paper 171 Dibrory Suffing 7. pt. b. . Bex 1736 Let sville 1, Ky. 40201

Unarmed, Would-Be Robber Victim As . Raleigh Grocer Kills Man, 25, In Robbery Attempt 公公公公 公公公公 2727273  公公公公

James Goodson Shoots Man Who Made Threat

James T. Goodson, owner and operator of Goodson's Grocery, 700 S. Bloodworth Street, shot and killed a would-be robber last Saturday. At an inquest, held Monday, no probable cause was found against the grocer.

The victim was 25-year-old pocket and it-looked like he had William Lee Faison, 823 something pointed at me. I S. Bloodworth Street, who re- stepped back, pulled a gun from portedly entered the store and my front pocket and shot him," attempted to rob the owner by stated Goodson.

saying, "I come after your damn Goodson told the officers that money." He was pronounced he fired another shot as the man dead of a single .38 calibre fled out of the front door. "I pistol gunshot would in the chest then called the police and someat Wake Memorial Hospital. Ac- one said he had fallen outside. cording to police statements, When the police came, I went outside and saw that it was the Faison was unarmed.

Mr. Goodson told investigating same man," he concluded. detectives that Faison walked Although Mr. Goodson's wife into the store about 12:19 p.m. and daughter were in the store "as I was pushing a basket of at the time, both said they heard the shooting, but did not see Mr. groceries to the counter. 'His right hand was in his

(See GROCER KILLS, P. 2)

SCENE OF GROCERY STORE KILLING - Shown above is Goodson's Grocery, owned and operated by James T. Goodson, who shot and killed 25-year-old William Lee Falson last Saturday afternoon. The store is located at 700 S. Bloodworth Street. Faison lived at 823 S. Bloodworth, (Staff Photo).

State's Oldest Funeral Director Is Given Rites

DURHAM - The sage of Pettigrew Street, a man who endeared himself into the hearts of everyone he met daily, by saying, "I am well and happy, loving everybody, especially the women," who started in business in 1907 and built one of the biggest Black businesses

Two Men Curse And Threaten In Church Says Pair Cursed. DrewKnife

BY STAFF WRITER A pair of young Raleigh men, whom the minister of a small church here said desecrated his church by cursing and one threatened both himself and the congregation with a knife, were arrested here Friday night and charged with interruption of church services. Jailed were Charles Jones, 24, 218 Heck Street; and James Robert Sanders, 24, 916 Oakwood Avenue.

Elder W. J. Thompson, who is pastor of the Eastern Star Holiness Church, 720 E. Hargett Street, told Officers J. K. Harrison and J. W. Howard at 9:42 p.m. last Friday, that he was holding services at this church then the pair opened the door of the edifice and started "cursing and using profane language." The elder stated that one of the subjects pulled out a butcher knife and stated, "I am going to cut the pastor and his congregation," At this point, Elder Thompson stated, the two men turned a-(See TWO MEN, P. 2)

We're Not

AROLINIANNorth Carolina's Leading Weekly RALEIGH, N. C., WEEK ENDING SAT., FEB. 5, 1972 SINGLE COPY 15¢ VOL. 31, NO. 14

Raleigh Minister Identifies Duo As

Only Staff Members Involved

农农农农 なななな 公公公公 Edmonds To Senate?

Faculty Reduction Looming

BY STAFF WRITER Dr. J. Archie Hargraves, president of Shaw University, announced Wednesday the pintments of four top administrators and at the same time, told the student body ga-

Others To Seminary NASHVILLE, Tenn. - A series of five lectures, four sermons and a banquet address will be given as the Fifteenth Annual

DR. BENJAMIN E. MAYS

Dr. Mays,

Garnett-Nabrit Lectures of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, 1800 White's Creek Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, April 11-13, 1972. Stimulating sermons and lectures will be given in the Seminary Chapel by Dr. Benjamin Mays, world famous Christiam pulpiteer and lecturer, and Dr. Clyde T. Francisco, inter-nationally known Old Testament

Dr. Mays is president emeri-(See MAVS, OTTERS, P. 2)

E CHICELOPI. Delegate May Run

Through: Cabbies

BY STAFF WRITER

"We are not through with this matter yet. Exactly what steps we will take from here remains to be seen but you can bet we will take some further action." This statement came from A-Foram Servance, owner of the Independent Cab Company and Daniel Hooker, owner of the United Cab Company, late Tuesdat afternoon after a meeting with the Raleigh - Durham Airport Authority which, in their words, "profited nothing," The Black cab owners told a CAROLIN AN reporter Tuesday they will begin to map their strategy for further action against the airport authority and said, "They will be hearing from us pretty soon."

Servance and Hooker have been trying to meet with Henry Boyd, airport manager, and the Airport Authority board since the (See CABBIES, P. 2)

Credit Union Boasts Over 265 Grand

ROCKY MOUNT - The 40th period many more people wanted annual meeting of the Atlantic to borrow from the Credit Un-Credit Union of Rocky Mount ion than wanted to invest money was held here January 24th with in it.

MISS MAHALIA JACKSON

the officers reporting total as- Much credit is due Louis Pip- Rock Hill, S. C. sets of $265,167 as the organi- en, the aging, faithful secretaryzation recounted its strugglesto treasurer, whose wife works keep alive over the 40 year with him doing much of the clerperiod and made what often ical work of the Atlantic Credit seemed to some like very slow Union. He relates how that one progress in gaining members group of the 'elite' even came and building assets. During this to the Credit Union seeking to WomenVoters would have been a rival credit WillDiscuss Reform Wed.

The Raleigh-Wake County League of Women Voters will sponsor a discussion on the the following: Cash in the bank welfare reform bill next (checking) $28,588; cash on de-Wednesday at H:30 a.m. at the posit, $13,400; loans, $222,292; Christ Episcopal Church at the fixtures, $689; and prepaid ex-corners of Edenton and penses, $192. Wilmington Streets here in Raleigh.

Joe B. Parks, Deputy Assistant $3,000; shares, $233,809; reto the Secretary of Health, Edu- serve fund, $15,578; and undividcation and Welfare in Wash- ed profits, $11,875. Total Inington, D. C., will be on hand terest income was $18,838, while with up to date information on expense totaled $8,233. A 4 1/2 the welfare reform legislation. He will also answer questions concerning the welfarelegislature.

Parks, who has been in govern-(See LEAGUE OF. P. 2)

AT FUNERAL OF "WORLD'S GREATEST GOSPEL SING-ER" - CHICAGO: Aretha Franklin (L) sings during the memorial service for gospel singer Mahalia Jackson at McCormick Place February 1. As she sings "Precious Lord," mourners (R) break into tears and some faint. Woman is holding smelling salts for man who has become faint while another man is helped up after collapsing. About 5,000 persons attended the service. (UPI).

Nixon Climaxes Story Of Brown's Success BY ALEXANDER BARNES

INQUIRING REPORTER

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The ident Richard M. Nixon told a success story of a black North packed audience that Robert J. Carolina dropout, who realized Brown was "Exhibit No. 1" of his plight and worked zealously what America has to offer for to become a success was endthose who want to accept the ofed here Sunday night when Pres-(See NIXON, P. 2)

BY STAFF WRITER At this stage of the game, who do you think will carry the black vote in the presidential election in 1972?

Mrs. Felica Adams,

"It appears to me that at this I would think that Kennedy would stage of the game, most Blacks carry the Black vote if he de-" want Kennedy to seek the demo- (see THEY SAV. P. 2)

Hawke Seeks Black Vote

Jacke Hawke, who announced bid and lost the election by borrow money to set up what union, rather than join the slow-James T. Bailey is the president, who has served with Pipcounties. In the four counties en for a score of years or more. he was definitely going after the

They were reelected. Among the principal assets of black vote this time. Atlantic Crecit Union listed are only one percent in his 19

Liabilities included deposits of $903; unearned interest, percent dividend was voted to be paid shareholders.

ly rising Atlantic.

The organization made 478 loans during 1971, which totaled $142,662, making the gain in (See CREDIT UNION, P. 2) his intention to capture the 4th just that margin. When asked District Congressional seat, by a CAROLINIAN representanow held by Nick Galifianakis tive, at one of his press conand composed of Wake, Durham, ferences, if he knew that his Chatham and Randolph failure to visit one black woman in Method cost him the black Monday, made it known that vote in Wake County, he replied "I don't intend for that to happen this time". He bemoaned the fact that he got He prided himself for having cratic nomination. However, he has said he will not run. But thering that 24 persons had been released from their positions with the (See SHAW U. P. 2)

SCLC Now

Supports

Strikers

Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) is supporting right to organize.

last week and pledged the organi-

(See SCLC WITL P. 2)

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column or feature is produced in the pub-lic interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numer-ous individuals have requested that they be given the considera-tion of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do. However, it is not our position to be judge or ju-ry. We merely publish the facts as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of The Crime Beat Columns, merely means not being registered by a police officer in reporting his findings while on duty. So sim-ply keep off the "Blotter" and you won't be in The Crime Beat. STABBED AND CUT

James Edword Stephens, 409 Bragg Street, told Officer P. E. Braswell at 7:35 p.m. Saturday, that he was at 313 W. Cabarrus Street, Apartment 5, when the trouble started. He stated the person who cut him was also in this apartment. He said the subject started beating and cutting him at the bottom of the stairs. After being cut, Stephens said he left and caught a taxicab to Wake Memorial Hospital, Vann Smith, who occupies the apartment mentioned, told the cop that he saw or heard nothing about the cutting. "Mr. Stephens was drunk when I tried to talk to him," ended the officer's report. He was stabbed in the right leg, stabbed several times in the left hand and cut on the chest. (See CRIME BEAT. P. 3)

DURHAM - The N. C. Black Republican Cau-

purpose - to give the ficiating. Burial followed in the Chicago, Ill; one son, J. C. Party a new image, asit relates to the Black vote - by asking Dr. Helen Grav Edmonds to BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - The be the Republican candidate for the U.S.Sentwo battles of workers for their ate seat. now held by B. Here in Birmingham, Dr. Ralph Everett Jordan. This is David Abernathy, the SCLC Pre- said to be the beginning sident, spoke at a mass rally of the Black Republization's continuing support for cans to place qualified thousands of hospital workers Negores on the ticket, who are in the process of or- for national, state and Earlier last week, he spoke at county offices. Dr. Edanother rally in Savannah, Geor- monds is past chairman of the Graduate School at North Carolina Central University, Durham.

Dr. Edmonds is no stranger to politics and gained national acclaim in Republican circles when

(See DR. FDMONDS. P. 2)

STATE NAACP CONVENTION PRINCIPALS - Shown are national and state officers who attended an all-day Leadership Conference, at the Hilton Inn, Saturday, Jan. 30 in Greensboro, sponsored by the N. C. Conference of NAACP Branches, Seated, 1-r, Charles A. McLean, State Field Director; Mrs. Ruth Morgan, Wendell; B. J. Battle, State Treasurer, Mrs. Ruby Hurley, Southeast Division Director; Joseph Mitchell, State Political Action Chairman and Mrs. Beatrice Burnette, State Recording Secretary. Standing, left to right: Truman Harris, EEOC for North Carolina, Alexander Barnes, Director, Public Relations; K. M. Alexander, Jr., Youth Program Director; Kelly Alexander, Sr., State President; Grover Smith, National Director, Labor and Industry; Charles Beckton, State Legal Committee; W. Ronald Cunningham, State Youth President, and Nas thaniel R. Jones, General Counsel.

in the state, was unostentatiously buried here, Wednesday, while hundreds stood in sorrow, as the minister intoned the last sad words-John Clarence Scarborough, Sr. Funeral services for Scar-Scarborough is survived by borough were conducted Wed- his wife, Mrs. Clydie F. Scarnesday, Feb. 2 at 2 p.m. at borough; two daughters, Mrs. St. Joseph's AME Church with Ernestine S. Bynum of Durham, cus began its designed the Rev. Philip R. Cousins of- and Mrs. Edythe S. Williams of Beechwood Cemetery.

(See SCARBOROUGH. P. 2)

NAACP OF NC Adds To Sen. Jordan's Woes

Leaders of the N. C. Branches death The NAACP leaders also sent of the NAACP added more woes to junior senator, B. Everett Jordan, Saturday when they sent him a scathing telegram that if he joined Senator Sam Ervin and James Allen in talking the (See NAACP TO. P. 2) The NAACP leaders also sent Mansfield - Scott civil rights Black Girl for the coveted post.

(See NAACP TO. P. 2)

Senate Tuesday, he could forget about the black vote, in his ShotIn primary bid for renomination

Movement This is believed to have not phased Jordan any. He is said CAMDEN, Alabama-A black to have been one of the southstudent demonstrator, 16-yearern solons, who voted against old Vicky Dallas, was shot in the cloture when the bill was brought shoulder here at the Wilcox up Tuesday. The sponsors of the County Courthouse last night. bill failed by nine votes to Despite a large number of eyeget a two thirds majority, necwitnesses, authorities did not arrest a white man who fired

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column she seconded the nomination of