Temple Israel AJE Films

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1981 - 8:00 p.m.

Operation Thunderbolt - A dramatization of the daring Israeli rescue mission at Entebbe. This English-language Israeli film was produced with the full cooperation of the government and military officials and authenticated by consultations with the actual participants. An Israeli Special Forces unit flies four planes 2400 miles across Africa and lands on the airstrip in Uganda, with only minutes to carry out their rescue mission. "The best and most authentic film on the subject"...Pat Collins - WCBS-TV.

SUNDAY, APRIL 25, 1982 — 8:00 p.m.

A Wall in Jerusalem - This film, narrated by Richard Burton, concentrates on Israel in the 20th century. It is a comprehensive record of 70 years of struggle in which audiences can appreciate the visual record of historical fact and identify with the universal human need for freedom of religious expression. People of all denominations and educators will find this film of unique and lasting interest.

"An excellent record of the background of current Arab-Israeli troubles in Palestine"...Ann Guarino - Daily News

SUNDAY, JUNE 13, 1982 - 8:00 p.m.

American Schadchen - This Yiddish film, made in 1940 and starring Leo Fuchs, is a comedy filled with songs that tell the story of a frustrated bachelor who has been engaged eight times, but never married. Set in New York, this is really an "American" picture with dribbles of English and "street" Yiddish - a makeshift combination of the old and the new. This is one of the six Yiddish films that have undergone extensive restoration and now have complete English subtitles. It is part of the Rutenberg and Everett Yiddish Film Library of the American Jewish Historical Society.

Please send _____ season tickets for the film series 1981-82 at the cost of $7.00 each.

Ha Lailah BBW

Hunter House

On December 9, members of Ha Lailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women will go to Hunter House to bake holiday cookies with the residents and present them with holiday gifts.

Hunter House is operated by Florence Crittenton Services, an agency which cares for unwed pregnant girls. Hunter House is for girls who have chosen to keep their babies. It teaches them proper parenting and provides them the opportunity to continue their education or learn a vocation while living in a sheltered home.

Hunter House is an ongoing Ha Lailah project. Programming is done bi-monthly by the members of the chapter.

Chanukah Party

A Chanukah party is being planned for children at the Hebrew Academy and at a local day care center. Ha Lailah is planning this so the children at the Academy can share Chanukah with other children in Charlotte.

December Meeting

On December 14, a surprise program is being planned for this combined open board and general meeting. A covered dish dinner will be held and the program will honor the members of Ha Lailah BBW and the chapter's SIXTH birthday. It will be held at the home of Sharon Sand at 8 p.m.

Wesleyan Nursing Home New Years Eve Party

For the third year Ha Lailah is planning a New Years Eve celebration for the residents of Wesleyan Nursing Home.

Entertainment from the community is provided for the residents and refreshments are served. The residents truly enjoy this party and look forward to it. After the party at the home, a New Years Eve party is planned for Ha Lailah members participating in this project.

CHAI

The past several months have been Chaotic, to say the least... right from the world news down to home base and that dastardly killing of Henrietta Wallace. The only worry now is that these kids will be patted on the heads and sent off for about a year or two to 'find themselves' in a rehabilitation center or such, and then they can go out for more thrills. Even though they are young, their minds are very sick.

Henrietta was a wonderful and unusual person, always in there doing things for people, organizations, churches and synagogues. So these kids had their thrills and put an end to all that.

Chai voted to send a donation in Henrietta's name to the Blumenthal Home. Our group visited the Home about a month ago and we were very impressed with it.

We want to take this opportunity to thank you all for your support with our raffle. We did very well and are donating half of the proceeds to the JCC. LUV YOU ALL!

B'nai B'rith Lodge

By Allan Oxman

The B'nai B'rith Lodge is enjoying a very successful year. The membership of two hundred is having tremendous activity in both social and community service areas.

The Jerry Lewis Telethon had provided an outlet for the services of B'nai B'rith. This year the services of the Lodge and BBW were not used by the Telethon. It was an unfortunate situation as this was one of the highlights of the Lodge's CVS programming.

Mark your calendar for December 5, for our Casino Night. This is an outstanding evening; the total function will be run by a group who professionally run casino nights. They will bring all of the casino games and materials found in Las Vegas. Big winners later in the evening will have an opportunity to purchase from their winnings, various gifts at the auction.

An outstanding Lodge meeting was held November 11 at Beth Shalom. Members saw a one-hour replay of a very heartwarming three-hour broadcast done by the PTL Club in Israel. They viewed an interview between Menachim Begin and Jim Bakker. A tour was also made through Yad-Vashem. During this part there were references made to the treatment of the Jews by the Nazis. There were many touching moments in this portion of the telecast dealing with the mistreatment of human beings by other "human beings."

The program then took a lighter turn and went to "The Cave" in Jerusalem. The minister of tourism was interviewed by Mr. Bakker and we saw original Israeli dancing and listened to Israeli music.

During the tour of Israel, the PTL Club planted trees in Israel and overall enjoyed themselves immensely. Many references were made to the fact that in all the travels of PTL, they have never been as warmly received nor shown as good a time as they were in Israel.

The next BB meeting on December 9, is quite exciting as we have been invited to a private tour of Discovery Place. Preceding the tour will be a dinner at the Pewter Rose restaurant at 6:30 p.m. A capacity crowd is anticipated; make your reservations early by calling Ed Sachs (563-0299). Plans are underway for an interesting 1982 lecture series; details to be in next issue.

Anyone interested in membership in the B'nai B'rith Lodge should contact Shel Goldstein (364-5552) for additional information.

BBYO

Chaverim and Mickey Aberman Entertain Patients

On October 28, a group of sixteen members of the Chaverim BBG and Mickey Aberman AZA entertained 40 children at Charlotte Memorial Hospital's children's ward. The BBYOers dressed in Halloween costumes and gave each child a package of assorted candies, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Mond, and helium balloons, donated by The Party Store. They amused the patients with songs, games and stories, all of which were very well received. Coordinator of this annual event was Jodi Mond, who is the president of the MIT group of Chaverim.

Winter Cultural

On November 13-15 the N.C. BBYO Winter Cultural was held in Charlotte. There were 206 BBG and AZA representatives from Raleigh, Asheville, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Wilmington, Jacksonville, Greenville, Fayetteville, and Charlotte.

The convention, coordinated by Hallie Schefflin and Scott Meltsner, started off with registration at the JCC. Manning the registration desk were Jeff Shapiro and Ellen Rothman. That night we had a Shabbat service which was conducted by Cheryl Jankowitz and Neil Kodsi; the Oneg Shabbat was chaired by Susan Shuman and Gary Lerner.

On Saturday we started the day's activities with a Shabbat service followed by business meetings. The afternoon was set aside for the contests under the chairmanship of Cheryl Jankowitz. Saturday night was the dance. During the dance we had telegrams and kiss-a-grams on sale. The proceeds went to ISF.

On Sunday the long-awaited announcements of the winners of the contest came from Eddie Fleishman and Leslie Burkhammer (N.C. Council N'siah).

Chaverim BBG won the most coveted award — The Spirit Cup. It also won first place in photography, story-telling, banner and t-shirt. A second-place award was given for Eastern Region cheer.

Chai BBG won first place award for newspaper, t-shirt (tied with Chaverim) and scrapbook. They won second place awards in banner, story-telling and oratory.

Mickey Aberman AZA won first place awards in color photography, impromptu, story-telling, debate and t-shirt. Second place awards were for banner and scrapbook.

Barak AZA won the Spirit Cup. They also won first place awards in banner, scrapbook, newspaper and oratory. Second place awards were given for songs and impromptu.

We're very proud of the Charlotte Council as its chapters won the most awards in the state.

Sherry Rosen, Tamar Rocklin, Neil Kodsi and David Malin did a great job in housing all the out-of-town guests. A special thanks goes to Beth Shapiro who was an all-around able assistant, and Lisa Josephson who was in charge of transportation.
