

JCC Spring Class Schedule

LOOK WHAT'S AHEAD

Highlights Of Adult Classes

Many unique, exciting and favorite classes for adults are being offered beginning in February. There is something for everyone. (Teens are welcome to participate in all classes.)

CLASSES & INSTRUCTORS FROM BEFORE

Jean Oliver will be back this February teaching Beginner and Intermediate Bridge in the evenings. Pauline Tulson will be on the Tennis Courts beginning in March with Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced-Doubles Players instruction. The last is a new class added this spring for those who want more strategy and technique but are advanced players. Susan Karben will continue to create beautiful italic handwriting skills for you in Beginner and Intermediate Calligraphy. Sue Alvarez will be here in January for two 2-day intensive Creative Sewing Workshops. These "Sew With Sue" workshops are for those who have taken Sue's classes before, February will begin the new sessions of her Adult Creative Sewing classes one in the evening and one in the morning.

GREAT DECISIONS

Great Decisions, a nationwide program in its 28th year, will be presented under the auspices of UNCC and the Charlotte Observer. This lecture-discussion will be held at the JCC beginning Thursday, February 4 at 7:30 p.m. Purpose of the program is to learn and understand the major foreign policy issues facing the U.S. today. To participate in the 8 week lecture-discussion course, you need to purchase the book which will be available at the JCC prior to the first class. At the end of the session, an opinion ballot may be filled out on each of the issues, which will then be tabulated with others from all over the country by Columbia University. The results will then be presented to Congress, the White House and the national media. The following topics will be covered by faculty of area colleges and universities as well as people in the Charlotte Community.

Feb. 4 — America's Defense: What Price Security? — A representative from Charlotte SANE.

Feb. 11 — Western Europe and the U.S.: Frictions Among Friends — Dr. Louis Ortmeier (Dept. Political Science-Davidson College)

Feb. 18 — Central America: Fire in the Front Yard? — Dr. Lyman Johnson (Dept. of History-UNCC)

Feb. 25 — The Palestinians: History, Politics, and Conflict — Dr. Sanford Silverburg (Dept. Political Science-Catawba College)

March 4 — Protecting The World's Resources: Is Time Running Out? — Dr. Douglas Oldenburg (Covenant Presbyterian Church)

March 11 — No Session
March 18 — Japan: Strategic Ally, Economic Rival — Dr. William Rowe (Dept. of History - UNCC)

March 25 — Global Inflation: Is There A Cure? — A Representative from Charlotte

Business Community
April 1 — The USSR and Poland: Troubles In the Workers Paradise — Dr. Nish Jamgotch (Dept. of Political Science-UNCC)

All sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m. To register send your $6.00 book fee to the JCC, P.O. Box 220188, Charlotte, NC 28222.

Adult Classes

Susan Karben: Has a BA degree in Education with specialization in art. She taught calligraphy in New York and is a member of the New York Society of Scribes. Susan has been teaching calligraphy at the JCC for the past year.

Pauline Tulson: Our tennis and gymnastics for kids instructor for the past few years. Pauline is the Providence Day School Tennis Teams coach and is very active in local tennis leagues.

Tory Bradshaw: Presently work at Harkeys Garden Center where she manages the house plants department. She has taken courses at CPCC and has worked with plants for several years.

Jean Oliver: A member of the American Contract Bridge League, Jean has achieved the Life Master Title. Jean is a member of the American Contract Bridge League Teachers Association and has been teaching bridge at the JCC for the past several years.

Sue Rankin: Since the opening of They Laughed At Edison, Sue has been their head cook and has incorporated many of her recipes into their menu. She has represented "Edison" on television talk shows and has taught at Gaston College and Stanley Tech. She's been a vegetarian for the past 8 years.

Peggy Gartner and Sara Schreiber: Putting their creative skills together Peggy and Sara will be helping you bring some of the traditional foods back into your home.

Instructors

Shuford Smith: Director of the Academy of Computer Science and has set up classes for children and adults at all levels of computer science.

Ene Harbin: Has had several years of experience teaching Hatha Yoga and other exercise clinics. Her dynamics class is her combination of yoga, exercise and aerobics.

Lou Trosch: Developed the basic course - "Financial Planning" for UNCC and from this basic course developed the seminar course in Family Financial Planning. He is a practicing attorney in Charlotte and teaches Business Law and Personal Finance for the College of Business at UNCC.

Henry Ohland: The owner of Grandma's Candy Kitchen which opened here in September.

Sue Alvarez: A local fiber artist who has had shows at Spirit Square and around North Carolina and Virginia where she's won many awards. She has been teaching Creative Sewing here at the JCC for the past year. Fun and creativity are the keys to Sue's classes!

Jane Effinger: After many requests, Jane will be offering Belly Dancing for children and adults this winter at the JCC. Jane owns Bellygrams Inc. and has taught adult classes at the "Y" for several years.

Children's Classes

Louise Bernstein: Louise will use her many stitchery skills to teach her second needlework class at the JCC. She has had extensive experience working with needlepoint, cross stitch, embroidery, and knitting.

Rosalynn Cobb: We are pleased to welcome back Rosalynn for her second year of teaching Orff Music at the "J". Rosalynn comes to us from the Community School of the Arts and has an extensive background teaching Orff Music in the Charlotte area.

Heidi Edidin: With a degree in Early Childhood Education, Heidi has turned her talents to cooking - and has taught many children's cooking classes in Charlotte. She has also done several children's cooking television "spots" for Charlotte's Channel 18. Look for the grand opening of her cookware shop, Charlotte Russe on March 1 in the Independence Plaza on Independence Boulevard.

Cathy Sideman: Cathy has been teaching at the "J" for the last several years - working with children and adults. She also teaches at Spirit Square as well as showing her work at exhibits and festivals around Charlotte.

Anne Yudell: Anne offers 25 years of teaching experience in dance and physical fitness to teach an innovative exercise program for Junior High School aged girls. Anne has just returned from a master class at the Bonnie Pruden Institute of Physical Fitness and she will utilize many of the ideas and programs gained from his trip.

Passover Women's Day

For the second year, the JCC will sponsor a Passover Women's Day program on March 25, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. It will include cooking traditional Passover foods, lunch and discussion on everything you always wanted to know about preparing for Passover.

Creative Playgroup will be available until 2 p.m. for those needing it.

More details will follow in the February and March issues of the "Charlotte Jewish News".

Workout Aerobics

These classes were publicized in the December "Charlotte Jewish News". For more information - Call Sara Schreiber at the JCC.

366-0357

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

This catalogue of activities presents information on programs for the period beginning January 1982.

HOW TO REGISTER

1. Review these pages with your family and decide which activities you and your children wish to participate in.
2. Since registration begins immediately, complete and mail the form below, or bring it to the Center office, with the specified fee.
3. Registration must be accompanied by the FULL FEE and NO telephone registration will be accepted for fee activities.
4. Classes begin as each is indicated.
5. Registration closes SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the starting date of each class or when the maximum number of participants for each class is reached.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

All activities are scheduled on a minimum number of 8 participants, except where noted. We regret that should a class not register sufficient numbers, it will be cancelled and all fees will be refunded.

Because classes are based on a limited enrollment, activity fees are not refundable upon cancellation by a participant unless the place can be filled.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS ARE ENCOURAGED

The Center's activities are based upon the interests and concerns of our members. We hope to be flexible enough to change, delete, and expand services where physically and financially possible. Therefore, your suggestions and ideas are appreciated.

Furthermore, you are cordially invited to serve on any of the numerous or administrative committees of the Center, and to thereby assist in its growth and development.

CHANGES OF SCHEDULE

Our Center is a growing and exciting place. New programs and schedules are constantly being introduced. Sometimes this causes inconvenience to members accustomed to a previous schedule. We try to provide adequate notice for all major changes in schedule, but sometimes we "goof". We are as unhappy as you are when you are inconvenienced, and try to adjust to the situation.

COMPLAINTS & SUGGESTIONS

Our Center is only as good as our knowledge of the growing and changing needs of our members. We know that we make mistakes, and we want to correct them as quickly as possible. Please communicate your complaint to any member of the Center's program staff, Board of Directors, the Executive Director, or the President.

Registration Form is on Page 8.