BLACK PANTHER CHIEF ESCORTED BY HIS BODYGUARD - OAKLAND, Calif.: Black Panther chief Huey Newton (R) is escorted by his bodyguard Robert Bay (L) as they arrive at court for Newton's third manslaughter trial. Newton's attorney Charles Garry demanded that judge be disqualified because he is prejudiced. Newton also charged that all 25 judges in Alameda County should be disqualified because a local organization has been putting pressure on the courts against lenient sentences. The question of whether a new judge should be named must be decided before the trial could start. (UPI)

Survey Shows Black Voters Here Slightly Favored The Bond Issue

Black voters here in the city who turned out to vote in the $43.3 million bond issue were slightly in favor of the four bond issues which passed here Tuesday by margins ranging from 2,000 to 4,000 votes. In the six predominately black precincts, the voters were in favor of the issues by a very slim margin. Of the six polling places, only precinct 22, Fire Station Number 3 completely defeated all four proposals of the bond issue. In the other precincts, the voters passed on some of the issues while defeating still others.

The vote Tuesday climaxed mixed emotions in the Black community concerning the bond issue. Ed Carson, president of the Raleigh Citizens Association, was openly opposed to the passing of the bond issue. However, RCA went on record Monday night as endorsing the bond issue.

The city voters passed all four phases of the bond issue Tuesday. For the $2.5 million park bonds, the votes casted 7,655 votes for it and 5,489 votes against it. The $5 million street bond division was passed by a 7,850-5,255 margin.

Voters passed the $23.4 million sewer bond issue by almost two to one. The vote was 8,876 votes for and 4,495 votes against while the $12.4 million water bonds passed by a slight margin, 8,742 to 4,574.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column or feature is produced in the public interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numerous individuals have requested that they be given the consideration of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do. However, it is not our position to be judge or jury as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of the Crime Beat columns, merely means not being registered by a police officer. In reporting his findings while on duty, he simply keep off the "blotter" and you won't be in the Crime Beat.
