Nurse Jones, on her way home, stops to admire her youngest neighbor. "He's thriving on his Carnation formula," Mrs. Jones says. 8 out of 10 mothers who feed their babies a Carnation formula say, "My doctor recommended it."

Registered nurse tells why

Carnation is used in more hospital formula rooms throughout the world than any other brand

Altha Jones, registered nurse, supervises the nursery and formula room at a leading Chicago hospital. She and her husband Jesse Jones are active church and club members. At the hospital, Mrs. Jones helps train student nurses in the proper feeding of infants. "When you've seen as many healthy babies thriving on Carnation formulas as I have," Mrs. Jones points out, "it is easy to see why this brand of evaporated milk is the world's leader for infant feeding." No other form of milk is so safe, nourishing and digestible for baby's bottle as Carnation in the red and white can. It's the milk every doctor knows.

"Only Carnation can make a cream sauce smooth enough for my creamed chipped beef," Mrs. Jones declares. She and millions of others have made Carnation the world's leading brand of evaporated milk.

recipe:

Carnation creamed chipped beef

- (Makes 4 servings)
- 2 tablespoons butter
  - 2 tablespoons flour
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 1/2 cups (large can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
  - 1 1/2 cups (4 oz.) cut dried beef
  - 1/2 cup diced celery
  - 1/4 cup diced green pepper
  - 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
  - 2 chopped hard-cooked eggs

Blend butter, flour, salt and pepper together in saucepan over low heat till smooth. Gradually add undiluted Carnation. Continue stirring until thickened and smooth.

Brown rinsed and well-drained dried beef in iron skillet. Add celery, green pepper, pimiento, eggs and Carnation cream sauce. Serve over toast or well-drained cooked rice.
