Temple Israel Adult Education

A series of three speakers from UNCC is planned for January, February and March to be held by the Adult Education Committee at Temple Israel. On January 10 at 8 p.m. Dr. Stephen Fishman will talk on "The Individual and the Community." This presentation will be concerned with the nature of community and the values which community promotes. The nature of community will be explored by focusing upon three visions of the ideal society: the rural village, the classical city-state, and the religious idea of a spiritual paradise. An important objective of the presentation will be to consider how each of these visions of community influences our attitude toward the modern, industrial city and effects of the modern quality of life.

Dr. Harry Chernotsky will speak on "The Changing Pattern of U.S.-Israeli Relations" on February 7. This talk will focus on the current forces shaping U.S.-Israeli relations, highlighting the major issues and events affecting efforts to maintain cooperative and mutually beneficial ties while preserving peace and stability in the Middle East.

On March 7, Dr. Martin Kleinman will discuss "Jewish Architecture: the Concept of a Dwelling Place." It will be a slide talk, beginning with the very first description of a temporary dwelling place, the Mishkan (or tabernacle) that "I may dwell in them." It will continue with a look at reconstructions (on paper) of the Temple in Jerusalem and, after the second destruction, the numerous examples of a "dwelling place" (Bais Ha-Mikdash Me-At) from large synagogues to Sukkahs, to spice boxes. They are all memories of the fabulous Temple of Solomon that we've carried with us for the past nineteen hundred years, patiently awaiting its rebuilding.

The public is welcome and there is no charge for these lectures.

B'nai B'rith Lecture Series

Sy Kleinman

Esther Jungreis

Yigal Shiloh

The 1982 B'nai B'rith Lecture Series promises to be an outstanding one and will feature three prominent speakers. All of the lectures will be held on Sundays at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center. Admission is $5 per lecture or $10 for the series. Coffee and cake will be served after each lecture.

Sy Kleinman will be the first speaker on January 24: Rebbetzin Esther Jungreis will appear on February 14: Yigal Shiloh will speak on April 4.

Sy Kleinman is a practicing attorney and a member of the faculty of Columbia University Law School. He is a member of one of the largest law firms in New York City. His talents defy description in terms of a story teller, comedian, entertainer; he is a "raconteur extraordinaire". He has a sparkling wit and incisive wisdom and is internationally acclaimed for his clean and stimulating performances, invoking laughter and tears. Mr. Kleinman has made more return engagements than most other performers. What a pleasant way to start the series on January 24!

Rebbetzin Jungreis is probably best known for the founding of "Hineni" in 1973. This is an international movement to awaken the Jewish People to their heritage and inspire our youth to return to their roots. Today Hineni is the major organization combating missionary cults in the United States. It has brought thousands of young Jews back to their faith.

Yigal Shiloh is an outstanding Israeli archaeologist. He is a well known author of many articles in various archaeological publications and the author of two books both published in Jerusalem. His lecture will include the presentation of slides.
