Taylor, Sr. Mrs. Annie Aiston and Mrs. Pauline Eaves.

Miss Marjorie Wilson spent the weekend in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wilson.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Cornelia Beaman Rich, age 102, died Sunday night, November 29, at the home of her brother, Mr. Samuel P. Beaman. She is survived by two brothers, Mr. Samuel P. Beaman and Mr. Howard Beaman of Clinton, several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held Wednesday, at 3 P. M. at the Lisbon Street Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. O. L. Bennett and the Rev. J. M. Holmes. Burial followed in the Sanhill Cemetery.

Mr. Henry J. Bethene, age 30, died Sunday, November 29 in Newbury, N. Y. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Grace Bethene, 2 sons, 2 daughters, 6 sisters and 5 brothers. Funeral services were held at the Andrews Chapel Baptist Church with the Rev. P. E. Green officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Little Miss Emerson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emerson of Route 3, Pittsboro.

Many students were home from college for the Thanksgiving holidays. Some were: Misses Louise Horton, Sonja Alston, Lucinda Rodgers, Mr. Clifton Headen, Henry H. Richardson, Calo Reeves, and Chopin Horton, A.&T. College, Greensboro; Misses Corene Tomer and Genevieve Alston, N.C. Durham; Misses Addie Sellers and Norma Farrow, Livingstone College, Salisbury.

OLD TAYLOR

86 PROOF

THE OLD TAYLOR DISTILLERY CO., FRANKFORT & LOUISVILLE, KY.
DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY

ALLAN MIMS, INCORPORATED

FORD SALES and SERVICE

Telephone 2-2191
225 YANBORO ST.
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.