REV. N. A. FORD, PASTOR The early morning prayer meeting began our services, Dec. 27. Sunday School opened at 9:45 with the Supt. Luther E. Perry officiating. "God, Our Help" was the lesson for the Bible class.

Worship service began at 11 a. m. Our pastor took her text from Rom. 8:35-39. "Look Backwards and Looking Forwards" was her subject. "Sometimes it helps us in looking back and consider the goodness of Almighty God, and His many blessings. This increases our courage and renews our determination to look forward and continue on with the Lord."

Among our visitors at morning worship: Mrs. Annie Belle Fincher, Mrs. Helen Fauett and her daughter, Miss Helen Lucille Fauett from New York City. Youth Fellowship met at 5 p. m. Miss Vivian Thomas presided in the absence of Miss Dianne White. We had an enjoyable discussion on tentative plans for the New Year. For our 7 p. m. worship service Deacon Perry read the lesson from Joshua, 1:5-9. "To Be Full of Courage." Music was furnished by the senior choir under the direction of...

Cary-Asbury Roundup

CARY—Now, we have celebrated the birth of the Christ Child here on earth, with our songs and gifts, we are now looking forward to the beginning of a New Year. Christmas plays were presented by the Church Schools in our community. The 53rd Chapter of Isaiah and the 3rd verse: "He is despised and rejected by men," was the scripture from which the pastor, Rev. Isaac Lee, delivered a great message Sunday. The speaker told of how man had allowed sin to come into his heart, and how the Savior came to earth to redeem man. He admonished those who had not received Christ Jesus, to open their hearts, and let Him in. Visitors: Mrs. Annie Bell Robinson, and sons of Burgaw, and Miss Viola Wright of the AME Church, Asbury.

The Good Will Social Club entertained with their Christmas Party at Clydes Place on Evans Rd., Wednesday evening. The repast was spiced Ham, Cream Potatoes, garden peas, pineapple salad, hot rolls, punch and cake. The table was beautifully decorated with tolly. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henderson, of Washington, D. C. and Mr. Calvin Satterfield of New York, N. Y. The new officers elected were: Mrs. Estelle Evans, president; Mrs. Jeannette Evans, secretary; Mrs. Devenese Patterson, Treasurer; social committee, Mrs. Annie Reeves, Mrs. Juanita Jones and Mrs. Ruth Evans.

PERSONALS They are all together at the C. A. Pollard home at 202 Ferrell St. Here for the holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pollard, Jr., and children of New Jersey; Mrs. Blondell Mays of New York, N. Y.; Mrs. Grace Ray and children of Greensboro and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ballentine and children of Rhenckville. It's his first Christmas here with his family in 20 years. Mr. David Turner of New York is really enjoying it. He is the brother of Mrs. Connie Reeves, and Mrs. Elsie Jones of East Johnston St. and Mrs. Mattie Williams of Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henderson of Washington, D. C., are here spending Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Emily Jones of 705 N. Academy Street. Mr. Harrie Woods of New York, N. Y., is the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Nevonia Woods of 301 Walnut St. Mrs. Magie Satterfield of Pleasant Road has as her holiday guests her son, Calvin Satterfield of New York, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Evans and children of Abokie are holiday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Evans, Senior of Evans Road.

CHURCH NOTICES AND ACTIVITIES Wednesday, 8 p. m., Mid-Week Prayer Service. We would like to extend Season's Greetings to all our readers and wish for them a happy and prosperous New Year. Closing thought: "And she shall bring forth a son, and then shall call His name Jesus; for He shall save His people from their sins."—St. Matt. 1:21. —E. Price Hunter, Reporter.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

Davie St. Presbyterian Church

"A God Honored Life" was the subject of the sermon during the Sunday morning worship at the Davie Street Presbyterian Church. Rev. D. N. Howard, Sr., is the guest minister. Basing his text on the story of Daniel in the Lion's Den, Rev. Howard urged members to let the life of Daniel be their guide. This includes: (1) Keeping one's public life above criticism, (2) keeping body in good physical condition and spiritually clean; and (3) serving the true and living God continually in prayer as Daniel always did.

WILSON TEMPLE METHODIST — Sunday School began at 9:45 with Supt. Nannie Morgan in charge. Regular services started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music. A wonderful sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. J. N. Leverette, from the Book of St. Matt., 1st chapter, 22nd verse: "The Mission of Jesus."

Ward: "The Savior of the World." A program was given by the B.T.U. of the church at 6:30 p. m. Sunday. The mistress of ceremonies was Miss Carolyn Bryant. It was enjoyed by all present.

RUSH MEMORIAL CHURCH

BY MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE Heavenly Father, as I begin a New Year, I place myself in Thy hands Guide me another year that whatever I do may carry me forward toward the goal Thou hast set before me in His name. Quite a few new faces turned out for the service Sunday morning, realizing that it was the last Sunday in this calendar year. Promptly at 11 a. m. the Senior Choir marched out of the choir room singing, "Marching to Zion." Immediately upon entering the Thou Great Jehovah," was sung followed by the pastoral prayer and choral response of "Saviour Hear Us We Pray". The 1st hymn, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah," was sung lined by our pastor, Rev. W. D. Carson. The responsive reading was for the 52nd Sunday: "The King of Glory." The Gloria Patria and Affirmation of Faith followed. Scripture lesson was then read by Rev. Kermit Degraffenreth from Ephesians, 6th chapter, comprising 10 verses. The prayer of inspiration was offered by Bro. Neil Saunders. Our 2nd hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord," was sung as the congregation reverently bowed. Rev. Carson then presented Rev. Degraffenreth, who brought an inspiring message. He chose his text from the same scripture read, Ephesians 6:10. "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might." Theme: "Spiritual strength for the New Year. The young minister began by saying that Christians need to grow more spiritually in the knowledge of Jesus Christ." He also enlarged on the following: 1st) The soul needs spiritual nourishment to grow; 2nd) The soul needs spiritual exercise to grow; 3rd) The Lord is my strength. This was indeed a fine message and showed signs of a very promising gospel minister. Certainly, Rev. Degraffenreth is to be commended for his wonderful service that he is rendering and we offer him every encouragement that is ours to give and pray God's richest blessings on him. Our thought for the week! To accept Christ means freedom from sin and hope of new life now and evermore.

Our Father, teach us the value of minutes and hours for this day, so that we may do worthwhile things, which will help others and lead them to Thee, and encourage them to the Christian way of life, in Christ's Name." WILLIAMS GROVE BAPTIST—Sunday School started at 9:45 with Supt. William Davis in charge. Morning services started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music. A very inspiring message was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. William Davis, Sr. Visitors were: Mrs. Elsie Potter of New York City, Mrs. Lannie H. Thompson and daughter, Miss E. Elaine Thompson of Washington, D. C., and Mr. William Hayes, Jr., also of Washington. YOUNG'S MISSIONARY TEMPLE CME—Church School began at 9:45 with Supt. Della R. Ford in charge. Regular services started at 11 o'clock with the senior choir in charge of music. A wonderful sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. J. N. Leverette, from the Book of St. Matt., 1st chapter, 22nd verse: "The Mission of Jesus."
