400 Fewer Applications For Employment Reported Here

The Raleigh Local Employment Office of the Employment Security Commission in the first quarter of 1960 had 400 fewer new applications for employment than in the first quarter of 1959, states Manager Lee Craven. Total new applications this year through March 31, 1960 was 2,239. Nonagricultural placements for the first three months, totaling 1,334, were 43 less than those for the same period last year; however, agricultural placements for that period, totaling 149, were 57 less than in 1959 for the same period.

The occupational breakdown of the nonagricultural placements for the month of March, which totaled 302, shows that 17 persons were placed in professional and managerial positions while 143 were placed in clerical and sales work. There were 21 persons placed with service establishments such as public eating places, hotels, garages, service stations, laundries, etc. In the skill breakdown, 46 persons were placed in skilled work, 109 in semiskilled work and 104 in unskilled work.

The breakdown by industry for these placements reveals 47 having been placed in contract construction, 133 in manufacturing with 17 of those being in apparel and related products, 16 in machinery other than electrical and 80 with electric machinery establishments and the other 20 in miscellaneous manufacturing plants.

Public utilities received 27 of these workers while wholesale and retail trade received 80. Finance, insurance and real estate firms were the recipients of 25.56 found work in private households and 74 in state and local government offices. This was in spite of the snows and inclement weather experienced in March this year.

The number of attitude and proficiency tests administered during the first quarter more than doubled the same period last year and totaled 951 at the end of March.

A quarterly comparison of unemployment insurance claims activity shows that initial intrastate claims for the first three months including the three counties of Wake, Franklin and Johnston, were 275 more than for the same period last year and totaled 3,595. Initial claims against other states were slightly less than for the same period last year and totaled 229 at the end of March. Continued intrastate claims were 1,240 more the first quarter this year than last year due largely to the above mentioned snows and bad weather.

Scout Camporee At Fort Bragg Is Jubilee Event

SCOUT CAMPOREE AT FORT BRAGG — Boy Scouts in the thousands converged on the giant military base at Fort Bragg last week for a three-day camporee which highlights Scouting's Golden Jubilee year in North Carolina.

They were from units in the Oconeechee Council, which has a membership of 15,000 Scouts and 6,000 leaders in 12 Central North Carolina counties.

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 1-3, these young Americans tested proficiency at crafts by which Scouts are known. Throughout the three-day period, they were "roughing it" in the truest sense of the phrase.

Early arrivals pitched camp Friday afternoon. Troop campfires lighted up the reservation Friday night. Taps at 10 o'clock signalled the end of the first day's activities and reveille early Saturday ushered in a full day's activities.

Rehearsals began at 10 o'clock from competitive events in a wide range of Scouting crafts. District

Brother Of Pugilist Eddie Machen Is Arrested On Charge Of Murder

PORTLAND, Ore. (ANP) — Police here last week said that boxer Eddie Machen's brother, Paul, and a companion blamed racial troubles in the South and in Africa for allegedly beating a 44-year-old white man to death Sunday.

Police lieutenant William Hoff said "there was no sense to it. They didn't even know the man."

The man was Edward J. St. George, who died of a fractured skull in a local hospital after being found in a pool of blood in the warehouse district here.

Hoff said that young Machen, a 21-year-old boxer, and Charles Patterson, Jr., also 21, told him "they had been reading about South Africa and the troubles in the South and just went out to do something about it."

Hoff also said the two had been drinking.

Eddie Machen said at the police bureau Monday afternoon: "I think it sounds worse than it is. My brother's young and good natured. He doesn't have any chip on his shoulder. I don't think he's the kind of a guy who would do a thing like that."

Woolworth Picketed By AJC

NEW YORK — Forty officers and members of the American Jewish Congress picketed the F. W. Woolworth store at Fifth Avenue and 39th Street last Wednesday in a demonstration protesting lunch counter segregation in the South.

The Rev. Dr. Joachim Prinz, national president of the American Jewish Congress, led the picketing from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m.

The demonstrators marched with placards expressing support of Negro students fighting racial segregation in the South and calling on Woolworth to permit Negroes to be served equally with whites in the company's Southern stores. One placard quoted Chapter 33, Verse 1, of Psalms from the Old Testament:

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to sit together—in unity."

Another cited the prophet, Malachi: "Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us?" (Chapter 2, Verse 10).

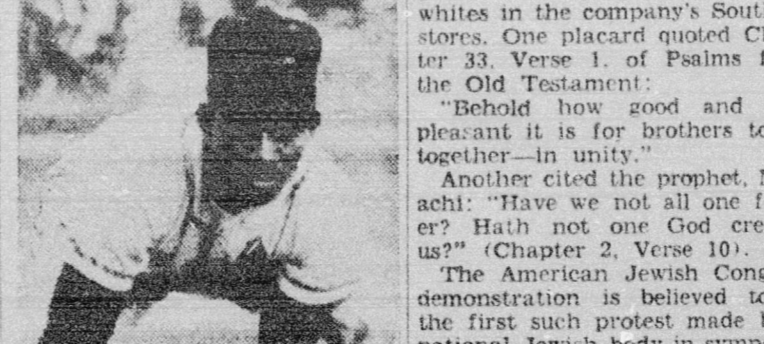

The American Jewish Congress demonstration is believed to be the first such protest made by a national Jewish body in sympathy with the Negro sitdown movement in the South.

Ligon's Little Blues, State Champs In Baseball, Whip Mary Potter, 5-0

Ligon 3rd Baseman Right-hander Isaac Williamson sold the visiting Mary Potter Rams to two scratch singles as Pete Williams' defending state champions, the Little Blues of Ligon High School, took their opening game on a neatly pitched 5-0 shut-out last week.

The victory may have been a costly one for the Blues because they might have lost the services of slugger third baseman Thomas Bennett. Bennett injured his ankle on a steal of second base in the third inning. Although he finished the game and made some crucial lays it was disclosed later that the left ankle was sprained and he could not be able to take part in the next game.
